Mrs. Stringfield Is Honored At Birthday Party

Mrs. James L. Stringfield, whose birthday was celebrated at her home last night, was the guest of honor at a party given by her friends. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Stringfield, 1200 North Main street, and was attended by a large number of friends. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner, and the party was a great success.

Black Crepe For Daytime

Simple frock for autumn.

By VERA WINSTON

BLACK SHEER crepe is used for this new late summer-early autumn frock. It is a disarmingly simple frock that is a good wardrobe backbone. The bodice is snug below a turn-back buttoned down collar. The skirt is gently gathered at either side of the front closing and is good in back. The self-covered buttons are ruffled in back.
