

Leaders To Address Meeting Scout Council Monday

Leaders, superintendent of schools, will be the guests at the annual Scout Council meeting Monday, at the First Baptist church.

Kit Crittenden Is Winner Of Chess Tourney

Kit Crittenden, 15-year-old high school student of Raleigh, won first place in a 4-state chess tournament held in Knoxville last week. He was the youngest of eighteen players from Tennessee, North Carolina, Georgia, and South Carolina.

Young Crittenden is the son of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Crittenden of Raleigh and grandson of Mrs. Charles E. Quinlan of Waynesville. He started playing chess about two years ago while visiting here and since then the game has become his chief hobby. He is the North Carolina Chess Champion, having won the state tournament in Winston-Salem last summer and he also plays by correspondence with chess enthusiasts all over the country. Kit works a paper route for the Raleigh Times to cover the expenses of his hobby.

J. B. Mullenix of Chattanooga won second place in the interstate tournament and first place in the Tennessee open tournament which ended Sunday in Knoxville.

English Teacher Defends Comic Book Formula

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—Comic books are getting strong defense from an unexpected source, a high school English teacher.

"They are just pictured stories worth a thousand words," writes Yvonne L. Greatwood, English teacher at McKinley vocational high school, Buffalo, N. Y. In an article in the University of Wisconsin School of Education Journal, Miss Greatwood describes comic book stories as "easy to follow, dynamic, human and fun to read."

Besides, she maintains, the comic book idea is as old as the cave man, having started with the cave man's pictures.

FORTYNINER

MISS 1949 . . . She may look like this . . .

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Samuel Murray Lange, a dress designer, has designed a "perfect girl" for 1949. She is a composite of 12 reigning beauties, all done up as a plaster mannikin.

Ten of the twelve and the attributes for which they were selected:

Head—Society's Pamela Curran; facial bone structure—Model Wendy Russel; lips—Model Elaine Bassett; nose—Model Pat Ryan; eyes—Marlene Dietrich; bust—Lana Turner; waist—Constance Bennett; hips—Model Jo Cagle; legs—Starlet Arlene Dahl and "the detached look"—Lady Sylvia Ashley. He's not telling who the other two might be.

Lange says he spent 6 months creating his beautiful doll.

The most important thing about this wan beauty is her "bone structure," according to Lange. She has "interesting hollows and a visible cord in her neck." She is not vigorous but rather the "hesitant type" with the Detached Look, ladylike and appealing, definite qualities a girl needs in 1949, he says.

She has three different hairdos—simple, matron-like (added hair pieces) for men; short and swirly as a luncheon conversation piece for the bridge club; casual for travel.

Here are the measurements of this ash-blonde super-queen: Height—5' 6 inches without shoes; weight—114 lbs.; head—21 7/8 inches; shoulders—16 inches; bust—34 1/2 inches; waist—23 1/2 inches; hips—34 inches; thigh—19 inches; calf—13 1/2 inches; ankle 7 1/2 inches; waist to knee 28 1/2 inches; center-neck to center back 18 inches.

Mirthful Musical—Mexican Hayride

Lovely Virginia Grey operates on the "divide and conquer" principle, focusing her attention on comedian Lou Costello, while his perennial side-kick, Bud Abbott, looks on in disgust in a scene from Universal-International's mirthful musical, "Mexican Hayride", which opens at the Strand Theatre Sunday.
