Librarian's Club Organized In High School

A Library Assistants' Club has recently been organized at the Waynesville High School with Miss Betty Jean Norris as president.

The purpose of the club is to increase pupil interest and participation in school library work and to arouse interest in the study of librarianship as a profession.

Other officers of the new club are Braxton Crocker, vice-president; Marietta Dillard, secretary and treasurer; Sue Owen, reporter; and Elizabeth Patton, historian.

Members of the club in addition to the officers are Virginia Husack, Louise Byson, Charlene Aikin, Dixie McHaffey, Tulon Knight, Eleanor White and Geneva Palmer.

Clyde Home Club Meets With Mrs. Cole

The Clyde Home Demonstration Club met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Otis Cole with Mrs. Pat Cole and Mrs. J. W. Rutz as co-hostesses.

The program included a demonstration on Buying Ready-mades given by Mrs. Pat Cole and a demonstration of Hobbies and Christmas Suggestions given by Miss Mary Margaret Smith.

Project leaders reporting were Mrs. J. W. Harris on foods; Mrs. P. C. Mann on gardens; Mrs. Gray Rogers on poultry; Mrs. Joe Harding on home beautification; Mrs. Stanley Livingston on clothes; and Mrs. Roy Medford on crafts.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Miss Arrington Is Married To Clyde Morgan

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Margaret C. Arrington, daughter of Mrs. H. L. Vance and the late Cicero J. Arrington, to Clyde A. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Morgan of Newcomers Town, Ohio.

The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Messer, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, on the morning of October 20, with the Rev. P. L. Wiseman officiating.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Messer as matron of honor and Mr. Messer served as best man. Mrs. Morgan received her education in the Waynesville Schools and at the time of her marriage was employed at the Eddy Paper Company in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Morgan is a graduate of the Magnolia High School of New Martinsville, West Virginia, and served in the U. S. Navy during World War II.

The couple are residing at 1856 Wooster Avenue, Akron, Ohio.

Joint Hosts To Have Open House

Mr. and Mrs. George Craig and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Russell will hold an open house at the Craig residence on Thanksgiving afternoon following the football game in Canton.

Decorations will be in the Thanksgiving motif and a buffet supper will be served. The dining table will be covered with a lace cloth and will be centered with a silver bowl of fruit and lighted yellow candles in silver holders.

Assisting the hosts in receiving will be Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Worthington, Mrs. F. E. Worthington, Mrs. Clark Edmunds, Miss Mary Medford, Miss Nancy Killian, and Mrs. Hamilton Akers.

Legion Auxiliary To Send Gifts To Oteen

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary are being asked to contribute gifts for men, women or children to be sent to Oteen Hospital for Christmas presents.

Mrs. Virgil Smith, president of the Auxiliary, has asked that gifts be left at Burgin's Store on Main Street within the next week.

Miss Noland Is Engaged To William Hyatt

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Baxter Noland of Lake Junaluska have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Kathryn June Noland, to William Darwin Hyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones Hyatt.

The wedding will take place later in the winter.

Window Display Arouses Interest

Unusual interest is being shown in the exhibit of the Haywood County Library at the Building and Loan office.

The main attraction is a detailed model of Main Street of "Whizzbang," a boom town in Oklahoma, and scene of the book.

Original illustrations showing the town of Whizzbang before and after oil is discovered, are shown in the background.

These exhibits were sent to the library by Lippincott, Publishers, to be used during the Festival week.

Also shown in the window display is the original drawing for Blue Ridge Billy, which has been given to the library and the author's picture which bears the inscription, "To the boys and girls of the Haywood County Library from Lois Lensky."

Miss Bobe Medford arrived Wednesday night from Brenau College to spend the week end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Medford.

Miss Jean Ann Bradley, who is a student at Brenau College, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradley.

Dr. and Mrs. Hattwell Joyner and three daughters, Mandy, Margie, and Sallie, of Gainesville, Georgia, are spending Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Woods.

Miss Dorothy Richeson is spending this week in Pittston, Pennsylvania as the guest of relatives. She will also attend the Army-Navy football game on Saturday.

Plans Complete For Symphony Society Drive

Plans are complete for the annual drive for renewal of memberships in the North Carolina Symphony Society, according to an announcement by James L. Kilpatrick, chairman of the symphony committee.

Mrs. Jonathan Woody and Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan are serving as co-chairmen with Mr. Kilpatrick and the following committee members will work with them: Mrs. Hugh Love, Mrs. Harry Lee Limer, Jr., Mrs. George Bischoff, Mrs. David Hyatt, Mrs. W. T. Hannah, Mrs. Frieda Knopf, Miss Lois Harrold, Mrs. William I. Lee, Miss Frances Robeson, Mrs. Aaron Prevost, Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Miss Lou Elva Eller, all of Waynesville; Mrs. Raymond Lane of Lake Junaluska; Miss Lucille Cathey of Clyde; and Mrs. Dan K. Moore of Sylva.

The Little Symphony, which is a group of 23 musicians selected from the full N. C. Symphony Orchestra and directed by Dr. Benjamin Swalin, will give two concerts here next spring.

Membership in the Society can be secured for $2.00, but active, donor, and patron memberships at $5.00, $25.00, and $100.00, respectively, are also needed.

In view of the highly successful appearance of the orchestra last season, the committee hopes that it will have the enthusiastic support of business, industry, civic organizations, and other groups.
