Miss Hetrick Is Bride Of Frank Kennedy

Miss Anne Hetrick of Raleigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hetrick of Raleigh and Philadelphia, and Frank Ramsey Kennedy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Kennedy of Waynesville, were married in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Raleigh, Saturday evening, December 18. The Rev. Clarence Norman officiated.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. E. E. Randolph, organist, Miss Catherine Hughes, violinist, and Miss Ann Rethgeb, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a slipper satin wedding gown, designed with a fitted bodice and trimmed with seed pearls. The long sleeves ended in calla lily points over the hands and the bouffant skirt ended in a circular train. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white satin prayer book, which belonged to her maternal great-grandmother, and was topped with a white orchid showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. Warren Webb of Chapel Hill, cousin of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a red taffeta gown and carried a matching mull topped with a bouquet of white carnations, snapdragons, and sweet peas.

Miss Josephine Graham of Wallhalla, S. C., was maid of honor, and wore a taffeta gown fashioned like that of the matron of honor. Both attendants wore ruffled bandeaus in their hair.

The bridegroom was attended by his cousin, Warren Webb of Chapel Hill, as best man. Ushers were James Lasley of Lancaster, S. C., Dick Biemann, Vernon King, and Gibbs Gibbs of Raleigh.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with dubonnet accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black Romaine crepe dress trimmed with silver and blue sequins and an orchid corsage.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at the Parish House.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside at 1550 1/2 Iredell Drive, Raleigh.

Mrs. Kennedy was graduated from Winthrop College in 1943 where she was selected as one of the eight outstanding seniors and listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Since graduation she has taught at Wake Forest High School.

Mr. Kennedy was graduated from North Carolina State College in 1940. He served five years in the Engineering Corps of the U. S. Army and received his discharge with the rank of major. He is now employed by the Service Department of N. C. State College.

THESE WOMEN — Housewife's Paradise — Or Drudge's Hideaway?

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

The question is: Is the woman who keeps house for her family engaged in a career which is "the most important a woman can choose," or is she a household drudge, enjoying the bonds of matrimony?

There are, to put it mildly, various points of view on the subject. I have before me as I write these two extremes. And after reading them both carefully, I'm somewhat confused. I don't think there is any definitive solution from this source, but I would like to point out that you can assert two widely separated opinions from the same given set of facts.

First, let's peruse the handsomely illustrated advertisement of a big concern selling flour products to American homemakers. It's a salute and courtesy bow to the lady who says, "Oh, I'm just a housewife."

This woman, it says here, combines the skills of 15 to 20 trades and professions; she's purchasing agent, nurse, spiritual advisor, seamstress, interior decorator, teacher. She also knows how to be a glamor girl and chef. Her job is to keep the family well fed and healthy. Her ambition is to build good citizens and to make her family happy, comfortable and proud of the way they live.

And her pay, comments the enthusiastic advertisement, is the thing she values most; the loving appreciation of her family.

Now that sounds to me as though being a housewife really and truly is the most wonderful, uplifting and enjoyable occupation a woman could engage in.

But wait a minute. Here comes Edith M. Stern, a housewife herself, writing a piece called "Women Are Household Slaves," in the American Mercury. She starts out with an advertisement, labeled "Help Wanted."

"DOMESTIC; FEMALE. All cooking, cleaning, laundering, sewing, meal planning, shopping, weekday chauffeuring, social secretarial service, and complete care of three children. Salary at employer's option. Time off if possible."
