In Girl Leadership Started

Twenty-five Girl Scout members attended the first class in Girl Scout Leadership, conducted by the First Methodist Church on Tuesday night by Miss Griffin, executive field director of the Girl Scout Council.

Miss Griffin discussed the Girl Scout organization and the duties of the members, using charts to illustrate her talk. She gave helpful suggestions to the workers concerning the problems of the organization.

The meeting of the group will be held next Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock, as was previously announced. The third and last meeting in the course will be held on Friday, January 20.

The course, sponsored by the Waynesville Girl Scout Council, is open to all persons interested in Girl Scouting. It is an opportunity to learn more about the organization and to find the field in which they are most interested.
