

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Burrell

Mr. and Mrs. Burrell were married on Christmas Day at the home of the bride in Hazelwood. Mrs. Burrell is the former Miss Mildred Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rogers of Hazelwood.

Mildred Rogers Is Bride Of Willie Burrell

Miss Mildred Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rogers of Hazelwood, was married to Willie Burrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burrell of Canton on Christmas day at the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. M. L. Lewis performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the families and a few close friends.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar arranged with baskets of white chrysanthemums, white gladioli, snapdragons, and ferns.

The bride and groom entered together and were unattended. The bride wore a dress of royal blue with black accessories and a corsage of red rose buds.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception.

Mrs. Burrell is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School and is now employed at the American Enka Corporation.

Mr. Burrell attended the Canton

V.F.W. Auxiliary Provides For Needy Families

A report has been made on the Christmas projects conducted by the Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars. The organization supported nine needy families with food, clothing and groceries and sent flowers to veterans at Oteen hospital and to two wives of veterans who are patients at the Haywood County Hospital.

Bible Class Is Named For Mrs. Ed Green

The Woman's Bible Class of the Clyde Methodist church has recently adopted the name "The Mae Green Bible Class" in honor of the late Mrs. Ed Green.

Mrs. Green was assistant teacher of the class and an active member of the church.

A large plate with appropriate inscriptions has been ordered to be placed on the classroom door.

Mrs. Robert Ray Riley

Mrs. Riley is the former Miss Betty Frances Tuttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clifton Tuttle. She was married on last Friday afternoon in the Boyd Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist Church.

Betty Frances Tuttle Is Married To Robert Ray Riley

The marriage of Miss Betty Frances Tuttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clifton Tuttle to Robert Ray Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Earle Riley of Greensboro, was solemnized Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock, in the Boyd Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. Charles N. Clark, superintendent of the Waynesville district of the Methodist church, pronounced the vows, using the double ring ceremony.

The chapel was decorated with woodwardia ferns and tall baskets of white gladioli. At intervals seven-branched candelabra and palms completed the altar arrangements. The windows were decorated with greenery and lighted by tapers.

Miss Bette Hannah, organist, and Charles Isley, vocalist, presented a program of wedding music. Before the ceremony Miss Hannah played, "O Promise Me," "To A Wild Rose," by McDowell, "Always," by Berlin, and "I Love Thee," by Grieg. She also played "Clair de Lune," by Debussy while the vows were spoken. Mr. Isley sang "Because," by DeHartelot, "Through The Years," by Youmans and as a benediction sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gabardine suit of forest green. Her hat and blouse were of pink with the hat fashioned of straw cloth trimmed in rose geraniums and a face veil. Her corsage was of pink orchids.

Miss Jean Crouser of Waynesville, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a navy blue afternoon model fashioned with square neckline and full circular skirt. Her hat was of royal blue feathers and her flowers were pink roses.

Michel Tuttle, young brother of the bride, was ring bearer. He wore a suit of light blue flannel and carried the rings in a lily.

The bridegroom had as his best man his father, and ushers were Leon Kilian, Jr., and Henry Tuttle.

Mrs. Tuttle, mother of the bride wore an afternoon dress of royal blue with sequins trim and her corsage was of white gardenias. Mrs. Riley, mother of the groom, wore a black model with corsage of white gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony at the church the parents of the bride entertained with an informal reception at their home. The guest list was confined to members of the two families and out-of-town guests. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. J. C. Crouser and Mrs. Fred N. Pegg of Kernersville.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the bride's cake, with graduated tapers at either end. White flowers were used throughout the living and dining rooms.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School and is a member of the current junior class at the Woman's College at the University of North Carolina, where she is majoring in primary education. She plans to continue her work until graduation.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Greensboro High School and attended Oak Ridge Military Academy. He is a veteran of World War II, having served for three and one half years with the Intelligence Corps of the United States Army. He holds a position with the Carolina Sales and Engineering Company, Incorporated, of Greensboro.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 209 West Fisher Avenue, Greensboro.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. Fred N. Pegg of Kernersville, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Henry of Clyde.

ALL ON THE HOUSE
TULSA, Okla. (UP)—The cost of living went down to zero at one local eating place but patrons knew it was only temporary. When Ed G. Thrasher, owner of the Ferndale Buffet, sold his business, he issued cards to his customers saying, "You have been our friends as well as customers. Please be our guests today." Everything was on the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Noland and family returned Friday from Melbourne, Florida, where they spent the Christmas holidays.

Clyde Students Return To College

Many Clyde students returned to schools and colleges through the state this past week-end after spending the Christmas holidays with their parents.

Girls from Woman's College, Greensboro, who were at home for the two weeks vacation were: Miss Gladys Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown, Sr.; Miss Peggy Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Mann; Miss Nancy Medford, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Medford; Miss Mildred Rhinehart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Rhinehart; and Miss Mary Ensley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Ensley.

Boys from State College, Raleigh, who visited in Clyde during the holidays were: Bill Haynes and Van Haynes, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Haynes; Lewis Rogers, son of Mr. and Ernest Rogers; Gene Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Haynes; and J. M. Carver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gliner Carver.

Glenn William Brown, student at Wake Forest College, Wake Forest, spent the past two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brown.

Harold Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Chambers, was here from Warren-Wilson College, Swannanoa, where he is a student. Harry and Richard Stamey, sons of Mrs. Harry Lee Stamey, and also students at Warren-Wilson, were in Clyde for their Christmas vacation.

Dinner-Bridge Is Given By Everett McElroys

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McElroy were hosts of a dinner party at their home on Saturday evening in honor of the latter's sister, Mrs. Harold Frye, and Mrs. Frye of Oak Ridge, Tennessee, who were their guests for the holidays.

Seasonal decorations were used throughout the residence and tables were assembled for bridge after the serving of dinner. Prizes were awarded after the games to Mrs. Frye, who held high score, Mrs. Julia Cassidy, who held second high, and Mrs. Russell Fultz, who held low.

Those present in addition to the guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Young of Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Green, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fultz, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Liner, Mr. and Mrs. Benny James Moow, Miss Patricia McElroy, Mrs. Harry Lee Liner, Jr., and Mrs. Julia Cassidy.

December Bride

Mrs. T. Carlton Holt is the former Miss Doris Lee McCracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson McCracken of Clyde. Her marriage to Mr. Holt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Holt of Clyde, took place on Friday, December 24, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Newell.

Canton Decoration Party Is Given

W. L. Likard and Mrs. J. R. Westmoreland, won first and second places in the annual Christmas decoration contest sponsored by the Canton Lions club in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce.

A large number of homes were decorated, and the judges reported a difficult task of selecting the winners.

Among those receiving honorable mention included Mrs. Maude Duckett, Mrs. Stella Bottoms, Mrs. Virginia Chace, Mrs. R. W. Scholl, and Mrs. Jarrett Williamson.

The two prize winners will be given awards at an early meeting of the Lions Club.

In using sandbags for holiday cookies on fruit cakes cut them with a kitchen scissors.

Party Is Given New Year's Eve

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bridges were hosts of a Watch Party at their home on Maple Street on New Year's Eve.

Vases of pink and white snapdragons were used in decoration of the living room and in the dining room, where refreshments were served, lighted white candles and ivy were used. The table was covered with a white linen cloth and held a punch bowl and white candles in crystal holders. Mrs. Howard Bryson assisted in serving.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boutwell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ratcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isley, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Leatherwood.

Maple Grove Society Has Dec. Meeting

The Woman's Society of the Methodist Church met on December 27, at the home of S. L. Queen.

A program of Christmas and a meditation service led by the president, Mrs. Glavich.

Mrs. J. G. Noland, president, reported that the number of members was enough to take care of the third increase added in the Vance Program.

Plans were made for the Advance meeting to be held January 21, at the home of Mrs. Glavich, beginning at 10 a. m. All women who are members of Maple Grove church will receive a special invitation to attend meeting and will be guests of the Society at a covered dish luncheon.

Husbands of the members of the Society were special guests at the meeting and the ladies served refreshments during the evening.

T. Sgt. Clarence Bhatti, Reen, Squadron in Hamilton, Bermuda, spent a few days last week with his family in Hazelwood. He left Tuesday for Macedonia and will return to his post.

Want Ads bring quick results.

BACKACHE

For quick comforting relief for Rheumatic Pains, Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Sprains, Irritation, etc., use the only medicine that relieves pain in minutes. It is a non-toxic, non-habit-forming, and non-drowsy remedy. It is a sure relief for all kinds of pain. It is a sure relief for all kinds of pain. It is a sure relief for all kinds of pain.

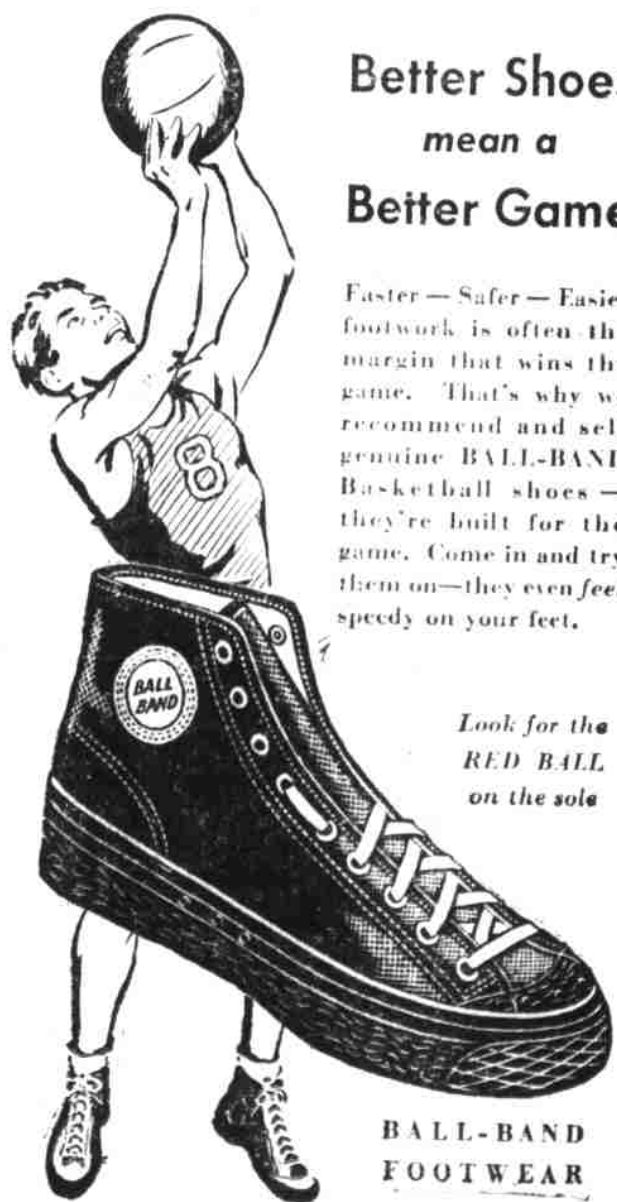

Here is effortless washing that is all-automatic. It soaks, rinses, spins-dries at a setting of the dial. See it in ACTION TODAY!

Haywood Electric Service
Phone 434
Main St. Hazelwood

You Will Find At RAY'S —

Professional Grade Basketball Shoes

— For Both Men and Women —

Better Shoes mean a Better Game

Faster — Safer — Easier footwork is often the margin that wins the game. That's why we recommend and sell genuine BALL-BAND Basketball shoes — they're built for the game. Come in and try them on—they even feel speedy on your feet.

Look for the RED BALL on the sole

BALL-BAND FOOTWEAR

Also—Tennis and Gym Shoes—All Sizes

RAY'S Shoe Dept.

Methodist Circles To Meet Today

The circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church will meet today as follows:

Circle No. 1 at the home of Mrs. Noble Garrett, Sr., at 3:30 p. m.

Circle No. 2 at the home of Mrs. Robert Livingstone at 3:30 p. m.

Circle No. 4 at the home of Misses Helen and Frances Ray at 7:30 p. m.

Circle No. 5 at the home of Mrs. Carleton Weatherby with Mrs. William Dover as co-hostess at 7:30 p. m.

Stylized Sealskin

For town or country.

By VERA WINSTON

SEALSKIN HAS staged a triumphant come-back, not merely as a good country coat or a coat for general wear, but as a coat that is right for almost any dress-up occasion. Shown here is a good example of the new order when it comes to Alaska sealskin coats. It has a high collar that is convertible into a classic rever for casual wear. Three buttons close the front, harlequin fashion. The sleeves have an elasticized wrist band from which the cuff ripples. The back is very flared.

We Are Continuing To Offer . . .

20% OFF

— On The Following Items —

MEN'S SUITS
SPORT COATS
TOP COATS
WOOL JACKETS

ONE GROUP
WORK SHOES

DRESS SHIRTS
PAJAMAS

LEATHER
COATS & JACKETS
WOOL SHIRTS

ONE GROUP
DRESS SHOES

We will Save You 20c Out of Every Dollar You Spend On These Items

BALENTINE'S MAN STORE