Miss Dorothea Jean Calhoun Becomes Bride Of Kenneth Earl Turner

Miss Dorothea Jean Calhoun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alexander Calhoun, became the bride of Kenneth Earl Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Turner, in a ceremony which took place at the First Baptist church here on Friday, December 31, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor, pronounced the vows, using the double ring service.

The altar of the church was decorated with evergreens interspersed with baskets of white gladioli and branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Douglas Moore, organist, and Miss Mozelle Limer and Charles Isley, vocalists. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Moore played "Ava Maria" by Schubert and "Clair de Lune" by Debussy. Mr. Isley sang "Because," by deHardestot and Miss Limer sang "I Love Thee," by Gregg. The traditional marches were used as processional and recessional and "O Promise Me" was played while the vows were spoken.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline and yoke of Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was trimmed in front with rosebuds designed of white satin and seed pearls, and the long sleeves ended in points at the wrists. The full skirt with inserted panels of Chantilly lace ended in a cathedral train and her two-tiered finger-tip veil of French tulle and lace fell from a coronet of matching seed pearls. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a lavender orchid and showered with white satin ribbon.

Miss Margaret Jane Palmer was maid of honor and wore a gown of heavenly blue taffeta with low-cut bodice, fitted bodice and full skirt over which matching tulle was draped and held in place with blue satin bows. She wore a strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of contrasting carnations.

Miss Norma Jane Burgin and Miss Betty Pruett of Canton, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Burgin wore a dress of orchid taffeta with matching headdress, and Miss Pruett wore a dress of yellow taffeta with matching headdress. Both dresses were similar to that of the maid of honor and the maids carried bouquets of contrasting carnations.

Little Miss Jean Allen Patton of Asheville, niece of the groom, was flower girl and wore a dress of orchid taffeta similar to those of the other attendants. She scattered rose petals from a basket of yellow tulle.

J. D. Kelly served as best man for the groom and ushers were Sam L. Calhoun, brother of the bride, and Joe Allen Nuckalls of Hendersonville, nephew of the bride.

Mrs. Calhoun, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of green faille with sequin trim and brown accessories. Her corsage was of copper rosebuds. Mrs. Turner, mother of the groom, was attired in a dress of green crepe with brown accessories and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lowe, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Joe Tate, and were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Joseph Stanell, sister of the bride. Receiving with the bridal party were Mrs. Calhoun, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Turner,
