

Misses Rush Will Have Double Wedding Nov. 7

The double wedding ceremony of Misses Elaine and Elnora Rush, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rush of Clyde, is being planned as an event of Sunday, November 7.

Last month announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Elaine Rush to Richard Ensley, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Ensley of Clyde, and Miss Elnora Rush to James Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Peterson of Norfolk, Va.

The Misses Rush have completed arrangements for the rites which will be spoken in the Clyde Methodist Church at 4 p. m. The pastor, Rev. W. T. Medlin, Jr., will officiate. Music is to be presented by Miss Janice Smathers of Clyde, pianist, and Miss Margaret Rose Ensley of Asheville, vocalist.

Mr. Ensley will have his father as best man. Best man Mr. Peterson will be his brother-in-law, William Miller of Norfolk.

Matrons of honor will be Mrs. John Marr of Mars Hill and Mrs. John Evans of Burnsville, both sisters of the brides-to-be.

Chosen as bridesmaids are Misses Elizabeth and Mary Ensley of Clyde, sisters of Mr. Ensley, Miss Lucille Duck of Asheville and Mrs. Donald Bailey of Newport News, Va. (the former Polly Justice of Clyde).

Ushers will include Ronald Rush of Clyde, Lindon Robinson of Canton, John Evans of Burnsville, and John Marr of Mars Hill.

Amelia Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alney Robinson of Clyde, will be flower girl. Jimmy

Mrs. Campbell Has Party For Daughter

Mrs. Woodrow Campbell was hostess of a party Wednesday afternoon in honor of her little daughter, Sylvia Rose Campbell. The occasion marked the second birthday anniversary of the young honor guest.

The Halloween motif was used in all the appointments and favors were Halloween party hats. Refreshments were served on the lawn.

The guests included Laney Chaffin, Betty Shoaf, Johnnie Rogers, Jasper Callahan, Kenneth Martin James, and Marjorie Ann Callahan.

Rush, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rush of Coral Gables, Fla., is to serve as ring bearer.

The brides-to-be will be given in marriage by their father.

Parent-Teacher Group Meets At Hazelwood

The October meeting of the Hazelwood Parent-Teacher Association was held Monday night at the school with Mrs. Whitener Prevost presiding.

Rev. Paul Thrower, pastor of the Hazelwood Presbyterian Church, conducted the devotional and M. H. Bowles, superintendent of schools, was the main speaker. Mr. Bowles spoke on the Transportation System of the Schools. He also suggested that a grievance committee be appointed to take care of any complaints concerning the school.

Plans were discussed for the annual Halloween Carnival to be held on Friday evening, October 29, at the school. A committee appointed to make arrangements for the event is composed of Mrs. Jon-
