D.A.R. Meeting
Is Held At Windover

A Christmas program was presented by Mrs. Frank Kinsey at the December meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution which was held at "Windover", the home of Mrs. James Harden Howell, Sr., on last Friday afternoon. Mrs. James H. Howell, Jr., was associate hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. Kinsey discussed the origin of several Christmas carols and Christmas legends. She then introduced her son, Bob Harry, a member of the Waynesville High School Chorus, who presented three other members of the chorus: Donald Matney, Earl Hoglan, and Don Whisenhunt. The quartet, accompanied by Miss Mary Ann Massie, sang a group of Christmas carols including "Joy to the World," "We Three Kings," and "Silent Night." Mr. Matney also sang a solo, "White Christmas."

Mrs. Hugh Jolly read the Christmas message from the president general in the D.A.R. magazine. Mrs. James R. Boyd, vice-regent, presided during the business session at which time reports were made by committee chairmen.

Miss Mary Ann Massie, who has been selected to represent the chapter and the Waynesville High School in the annual Good Citizenship Pilgrimage Contest, was a special guest and was introduced by Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn. Mrs. Gwyn congratulated Miss Massie on her outstanding record during her years in high school and expressed the pleasure of the chapter in sponsoring her for the contest.

Miss Ida Penny, chairman of approved schools, reported a box, valued at $30.00, had been sent to Crossnore; and Mrs. R. L. Prevost, chairman of Ellis Island, reported a box of yarn was ready for shipment.

Mrs. Howell, Sr., chairman of Indian work, reported that she had made a visit to Cherokee School accompanied by Mrs. J. R. Boyd and had taken 240 magazines from the chapter.

The members decided to donate Christmas gifts for Moore General Hospital and it was noted that games, cards, stationery, and candy were among the items most enjoyed by the patients. The gifts are to be left at the home of Mrs. Gwyn within the next few days.

Following the meeting the hostesses entertained with a tea for members of the chapter and a number of additional guests.

The residence was decorated throughout with Christmas greenery and candles. The tea table at which Mrs. L. M. Killian, Sr., and Mrs. Boyd presided, was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of holly and red tapers in silver holders.

Those invited for tea included Mrs. Hugh Massie, Miss Mary Ann Massie, Mrs. Raymond Lane, Miss Nancy Killian, Mrs. Frank Smathers, Mrs. Douglas Grant, Mrs. Boyd Owen, Mrs. Clayton Walker, Mrs. Paul Thrower, Mrs. Noble Garrett,

Use Your Camp
Weeks Longer

Build this Fireplace

that CIRCULATES HEAT
Now you can open your summer camp earlier in spring, stay far into fall . . . even use it for winter week-ends. The HEATILATOR Fireplace actually saves the heat wasted up ordinary chimneys—CIRCULATES this extra warmth to far corners and adjoining rooms! Proved in cabins and homes all over America.

WILL NOT SMOKE
The Heatilator is a steel form with hollow walls arched which the masonry is easily laid. By assuring correct construction this scientific unit eliminates faults which usually cause smoking.

Aprons and Smocks Do The Trick

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press—Fashion Editor

Now is the time to consider your clothes budget. Those expensive new dresses will last longer and look better if you protect them with some of the gay new aprons and smocks available today. Some are so smartly styled that they actually add to the effectiveness of an at-home outfit. For a few dollars you can have three all-round changes in cover-up garments—a utility apron for the kitchen, a frilly one for bridge or cocktail parties, and a smock-coat for going to the market, studying or lounging around the house. Pictured here are new designs by Frances Peck.

THRIFTY LOUNGE ATTIRE . . . Smock coat for student or housewife in a smart rayon print, budget-priced.

KITCHEN SWANK . . . New look in a Guatemalan print.

PARTY APRONS . . . Left, washable glazed chintz with ruffled edge. Right, lace-trimmed balloon cloth trifle.

LONG AND SHORT OF IT . . . Mother-daughter apron set in printed cotton with bow-knot design. All by Frances Peck.

Bridge - Dinner
Is Given On Saturday Night

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles and Mrs. L. M. Richeson entertained with a bridge dinner at the home of Mr. Richeson on last Saturday evening.

The rooms were decorated with holly and red candles and all appointments were in the Christmas motif. Tables at which the guests were seated for dinner were centered with lighted red tapers.

Following the games prizes were presented to the holders of high and low scores.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins, Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., and her mother, Mrs. W. W. Norman of Griffin, Ga.

White faille dinner dress.

By VERA WINSTON

WHITE TISSUE FAILLE, used for a dinner dress cut on Grecian lines, makes a graceful, graceful design. Antique gold metallic bands outline the bosom and shoulder cap and slim the silhouette in front in a neatly smart fashion. On the skirt, the bands are used in a vertical line terminating in a slit at the center front. From the long torso waistline, the skirt falls in gentle drapery. This is an ideal gown for all but the most formal occasions.
