Operation Safety Gets Underway To Halt Accidents

A new low in traffic accidents t the goal of safety leaders and city officials who are urging public cooperation in a continuing campaign called 'Operation Safety'.

This January marks the beginning of the second year of a continuing traffic safety education program being carried on simultaneously in cities and states throughout the country. In North Carolina, 'Operation Safety' is under the direction of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

'Operation Safety' is a national program for which information and materials are supplied by the National Safety Council. It is a pro- ment of the attempted marriage begram in which civic groups, schools, tween the Plaintiff and the Defendfie safety.
