No. 5 12 PAGES

t in serving the pubhis action.

ding nearby, seeing commented: "May public servants ineed more men like places."

hearing distance

Have Ear Fire Siren

to talk to any work-Town of Waynesville, ear slightly deaf, you were helping work siren the other day ed to blow.

ened when the Town we the siren from the the City Hall to the building. The siren heavy, but a delicate hanism, operated by a motor.

n was put into place, under the direction Fitzgerald, called on on, town manager, to en switch on "just a nisunderstood orders, on full force, sending ower into action, and ambling all over the city hall. They felt see if their ear drums urst by the blast, but all escaped without has later been checked o be in perfect workith the switch barely de open.

Receives Unusual Complimentary

ial here in Haywood, not use his name, reappreciation of a group or the work done for unity al has read and re-read umerous times, because people in public. entary letters are so hey are really a jewel lo get one," he said.

Generation hterest In Brick

of the water departigging on Main Street orning, unearthed some ricks which many years d Main Street. Later as poured over the then the asphalt as in nembers of the younger showed much interest ick foundation of the orkmen dug down to do on a water main.

tal Market ed at noon Monday)

ent collection 32c-36c er 100 lbs. ef cows.... 20.00-23.00 21,00-25.00

27.50-28.00 27.00-32.40 22.00-23.00 24.25-25.50

Max.

her

(See Book Campaign-Page 5) past year will be given.

Haywood still in the Orthopedic $187,000 to apply to the cost of dustries in the community have Home in Asheville," Frank A. Bar-treating 162 patients.

last year, we had 20 from Haywood tion in the past ten years.

ever," he continued. Waynesville temperaecorded by the staff of the work of the Home last sumare still five patients in iron lungs Manufacturing Company, Royle.

Mr. Barber pointed out some of the work of the Home last sumare still five patients in iron lungs Manufacturing Company, Royle.

Mr. Barber pointed out some of the work of the Home last sumare still five patients in iron lungs Manufacturing Company, Royle. Min. and that some 62 patients are still during the height of the epidemic, ber Company E. L. Withers Comber, former president and chair- "The National Foundation pour-for treatment for a year, two years, 2,506 cases of polio, which means and Full Orchestras throughout the and even ten years from now. That that we were hit and hit hard, state. is just one of the things that polio Now that we have an opportunity brings about. It is a long, hard to give, we should do so with a

Mr. Barber pointed out some of Mr. Barber pointed out that there First State Bank, The Unagusta by contacting the membership commer as it cared for 284 patients, in the Home in Asheville, and that Pilkington Company, Dayton Rubsome 15 iron lungs were sent into pany, and Underwood Supply.

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park WAYNESVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 18, 1949 Associated Press and United Press News

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER being a gentleman, cannot think of it. You, being neither, will understand what I mean.

$3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

War On Rats Will Start Grahl carefully pull-pstage off, and hand-

64th YEAR

The annual war on rats in Waynesville will be declared Tuesday, January 25, for two days in endered which was an effort to rid the town of the hin his line of duty, destructive rodents, Wayne Corpening, county agent, announced

The rat campaign will be conducted in Canton Thursday, January 27, and the drive will be closed in Hazelwood Friday, January 28, Mr. Corpening said.

L. C. Whtehead, representative of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, will be in Haywood county to assist the towns in the spread of the rat poison. A representative from the local and state health departments will also assist in the cam-

The respective towns are paying for the rat poison and it will be spread out by city employes. It is urged that everyone in the three (See War On Rats-Page 5)

Corn Club Holds Fete Wednesday

corn contest will be announced at the 100 Bushel Corn Club banquet Wednesday night, January 19, at 7 o'clock in the Towne House. The banquet, honoring 40 members of the club, is being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce,

Dr. B. A. Krantz of the extension service in Raleigh will be guest speaker for the banquet, meeting. Dr. Krantz is currently doing research work in corn fertilidoing research work in corn fertilization and his talk is expected to From Budget be of great interest to the corn growers of the county.

Wayne Corpening ,who will preside over the meeting, said that the corn contest winners will be asked to explain how they grow their corn. Each contestant in the contest are requested to bring 10 ears of corn to the meeting for the corn show.

ved a letter that is quite Services Are as very complimentary. Held Monday For Albert Kirkpatrick

Albert Kirkpatrick, 47, of Waynesville, died suddenly Saturday at rent from those usually 1 p. m. while visiting at the home of Sam Fulbright of the Nineva section of Haywood county.

He was originally from the Fines Creek section and had worked in Board Of Directors the chemical department of the American Enka Corporation for the past seven years.

Funeral services were held Monday at 3 p. m. in Barberville Baptist Church, with the Rev. Thomas (See Kirkpatrick Rites-Page 5)

Book Campaign Opens In County Through Jan. 31

The book campaign got underway in fine fashion in the 15 Western North Carolina counties yes- Building And Loan terday, according to O. L. Yates. chairman of the drive.

"Reports that I have received from other counties indicates that the campaigns are getting under-way in a big way." Mr. Yates said. shipment to schools in Germany secretary. and other European countries Officers of the association will be by Dr. Benjamin Swalin, will play

Waynesville Girls Undefeated

Betty Sheehan, stalwart forward for the undefeated Waynesville High School girls' team, is pictured above tossing a one-hand shot through the nets as she secred 21-points against Crabtree last week. Margie Cogdill, number 31, is set for the rebound. The Mountaineers play host to their arch-rivals from Canton in a doubleheader here Friday night. A Mountaineer photograph by Ingram's Studio,

Winners of the Haywood county Persons To Conduct Polio Drive Here Are Announced

The March of Dimes drive opened throughout the nation Friday,

January 14 and will continue through January 31. A goal of the Waynesville area and the other of the town to solicit donations

Dick Barber, special letter to companies doing business in Haywood with headquarters elsewhere.

Buck Bowles, show film to all

Shirley Connatser, Hallett Ward

Judge Davis, Noble Garrett.

and Hugh Rogers, from alley at

Strand Theatre to Leatherwood's

Service Station on east side of

(See Polio Committee-Page 5)

tra in Waynesville this spring is

The goal of $750.00 needed to

Two Concerts Here

evening and an admission-free con cert for high school students in the afternoon. Plans are also being made to broadcast the afternoon concert from Station WHCC for the Generous contributions to the Society by business firms and in-now an assured fact and Dr. Frank Love, all collections

Grocery, but excluding hospital.

civic clubs and assist with school amount in the Canton area are as follows:

program.

Park Commission Granted Increase

The current budget recommendation, as presented to the General Assembly last week, carries an increase for the Park in the campaign. Commission, which has headquarters here.

The commission had request-$5,850 for each year for the next Budget Commission recommended $6,446, which is $596 more. For the last two years the commission has had a budget of $5,720. The recommendation is an increase of $726.

Charles E. Ray, Jr., is chairman of the commission, and offices are in the Masonic Temple. Mrs Edith P. Alley is secretary.

Chamber Of Commerce Meet Tuesday Night

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors will be held Tuesday night, January 18, at 7:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce of-

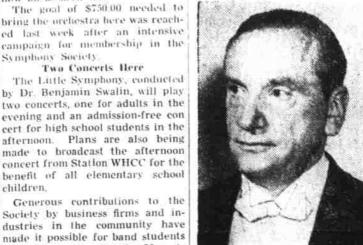

Stanley Henry, secretary, especially urged that all directors attend this meeting, since officers of the group will be elected.

Stockholders Of Will Meet Tuesday

The annual stockholders meeting bring the orchestra here was reachof the Haywood Building and Loan ed last week after an intensive Association will be held Tuesday campaign for membership in the The drive to collect books and night, January 18, at 7:30 o'clock, Symphony Society magazines in Haywood county for it was announced by L. N. Davis.

opened Monday and will continue elected tonight, and a report of the two concerts, one for adults in the

Reaches Goal For Concert The appearance of the North Carolina Little Symphony Orches-

DR. BENJAMIN SWALIN will conduct the Little Symphony orchestra which will appear here in a concert March 17. The appearance of the group was assured after a successful con-

memberships may still be secured school

Hospital Board Is Renamed

to succeed themselves for the next two years by the Board of Commisioners at their regular third Monday meeting here yesterday.

The hospital board is composed of L. H. Bramlett, of Waynesville, Frank M. Byers, of Canton, and Mark Ferguson, of Fines Creek. The board will name their own chairman. Mr. Bramlett is serving Set Saturday as chairman at present. Mr. Ferguson, vice-chairman, and Mr. By-ers secretary. Lee Davis is business In Drive Here Expenses manager of the institution,

The Hospital board meets the first Tuesday of each month.

eral routine matters.

J. P. Dicus Rites Are Held Saturday

Funeral services for James Perry Dicus 64 member of the staff of the Haywood County Tax Collecfor's Office, who died Thursday morning in his home on Boundary Street, were held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the First Baptist Church tees to carry out the March of Pallbearers were Hugh Leather-Dimes drive in the Waynesville wood, Bryan Medford, Bill Shoolarea were announced this morning bred. George A. Brown, Jr., R. V by A. P. Ledbetter, chairman of the Welch and Sebe Bryson.

The Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor, officiated and burial was in Green Kirkpatrick. The Infantile Paralysis commit- Hill Cemetery.

The Rolary Club will solicit Messer, Charles Metcalfe, Wayne funds from all business and indus- Corpening, John Hipps, D. J. Noltries in the Waynesville area, while and, Rufus Siler, Jim Long, Dr. the Beta Sigma Phi sororliy will Roberson. Dr. Lancaster, have charge of women's activities Black, Dr. McCracken, Dr. Medford, Jonathan Woody, Bill Bradley. Capt. Geo. Plott. Bill Lampkin, Wallace Blackwell, R. L. Prevost, Sr., Clayton Walker, J. R. Morgan, Judge Alley, Carl Boutwell, Bill Byers, R. L. Wilson, M. two years, and the Advisory $13,000 has been allotted Haywood Well, Bill Byers, R. L. Wilson, M. O. Galloway, James Green, Zeb (See J. P. Dicus-Page 5)

Brings ImmediateResults representatives.

The Justice Furniture company sold a piano and several pieces of water damaged furniture shortly after a classified advertisement appeared in The Mountaineer. Homer Justice, owner, from hospital east, including Owen said this morning. Mr. Justice reported that at least 50 persons called concerning the piano and all the other articles listed were sold the day the advertisement appeared in

Town To Sell Over Million Feet of Timber From Unused 600-Acre Tract of Watershed Aldermen Advertising

Dime Board

The Rotary Club and the Business and Professional Women's The commissioners were in con- Club will have charge of a dime ference with James Knight, of the board to be placed on Main Street highway department, regarding during the closing week of the work on several roads in the coun- March of Dimes, campaign, here ty. Other matters claiming the at-starting Saturday, January 22, tention of the board were of gen- A. P. Ledbetter, drive chairman for this area, announced today,

> The dime board for the polio drive will open Saturday morning at 8 o'clock and will close the following Saturday night at 8 o'clock The schedule for the dime board and workers are as follows: Saturday, January 22: 8-10 Dan Watkins, Ott Ledbetter and Elizabeth McCracken; 10-12-Dick Barber, Dave Hyatt and Rozelle Nesbitt; 12-2-Jim Kilpatrick, Dr. F. Love and Mrs. Richeson; 2-4-Ben Stoan, Jack Way, and Mrs. Staviey: 4-6-L. N. Davis, Dr. Tom Stringfield and Kate Jones; 6-8-Hugh Rogers, Roy Francis and Kathryn

Monday, January 24: 8-10 Guy Massie and Elise DeLozler: 10-12-Kim Barber and Ethel Fisher; 12-2 (See Dime Board-Page 5)

Honorary palibearers were: Jack Poultry Meeting Set Thursday To Discuss Broilers

Definite arrangements are being formulated for the poultry meeting Thursday afternoon, January 20, at 2 o'clock in the county court house. Wayne Corpening, county agent, reported this morning

Mr. Corpening said that poultry

C. F. Parrish, extension poultry ity To Justice Furniture Co. specialist, will address the group ket in this area.

During this poultry meeting, definate arrangements will be made for a tour of broiler producing areas in North Carolina and Georgia to be held the following week It was announced that feed deal-(See Poultry Meeting-Page 5)

Jonathan Woody Re-Elected Head Of Bank Here

of the board of directors.

T. Noland, eashier; Joe S. Davis, ant eashiers assistant eashier, and Joe Jack Alkins, assistant eashier,

Glenn C. Palmer, J. H. Woody, of the body, of the past year's work as reveal- business December 31 ed by officers at the meeting. Mrs. T. L. Gwyn as secretary.

Water, Power And Timber Income To Pay Operating

the profits from water, the power system, and the sale of timber from the watershed will pay all operating expenses for the Town of Waynesville," a town official said vesterday.

"In fact, the three sources of revenue would now enable the Town to operate without levying any taxes if it were not for the bonded indebtedness," he

"Under the present plan of operation, the town will not have any taxes on real estate when the bonded indebtedness is paid off. The sale of timber from the watershed will be continuous, and of course, all profit, since it costs nothing to grow the timber," the official continued,

Polio Dance Plans Made For Jan. 28

Plans have been completed for a January 28, " at the Waynesville Armory for the benefit of the March of Dimes campaign new underway here. The dance is being sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

specialists from State College have chairman, announced that Teddy the trees to be cut from an area been in Haywood county during the Martin and his orchestra would representing about 7 per cent of past week, discussing broiler pro- play for the polio dance and that the watershed, which has over The polio committees and areas Classified Advertisement duction with business and farm tickets are now on sale by mem-

The Rousevell Ball will feature on the future of broilers for mar- a grand march during intermission which will be composed of around 35 girls and their escorts from Haywood county, sponsored business firms in this area.

Recent additions to the grand (See Polio Dance-Page 5)

Edwin Fincher Re-Elected Head Of Haywood Bank Edwin Fincher, Clyde business-

much has been unanimously reelected president of the Haywood Jonathan H. Woody was re-cleel- County Bank for the ensuing year. ed president of the First National Other newly elected off icers, also mended $320,436 for the next two Bank here at the annual meeting re-elected, are: J. E. Reister, executice vice president, and P. Frank Other officers re-elected were: Campbell, eashier. Lois Haynes J. H. Way, Jr., vice president; J. Mooney and Helen West are assist. Mr. and Mrs. John Queen

The bank experienced one of the Imagest years in its history in 1948, The following directors were re- according to a report to stockholdelected: J. R. Boyd, chairman; ers by Fincher at a recent meeting

Directors of the bank include cember 13th, Noble Garrett served as chairman Fincher, Reister, Edwin Haynes, at the meeting of stockholders and W. Norman Freel, M. C. Sprinkle

Timber As Selected By Government Experts The board of aldermen of Waynesville have issued invitations for bids on selectively marked trees on the Old Bald drainage area of the watershed. The area containing 600 acres has an esti-

For Bids On Valuable

A fiery tempered Southern businessman wrote the following letter: "Sir, my stenog-rapher, being a lady, cannot type what I think of you. I.

ber, the report shows. Bids will be opened February 11th. The Old Bald area is not now being used as a source of public water supply, and will not be used for several years after timber cutting operation there have been commated 1,614,000 board feet of timpleted, town officials explained The board voted unanimously several months ago to adopt a forest management plan as prepared by the Forestry Division of the North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development, and the TVA Division of Forestry Relations. The plan has resulted from a thorough and careful study of timber and water resources on the municipal watershed. The plan has been reviewed and approved by the State Board of Health, The plan, in general, provides for the orderly removal of mature. over-mature and defective trees from portions of the watershed not currently used for water supply. It also provides for the planting of trees on open areas, and adequate protection from forest fires. This first timber sale represents beginning for the long-range pro-Roosevelt Ball to be held Friday, gram designed to improve and utilize both water and timber resources on the watershed, and to provide additional revenue to the Town.

In preparation for the sale, the State and TVA foresters assisted Miss Bernice Harrell, publicity the town in selecting and marking only about half of the trees on the area. All young, sound, and vigorously growing trees were reserved (See Town To Sell—Page 5)

County Librarian Is In Raleigh

Miss Margaret Johnston, county librarian, is in Raleigh to attend a hearing before the joint appropriations committee in the General Assembly, seeking funds for library

Miss Johnston is secretary of the State Library Association, and will seek to get the General Assembly to appropriate $500,000 as requested for library work in the state. The Budget Commission has recom-

In Washington For The Inauguration Thursday

Mr. and Mrs John Queen are in Washington to attend the inaugura-J. H. Way, Jr., L. N. Davis, Aaron Capital stock, surplus, undivided tion of President Truman on Thurs-Prevost, James E. Massie and J. profits and reserve now tops $250 - day. Mr. Queen was one of the 000, with total resources standing fourteen presidential electors of Satusfactory reports were made above $3,100,000 at the close of this state, and cast his vote for the president down in Raleigh on De-

Since he was a presidential elector, Mr. and Mrs. Queen have been invited to a number of social functions in connection with the inauguration

Enroute to Washington they visits ed the General Assembly in Raleigh.

> Highway Record For 1949 (To Date) In Haywood Killed . . . . 0 Injured .... 1

(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol).

Haywood Has Six Patients In Asheville Polio Home

Jan. 18 - Cloudy and confined in the Home. Speaking in behalf of the March | Asheville alone. of Dimes, he told how the National Dave Hyatt was in charge of the Foundation had sent to Buncombe program.

"There are six patients from county last summer the total of job getting back to normal-if joyful heart that not more cases made it possible for band students to secure memberships for 50 cents man of the board, told Rotarians ed into North Carolina last year, instead of the usual price of $1.20. $1,400,000, which is more than These memberships, as well as the "During the terrible epidemic North Carolina sent the Founda- adult memberships, will entitle the "In 1948 North Carolina had sponsored concerts of both Little

> Haywood Builders Supply, The The date set for the appearance

Contributions

by The First National Bank, The

These contributions were made

Appears Here

Mrs. Jonathan Woody and Miss cert drive recently completed.

of the orchestra is March 17 and sisting with the drive in the high youth and adults." Mr. Louther- out of ben, music in 10 per cent

Leatherwood Cites School Needs In Lions Club Talk

The educational needs in North The second recommendation Carolina as reported in a survey made was that special educational ommendations made by an 18-mem- "It is estimated we lose five or wood emphasized.

conducted by the State Education services should be provided for Commission were discussed in a handcapped children and youth, radio address by Lawrence Leath- Unless a school system gives erwood, principal of Hazelwood handicapped children opportunities Elementary School, over WHCC for development equal to those prolast week at a meeting of the Lions vided for other children, it is not meeting its obligation," Mr. Leath-Mr. Leatherwood cited the rec- erwood said ber committee, after studying the six out of qvery hundred of our school needs of the state educa- elementary children each year, and tional system. The initial point re-only one half to two-thirds of viewed in the radio speech was the those who enter the first grade finminimum education advantages ish the eighth," the Hazelwood which the state should guarantee school principal asserted. Mr to every child. "We should guaran- eLatherwood pointed out that agri-Betsy Lane Quinlan are serving as tee a well-rounded, balanced pro-culture is available in only six out co-chairmen of the membership gram of minimum essentials de- of ten of our schools, typewriting committee and Charles Isley is as- termined by the needs of children, in simour of ten, shorthand in two

See Leatherwood-Page 5