Miss Edith Camp Is Married To Frank E. Muth

Miss Edith Camp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Camp of Waynesville, was married to Frank E. Muth, son of F. O. Muth and the late Mrs. Muth of Edenton, at 11 o'clock in the morning on Wednesday, December 29, at Edenton Street Methodist Church in Raleigh.

Dr. Howard Powell, pastor of the church, officiated and a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Virginia Campbell.

The altar was banked with ferns and palms against which were placed branched candelabra with lighted tapers and floor baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

There were no attendants and only members of the two families and a few close friends attended the ceremony.

The bride was attired in an afternoon dress of aqua crepe with brown accessories and she carried a white prayer book topped with cymbidium orchids and showered with satin streamers.

Mrs. Muth is a graduate of Waynesville High School and Meredith College. At the time of her marriage she held a position with the State Welfare Department in Raleigh.

Mr. Muth is a graduate of Edenton High School and served three and a half years with the Navy during World War II. He is now a student at State College, Raleigh.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Muth will reside at 125 Woodburn Road, Raleigh.

Mrs. Frank E. Muth is the former Miss Edith Camp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Camp, of Waynesville. Her marriage took place in Raleigh on December 29.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Natalie A. Kimball of Boston, who has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Kimball, at the Waynesville Country Club, left Friday for Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Boyd returned on Thursday from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Phillips in Cottageville, S. C.

moving to Clyde, and where Smith was going on business.

It was stated that Mrs. Noland returned to Clyde with the salesman around 5 o'clock that afternoon.

"She told me," Mr. West said, "that about 10 or 15 minutes after Smith left her house, she missed her pocketbook which she had laid on the couch upon returning from Crabtree."

Mrs. Noland went to Mr. West's home around midnight and swore out a warrant charging Smith with stealing the purse.

The papers were taken to Asheville and served by the Buncombe county sheriff's department, West said.

Meantime an 18-year-old boy in Dutch Cove had found a pocketbook lying in a culvert beside the highway. Judge West said that inside the bag was found a little change purse which had Mrs. Noland's name embossed on it.

The boy's father called Mrs. Noland by telephone. She and Mr. West took a taxi to the boy's residence where Mrs. West identified the pocketbook as the one which had contained the valuables.

The money was gone. A number of the notes were found but they had been too disfigured by water to be legible. West said. Exact amount of the notes is not known, according to West, who said Mrs. Noland believes it to be between $12,000 and $13,000.

At the hearing Wednesday, Smith did not testify but was represented by Attorney Don Young of Asheville. Mrs. Noland's attorney was George Ward of Asheville.

year. In fact, it looks very much like 1949 will be a normal year.

Rev. M. R. Williamson, pastor of the Presbyterian church said several major world events had taken place which gave encouragement for a better understanding among the people of the world. The church is interested in the moral welfare as well as the economic stability of the people of the world. While giving much thought to material things, it is time we gave more attention to the spiritual things of life," he concluded.

Beta Sigma Phi Plans "March of Dimes" Dance For Armory, January 28

The Beta Sigma Phi sorority will sponsor a "March of Dimes" dance Friday, January 28, in the Waynesville armory for the benefit of the polio drive here. It was announced this morning by Miss Edith Summerrow, president of the sorority.

The sorority will meet Thursday night to decide on the band for the dance and other details.

David Hyatt, director of the Infantile Paralysis drive for the Waynesville area, reported that the March of Dimes drive was kicked-off Sunday afternoon by a singing convention at the courthouse. The first donation received in the drive was made by Jack Hammett, commercial manager of WICC. Mr. Hyatt said that Davis Chapel had contributed $5 toward the drive.

The March of Dimes campaign officially opens in the Waynesville area Friday to raise the $13,000 quota for the year.

last year. This report states that veterans are being given preference by employers.

Reception Contacts

Reception contacts in the two employment offices in the county showed a slight decrease in 1948 with a figure of 22,448, many of which were week to week visits of persons seeking employment. There were 679 visits made by employment service personnel to employers in an attempt to keep tab on job vacancies in the Waynesville area and promote the use of ES facilities in securing qualified persons for specific jobs.

The yearly report shows that there were 1,309 new applications for work filed during 1948, 370 by war veterans, 536 by women and the remainder non-veteran males. The above figure includes 108 handicapped persons of which 64 are veterans.

Counseling interviews during 1948 numbered 383, an increase of 172 over 1947. The counseling interviews, principally deal with young people who have never been through the labor market. The local office assists in helping them to make a vocational choice.
