

Cora Mae Worley Is Married To Robert Phillips

Miss Cora Mae Worley, daughter of Andy M. Worley and the late Mrs. Lulu Bhea Worley of Canton, and Robert Milton Phillips, son of Martin E. Phillips and the late Mrs. Cora Bigger Phillips of Charlotte, were married at the Beverdam Methodist Church of Canton on Saturday evening, Sept. 25. The Rev. C. B. Ross, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli and white lilies arranged against a background of native mountain greenery and Oregon fern. Seven branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers were also used and the pews reserved for the families were marked with English ivy and white satin ribbon.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Agnes Cook of Asheville, pianist, and Miss Margaret Rose Enley of Asheville and Jack Willis, cousin of the bride, of Canton, vocalist. Mrs. Cook played "Nocturne in E Flat," by Chopin; "Serenade," by Schubert; "At Dawning," by Cadman; and "Clair de Lune," by Debussy. Mrs. Willis sang "Oh, Promise Me," by DeKoven and Miss Enley sang "Ave Maria," by Schubert. "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life," by Herbert, and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction. During the ceremony Mrs. Cook played "I Love You Truly," by Bond. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride wore a gown of ivory moire taffeta with marquisette yoke and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt ended in a court train and her fingertip veil of ivory illusion fell from a coronet of satin braided ribbon embroidered with seed pearls. The bride's only ornament was an heirloom cameo necklace, worn by her aunt on her wedding day. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and tube-roses, centered with white gardenias.

Miss Georgia Worley of Canton was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of mint green taffeta with hoop skirt and matching mitts and a headpiece of yellow chrysanthemums. She carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli, tube-roses, and chrysanthemums tied with yellow satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Eva Jane Worley, cousin of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Ferguson of Canton. Their gowns were fashioned along similar lines to that of the bride. Miss Worley wore champagne yellow taffeta tulle and Miss Ferguson wore powder blue taffeta tulle. Both wore matching hats and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Martin E. Phillips was his son's best man and usher were Benjamin H. Flowe of Concord, cousin of the groom, and W. Lee McElroy of Canton.

Mrs. Charles C. Willis, maternal aunt of the bride, wore a gown of royal blue crepe and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Hubert Flowe of Concord, maternal aunt of the groom, wore a gown of peacock blue with a corsage of red roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride immediately following the ceremony. The residence was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli, roses, aster, and fern. Guests included members of the two families, out-of-town guests, and close friends.

Miss Doris Platt greeted guests at the door and Miss Dorothea Chubb introduced them to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Flowe, Mr. Phillips, and members of the bridal party.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Dee Clark, Mrs. Wiley Robinson, Mrs. Wayne Corpening, and Mrs. Mildred Allison. Mrs. Bryson Ledford and Mrs. John Carver received in the gift room and Mrs. Lois Hardin was in charge of the guest register.

The couple left during the evening.

Midseason Hats Hug The Head

SIDESWEPT BERET... Shows elegance in Burgundy red velvet, to top off the season's feminine fashions. By Otto Lucas.

WAR BONNET... The Indian chief influence is notable in this sensational piece of headgear designed by Anita Andra and shown at Rockefeller Center during Millinery Week. Red felt, white gaura feathers.

FEATHER CALOT... The new head-fitting silhouette in green feathers with clusters of birds, by Laddie Northridge.

DRAPED BERET... Another headliner for 1949, in aqua felt with insert of cocoa wool jersey, batching veil. Germaine Vittu.

SPARKLER... Profile bonnet with rhinestone trim, in a new mesh made of glass strands wrapped in plastic. Feather trim rain-proof.

Miss McElroy Is Hostess For Home Club

Miss Margaret McElroy was hostess for the October meeting of the Francis Cove Home Demonstration Club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. K. Boone, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president.

Leader reports were given as follows: foods, Mrs. C. H. Chumblee; home beautification, Mrs. M. G. Head; poultry, Mrs. W. K. Boone; clothing, Mrs. Troy Wether; and gardens, Miss Marian Boggs.

Miss Boggs also reviewed the following books: "All the King's Men," by Warren; "The Roosevelt I Knew," by Perkins; "The Great Globe Iselt," by Bullitt; "The Making Of A Southerner," by Lumpkin; and "The End of Berlin Diary," by Shirer.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Dee Clark, Mrs. Wiley Robinson, Mrs. Wayne Corpening, and Mrs. Mildred Allison. Mrs. Bryson Ledford and Mrs. John Carver received in the gift room and Mrs. Lois Hardin was in charge of the guest register.

The couple left during the evening.

Mrs. Howell Is Hostess Of Party For Miss Medford

Mrs. Joe Howell was hostess of a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at her home on Maple Street, in honor of Miss Lula Frank Medford, whose marriage will be an event of Saturday.

A color motif of yellow and white was noted in the decorations and party appointments. Vases of yellow and white chrysanthemums were used throughout the residence and an arrangement of the same flowers was used as a centerpiece for the dining table. Lighted yellow tapers were also used on the table.

Games and contests featured the entertainment and Miss Frances Turner was awarded the top prize. A shower of miscellaneous gifts was presented to the bride-elect.

Mrs. Howell was assisted by her daughters, Misses Betty Ann and Martha Howell, Mrs. Frank Knutti, and Mrs. Homer Platt.

The guest list included Miss Medford, her mother, Mrs. Bryan Medford, Miss Mildred Medford, Miss Merrill Green, Miss Frances Turner, Miss Dorothy Richeson, Miss Judy Goodin, Miss Bernice Harrell, Mrs. Zebe Bryson, Misses Edith and Edna Summerrow, Mrs. W. L. McCracken, Miss Elizabeth McCracken, Mrs. Gene Howell, Miss Betty Lou Howell, Mrs. Mark Howell, Mrs. Asbury Howell, Mrs. Will Corzine, Mrs. John Hall, Mrs. Bernard Dellinger of Washington, D. C., Mrs. John West, Mrs. Emmett Green, Mrs. Noble Garrett, Mrs. Herbert Braren, Mrs. Charles Isley, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, Mrs. Garrett Howell, Mrs. Allen Rowe, and Mrs. Fred Vaughn.

Mrs. Fulbright Is Hostess For Home Club

Mrs. Robert Fulbright was hostess for the October meeting of the Rogers Cove Home Demonstration Club which was held Monday afternoon. Mrs. Guy Fulbright, president, presided.

Miss Mary Margaret Smith, home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on How to Buy and Select New Fabrics. Project leaders reporting were Mrs. Ed Nichols, who discussed foods and Mrs. Robert Fulbright, who discussed poultry.

Refreshments were served by the hostess following the meeting.

Mrs. W. T. Stevenson of San Diego, Calif., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Claude Holtzclaw, and Mr. Holtzclaw at their home in Canton. Next week she will visit friends and relatives in Waynesville. Mrs. Stevenson is the former Miss Roberta Haynes of Waynesville.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis left Wednesday for their home in Norfolk after a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Spurgeon Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Colvard. They were accompanied home by Mr. Davis' sister, Miss Anna Jean Davis, who will spend a week in Norfolk as their guest.

Miss Bummy Harrod has returned to Columbia, S. C., after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Harrod. Miss Harrod is dietitian in the Veteran's Hospital at Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Pipes left Sunday for a visit to relatives in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Swearingen, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Zeb Curtis, and Mr. Curtis, left during the week for Asheville where they will make their home with their son, George Swearingen. They formerly lived in Byron, Ga.

Miss Marie Strange, who is a student at Mars Hill College, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Strange. She had as her guests two of her classmates, Miss Lou Griffin and Miss Myrtle Peoples.

Mrs. G. C. Platt has returned to her home after a visit to her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Battle, at their home in Andrews.

Fred Crawford left yesterday for his home in Atlanta after a visit to his mother, Mrs. W. T. Crawford. Mr. Crawford had as his guest during his visit Miss Patricia Gilliam of Charlotte.

Heaviest football player on the roster of the Baltimore Colts of the All-America pro Football Conference is Ernie Blandin, a 245-pound tackle.

Want Ads

LOST—17-jewel Alpha man's wrist watch 18-carat gold. Reward. Sgt. W. L. Hooper, Rt. 2, Clyde. O15

WANTED TO RENT: Furnished one floor plan house. In good location. Married couple. Good references. Call Mr. Jeffries at Dayton Rubber Co. Oct. 15

FOR RENT IMMEDIATELY: Furnished apartment, electrically equipped. Need car, garage. Couple preferred. Call 758-J. Owner going to Florida October 20. See it. Oct. 15

C. A. R. Has October Meeting With Linda Sloan

The Joseph Howell Society of the Children of the American Revolution met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Linda Sloan.

Mrs. James Harden Howell, Sr., senior president of the society, presided and the meeting opened with the usual ritual. Flags were advanced by little Misses Carey Howell and Patience Ray.

During the business session a letter was read from Washington acknowledging receipt of application papers for new members.

The program was presented by Miss Allen Hart, Miss Lane Prevost, and Stanford Massie. Miss Hart played a piano solo, "Humoresque," and Miss Prevost gave a sketch of the life of Theodore Roosevelt mentioning also the other presidents whose birthdays fall in October. Stanford Massie gave two readings, "Believe It Or Not" Facts About Lincoln, and "The Never, Never Boy."

During the social hour the hostess was assisted in serving by her mother Mrs. Ben Sloan, and her grandmother, Mrs. Samuel H. Bushnell.

Fire Destroys Building At Fort Bragg

Fire early today destroyed the X-ray building of hospital No. 1 at Fort Bragg. Unofficial estimates placed the loss at $100,000. Blazing fire rendered the fire spectacular.

The frame building and contents were destroyed. A board of officers began an investigation shortly afterward to determine the origin.

Six More Young Haywood County Citizens

These girls and boys shown above are six more young Haywood County citizens. Right, first row: Hilda Laney, 4 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Laney, Waynesville; Penny, 3 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penney, Waynesville; Lillie Ellen Farnham, 4 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Parton, Waynesville. Second row (left to right): George R. Bryson, Jr., 4 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alcy Kates, Hazelwood; Mikie Bryson, 16 months, son of George R. Bryson, Jr., Hazelwood; and James Robert Hollingsworth, 2 years, son of Bill Hollingsworth, Waynesville. Photos by Ingram's Studio.

The Toggery Starts TODAY Lasts 10 DAYS

Special offer $10.00 In Quality Merchandise

With Every fall SUIT

Once again, The Toggery offers this unusual offer of $10.00 in FREE merchandise with the purchase of any regularly priced suit in stock. Just imagine, getting a $6.50 hat of your choice, and any $3.50 shirt ALL for the regular price of a beautiful fall suit. This offer is good for ten days. There is no time to lose—hurry!

New Stock

Hurry In For Your GIFT! We Have Your Size—Your Style

LOOK - These FREE!

With the Purchase of a Fall Suit

3.95 Manhattan Shirt
60c Cooper Sox
3.95 Manhattan Sport Shirt
$1.50 Beatt Brummell Tie

Buy Your Suit Now and Get $10.00 In FREE Merchandise

The Toggery

LAFF-A-DAY

I think they expect you to say something about a loves for Chambers Creek, senator.