An Efficient Commissioner

We know the day that Governor Cherry named D. Reeves Noland as Highway Commissioner of the 10th district that a wise choice had been made. We were aware of the fact that Mr. Noland knew the district comprising 14 counties from one end to the other. We knew too that he was a practical man, having had a lot of experience in business, farming and engineering.

A Community Sing

For several years prior to the war, this community enjoyed every Christmas season, what was known as a "community sing". Several hundred citizens met at a theatre or church, and there for an hour, would enjoy the fellowship of singing the famous Christmas carols.

Lending A Helping Hand

Already many clubs, Sunday School classes, organizations, and individuals, are making plans for spreading Christmas cheer by sending out baskets sometime next week.

Another Law Enforcement Office Gets Radio

We were interested to note that Jackson County has placed an order for a radio for the sheriff's department, to tie in with the state patrol radio system. Three towns of Haywood police together with the sheriff's office, and highway patrol have enjoyed the practical uses of the radio system for some time.

5 YEARS AGO - New high in Christmas shopping is set in this community.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Would you like to see the old court house clock restored and placed near the court house?
Robert H. Gibson: "Yes I would. The sentiment attached to that clock over a period of years is still in the hearts and minds of the people and we would like to hear it strike again."

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON - Whether it's Mrs. Truman's "Ozark Pudding" or something called "stuffed monkey" that you want to whip up for the family, you'll find the recipe in a unique 600-page cook book due to come out in January.

MIRROR OF YOUR MIND

Is self-confidence an aid to success? Answer: Not when it rests on a tendency to overestimate your achievements, reports George S. Klein, psychologist at the Menninger Clinic.

from her completely. Again, most men get their moral principles and standards from their mothers, so that if a mother either tells her son that his wife "is not worthy of him," or has brought him up to feel his sexual desires are shameful, his love for his wife will make him feel so guilty, he may turn against her.

CHURCHILL'S FEARS - Winston Churchill tells the House of Commons, "We should endeavor to reach a settlement with Russia before they have the atomic bomb as well as the Americans."
NEW BREAD A'COMING - CHICAGO (UPI)—The American Bakers Association predicts that the bread of tomorrow will be baked in only 30 seconds.

GREEK MEETS GREEK!

Rambling Round

Is there anything more beautiful than the wide-eyed excitement of youngsters, with faces pressed tight against the windows of the Firestone store?
He wore heavy, lined blue overalls and a cap pulled down. And over his shoulder hung the strap of a red tool bag. And beside him stood a kid to keep up with his long stride. It was a little girl. Never was a grandfater prouder.
