Leroy Roberson Has Birthday Party At Home

Leroy Roberson was honored on the occasion of his fifth birthday anniversary Wednesday when his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson entertained with a supper party at their home on Brown Avenue.

Christmas decorations were used throughout the residence and all appointments were in red and green.

The young guests were seated at the dining room table, which was centered with a large Santa Claus and red tapers. Places were marked with Santa Claus candles and Christmas candy baskets.

The guests were entertained with movies and Christmas recordings and the hosts were assisted by the sister and brother of the young honor guest, Agnes Jane and Stuart Roberson.

Those present were Carey Howell, Mary Barber, Marietta Campbell, Lynn Kilpatrick, Paul Davis, Jr., Jack Prevost, Joe Cathey, Chip Kilham, Edwin Davis, Harris Prevost, Jimmy Medford, Tommy Walker, and Tommy Prevost.

U.D.C. To Meet This Afternoon

The December meeting of the Haywood Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Queen, instead of at the Presbyterian Church as previously announced. Mrs. James R. Boyd will be co-hostess and Mrs. Sam Queen will preside.

The meeting will open at 3:30 o'clock and a Christmas program will be presented.

Coat Dress

Black broadcloth and velvet.

By VERA WINSTON

THE COAT DRESS, fashioned on slim, trim lines, is one of the major treats of the sartorial season. Ideal for the young figure is this handsome version of black broadcloth embellished with a capelet collar and cuffs of black velvet. The collar takes a high perch and the capelet takes a circular line. Lantern sleeves reach just below the elbow of the slim bodice and the skirt is flared.

Doris Ensley, Margaret Rogers Are Honored

Miss Doris Ann Ensley and Miss Margaret Rogers, whose birthday anniversaries fall on the same day, were honored on Tuesday when their mothers, Mrs. A. L. Ensley and Mrs. Wayne Rogers entertained jointly with a theatre party.

The guests were entertained at a movie followed by refreshments at a drug store.

Those present were the guests of honor and Sylvia Newell, Florrie Patrick, Betty Ann Howell, Linda Welch, Sally Stovall, Elizabeth Elliott, Julia Ann Stovall, June Davis, Joe Boyd, Stanley Williamson, Dick Boyd, David Felmet, Charles Messer, Carl Mundy, Bobby Compton, Bruce Lantz, and Don Cogdill.

Hilda Clark Is Married To William Bishop

Mrs. Harley Clark of Hill Street, Waynesville, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Hilda Clark, to William Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bishop of Clyde, Route 1.

The ceremony took place on November 13, in Clayton, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop are residing with the former's parents in Clyde.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Davis

Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married on last Saturday evening at the Hazelwood Baptist church. Mrs. Davis is the former Miss Anna Jean Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Davis.

Miss Anna Jean Davis Becomes The Bride Of Ben Harrison Davis

Miss Anna Jean Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Davis of Hazelwood and Benjamin Harrison Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Davis of Waynesville, Route 2, were married at the Hazelwood Baptist Church at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening.

The Rev. M. L. Lewis, pastor, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli and fern against a background of evergreens and cathedral tapers in white branched candelabra.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Peggy McCracken, pianist, and Jarvis Brock, vocalist. Selections by Miss McCracken prior to the ceremony included "To A Wild Rose", and "Liebestraum". Mr. Brock sang "Because", and as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer". The traditional wedding marches were used as the processional and recessional and "Clair de Lune" was played during the ceremony.

The bride and groom entered the church together and were unattended. The bride wore a dress of white Botany wool and matching hat with shoulder length veil. Her corsage was of orchids.

Serving as ushers were Glenn Davis, twin brother of the groom, Tommy Curtis, William A. Low and Darwin Jordan.

Mrs. Davis, mother of the bride, wore a dress of grey crepe with corsage of carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a suit of soldier blue with a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents which was attended by members of the two families and close friends.

The bride's table was covered with an imported linen cloth and was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Arrangements of white gladioli and fern were also used.

Mrs. Clyde Jordan presided at the punch bowl and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Everett Brown of Richmond, Virginia, sister of the bride, Miss Ruth Linberry of Raleigh, Miss Janet Lambston of Rich Square, N. C., and Misses Jerry and Betty Hunt of Asheville.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a tailored suit of tan wool with accessories in brown.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School and attended Mars Hill College, where she was a member of the Nonpartisan Society and the College Band. For the past several months, she has been a member of the staff of the Haywood County Public Library.

Mr. Davis is a graduate of the Crabtree High School and Blanton's Business College, Asheville, and served in the Navy during World War II. He is now employed as an accountant for the Commonwealth Sand and Gravel Corporation of Norfolk, Virginia, where the couple will make their home.

Mrs. Henrietta F. Klutz left Wednesday for a few days' visit to friends in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. W. A. Hyatt and daughter, Miss Nancy Hyatt, have returned to their home after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Lachlan Hyatt in Spartanburg and to Mrs. Hyatt's brother, Spalding McIntosh, in Brevard.

Ann W. Prevost Is Birthday Party Hostess

Miss Ann Williamson Prevost entertained a supper party at Camp Unagusta last night in celebration of her tenth birthday anniversary. She was assisted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Whitener Prevost, her grandmother, Mrs. W. T. Crawford and her aunt, Mrs. W. I. Lee.

The camp was decorated for the occasion with holly and red candles and a color scheme of red and green was carried out in the appointments.

The guest list included Mrs. Shuler, teacher of the young hostess, Adora Lea Prevost, Florence Ann Howles, Betty Barber, Agnes Jane Roberson, Jackie Carswell, Marguerite Russ, Ann Coman Crawford, Linda Sloan, Barbara Shuler, Stephen Woody, Bill Crawford, Billy Prevost, Sonny Prevost, Skipper Sloan, Stuart Roberson, George Williamson, and Clyde Ray, Jr.

Maple Grove Woman's Society Has Meeting

The Maple Grove Woman's Society of Christian Service met last Friday at the home of Mrs. J. J. Noland. The program on November 11 was explained by the president, Mrs. C. R. Palmer.

The 4-point program of Advancement was explained by the president and plans were made to hold a District Advance meeting in January.

Plans were also made for the December meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Noland on the Monday night after Christmas at which time the in-charge of the members will be given.

A social hour follows the meeting. Mrs. C. R. Palmer, wife of the minister pastor, was a special guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis and children have returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Herley Beason of Fayetteville. The Rogers family resided in Waynesville.
