

Announcements

announced at hospital during follows:
 Roy Erwin of Canton, a son, October 18.
 Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blackwell of Canton, a daughter, October 19.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Mooney of Canton, a son, October 20.
 Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Woodard of Clyde, a son, October 20.
 Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Mills of Canton, a daughter, October 21.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark of Canton, Route 2, a son, October 21.

Cope Improves After Deep Knife Wound
 Monroe Cope was reported improving at the Haywood County hospital where he has been since Sunday, suffering from a deep knife wound in his left side.
 Roy Beck remains in jail, pending the outcome of Cope, while Ed Wright is out under $500 bond. The assault was said by officers to have taken place late Sunday at the home of Wright in East Waynesville.
 Paper parachutes are being used with success in Sweden and have attracted attention abroad. The first foreign order called for 3,000 'chutes for the French army in Indo China.

AP Newsfeatures
 Dear Judy,

So you'd like like to be a rodeo queen?
 Well, take a tip from 19-year-old Audrey Ashby, it's mighty hard work. Audrey, who happens to be pretty and brown-eyed besides being a beautiful rider, was recently picked as Eastern Rodeo Queen.
 The prime requisite for a rodeo queen is to like horses, says Audrey. She started riding when she was three, could ride bareback at the age of five. It helps if your family likes horses, too, she says. Her father rode bucking horses and was a pick-up man (helped get other men off their bucking horses). Her mother used to do the square dance on horseback in shows.
 Audrey for the last 7 years has been in shows, east and west though intermittently. Now she has hit the big time—a show at Madison Square Garden. She says: "This is my first big show and I want to be a success. Horses are in my blood and rodeo is going to be my career. I've given up the idea of being an airline hostess, the only other career that ever appealed to me."

 In the show at the Garden, Audrey is a Roman rider (she uses two horses, rides with a foot placed on each).
 The horses must be good reining horses—gentle so you can drop around them without being kicked, she explains.
 At present she is using a three-year-old colt and a 6-year-old horse for her act and while they are the same height and have the same gait (which is essential) they are not twins.
 This year Audrey and her family are moving from their Elizaville, N. Y., ranch to one in Arizona. There she is going to train a pair of twin colts.
 This is not as easy as it sounds. In the first place you must know something about selecting the horses, Tennessee walking horses, she says, have three gaits—flat walk, running walk and canter. The five-gaited English type horse is a show horse. But it is Western stock horses that Audrey will train for the job.
 She will train them on calf-roping and bull-dogging (steer wrestling). The calf roping is more important to teach her horse control, she says.
 Horses are like people, Audrey says. You must learn to understand their personalities. No two are exactly alike.
 If a girl wants a career with

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

Charges Wife Made 12-Point Landing

Too Tall For Army But Girls Think Otherwise

ST. LOUIS (UP)—John Laxton lacks only one inch of being seven feet tall. For that reason the Army doesn't want him, but scores of women do.
 After the Army refused him for the 19th time, Laxton advertised for a wife in the newspapers. He says he received more than 90 proposals from women who prefer tall men.
 One of the candidates said she would willingly divorce her husband who was only five feet tall when he stood on tip-toe.
 Use fresh peaches for a Surprise Fruit Rollup. Make up a recipe of rich baking powder biscuit dough, roll it in rectangular shape, spread with a layer of currant jelly, add a layer of sugared sliced peaches, roll up as you would a jelly roll and bake in a hot oven. Slice and serve with whipped evaporated milk or cream that has been sweetened and flavored with vanilla.
 She loves to do charcoal and exhibited a sketch in the Montana State Fair last year.

FARRERSBURG, W. Va. (UP)—A disgruntled husband, apparently fighting for survival, filed a 12-point bill of complaint asking for a divorce. His wife, he said, "acts exactly like a frenzied Malay running amok, leaving utter destruction in her wake."
 His wife's wake left these, he charged:
 1. An automobile with all windows smashed.
 2. An expensive lounging chair and cabinet radio ruined by hot water.
 3. Several retreats from his home at the point of a butcher knife.
 4. Smashed Christmas gifts.
 5. Clothing rubbed with a greasy ham hock.
 6. Eight clean shirts ripped into shreds.
 7. A complete surprise supper he prepared dashed to the floor.
 8. A $12 box of groceries destroyed by his wife's feet.
 9. A beating administered with the heel of her shoe until he lapsed into semi-consciousness.
 10. A wounded right arm suffered when his wife sank her teeth into it and at the same time tore his trousers to pieces.
 11. A disfigured face which stopped such thrown items as dishes, bottles, butcher knives, rolling pins and an electric iron.
 12. Three trips to a hospital for emergency aid.

Sivian

Slack's

Junior-Deb ORIGINAL

As advertised in October Charm

This zip-out all wool lining gives you a coat you can wear 10 months of the year.

year 'round gadabout with the all wool zip—Here's the one basic coat every wardrobe needs. The magnificent worsted covert fabric, by the J. P. Company is deftly tailored by Junior-Deb... brilliantly accented with a smartly Byron collar, self-fabric buttons, wide cuffs and a... In brilliant year 'round colors...

Sizes 10 - 20... 59.50

Slack's
 Foremost in Fashions

BELK - HUDSON CO.

I Am Just One of the Many Workmen Building the Large Modern Belk - Hudson Store —

Don't Let Us Stop You From Getting to This Week's Bargains

It is true we have torn up the front of the Store, But Take My Word, Just

Cross Our Bridge to VALUES

AT BELK-HUDSON'S

EXPANSION SALE

Hundreds Of Bargains In New Winter Merchandise

14 Big Departments to Serve You

Remember, It Always Pays To Shop At

BELK-HUDSON'S

"Home Of Better Values"

USE OUR CONVENIENT LAY-AWAY PLAN