Movie Producers Prefer Brunettes Survey Indicates

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Gentlemen may prefer blondes, but a starlet has produced evidence that movie producers prefer brunettes two to one.

There's a lot of time to waste between scenes of "Colorado Territory" and "Warner Bros." Some players find offices crickets.

Claudette Colbert, Linda Darnell, Viveca Lindfors, Dorothy Lamour, Myrna Loy, Anne Baxter, Deanna Durbin, Margaret O'Brien, Elizabeth Taylor, Jennifer Jones, Katharine Hepburn, Dolores del Rio, Yvonne de Carlo, Joan Bennett, Rosalind Russell, Deborah Kerr, Carmen Miranda, Maria Montez, Marguerite Chapman, Janis Paige and Ann Blyth.

Mayo Patricia Noel, Eleanor Parker, Betty Hutton, Ginger Rogers, Sonia Henie and Marlene Dietrich. There are another 11 stars whom you can't list as either blonde or brunette. They are Lauren Bacall, Bette Davis, Ingrid Bergman, Irene Dunne, Dorothy McGuire, Alexis Smith, Jane Allison, Joan Fontaine, Shirley Temple and Esther Williams.

Pfc. Robert Green Graduates From Infantry School

Private First Class Robert J. Green Jr., 24 year old paratrooper of Waynesville, was recently graduated from the 187th Glider Infantry Regimental Non-commissioned Officers' School.

Officers' School. Pfc. Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Green of Route 2, Waynesville. The men attending the school were selected by their company commanders as leading or potential non-commissioned officers and spent two weeks undergoing intensive instruction in technical and tactical subjects with emphasis on leadership and methods of instruction.

in June 1947. He joined the 11th A/B Division in September 1947, was assigned to the 187th Glider Infantry Regiment and is currently working as Light Machine Gunner in Company "B".
