Prophetic Fashion

Purple woolen daytime dress.

HERE'S A GOOD daytime frock designed for early spring wear under a coat but that will be very much of the new season when the weather moderates, so that it can fare forth on its own. The fabric is a soft tweedy woolen in a muted purple heather tone, with a matching leather belt. The utterly simple bodice is topped with a small turn-down collar, and the sleeves are winged at the underarm. The slant-wise tunic takes a deep oblique line over the pencil slim silhouette of the skirt.

Miss Linda Sloan spent last week end in Sylva as the guest of Miss Edith Moore.

Roy Campbell and John Harrod returned Friday from Brunswick, Ga., where they spent several days deep-sea fishing.

Mrs. Lane Has Program For Woman's Club

The January meeting of the Waynesville Woman's Club was held Thursday afternoon in the Assembly Room of the First Presbyterian Church with Mrs. Frank Kinsey presiding.

Mrs. Raymond Lane, chairman of International Relations, was in charge of the program. She explained the organization of the United Nations — its problems and growth — and discussed its various departments and their functions. In conclusion she said, "For peace and world progress, united peace must be based on laws — not force."

Mrs. Lane also stressed the importance of the members of the club keeping themselves informed on world events.

Mrs. M. G. Stamey talked on the state educational conditions, urging "better teachers for our schools and better schools for our children."

Miss Ray Ballard, chairman of music, presented Mrs. James L. Kilpatrick, a special guest, in two musical numbers. Mrs. Kilpatrick played a piano solo, "Clare de Lune," by Debussy, and sang "There's a Little Brown Bird Singing."

During the business session the members voted to send a contribution to place memorial books in the Sylva Library in honor of the late Mrs. E. L. McKee.

Plans were also made for the annual silver tea which the club will sponsor at the Haywood County Library on Saturday, February 5, and the following committees were appointed to serve for the event: Refreshments, Mrs. James R. Boyd, Mrs. Noble Garrett, and Mrs. E. A. Williamson; decorations, Mrs. Virgil Smith and Mrs. William Cobb; and table appointments, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. J. W. Killian. Assisting on the afternoon of the tea will be Mrs. Bonner Ray, Mrs. Raymond Lane, Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sr., and Mrs. J. W. Killian.

Dr. Mary Michal reported on the Christmas projects of the club, stating that 600 bags of food were distributed, and toys and clothes were given to needy families.

Mrs. W. M. Cobb was chosen as sponsor for the club at the Roosevelt Ball.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. E. A. Williamson, Mrs. Linwood Grahl, and Dr. Michal.

Mrs. Kilpatrick To Entertain At Home Today

Mrs. James L. Kilpatrick will entertain with a coffee hour at her home on the Country Club Road this afternoon during the hours from twelve to two o'clock.

Early spring flowers will be used in the living room and the dining table will be centered with a bowl of white snapdragon and red roses.

Guests invited for the first hour are Mrs. Johnny Johnson, Mrs. David Hyatt, Mrs. Howard Hyatt, Mrs. Charles Keener, Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Bill Prevost, Mrs. Leon Killian, Jr., Mrs. L. K. Barber, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Jr., Mrs. G. M. Kimball, Mrs. William Ray, Mrs. Herbert Buchanan, Mrs. Robert Korte, Mrs. J. W. Reed, Jr., and Mrs. Harold Massie.

Guests during the second hour will include Miss Margaret Johnston, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. Francis Massie, Mrs. N. F. Lancaster, Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan, Mrs. Jack Taylor, Mrs. Bonner Ray, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, Mrs. Nora Swift Atkins, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Miss Dorothy Richeson, and Mrs. Henry Tuttle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cobb and children, Sara and Bill, left Thursday for Roanoke, Ala., where they will visit Mr. Cobb's parents for a week.

Mrs. John Woltz and infant son, John Elliott Woltz, Jr., have returned to their home in Mt. Airy after a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn.

VFW Auxiliary Is Making Drive For Magazines

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary of Waynesville is taking advantage of an unusual offer being extended by Farm Journal and Pathfinder Publishing Company, which gives the auxiliary a generous portion of all new and renewal subscriptions on these and 18 other well known magazines.

The drive for subscriptions is in charge of Mrs. Sebe Bryson, president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. J. C. Rose and Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Sr., members of the Ways and Means Committee. Other members are assisting in the work by making calls with Mrs. Ruth Williams, Farm Journal representative.

To date $125.00 has been derived from subscriptions and the organization is asking the public to cooperate by holding orders until a member of the committee can call for them.

Proceeds will be applied on the fund to erect a Veteran's Monument at Green Hill Cemetery.

Maggie Home Club Has Meeting Thursday

The Maggie Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jim Platt with the president, Mrs. Herbert Platt presiding.

The demonstration on "Know Your Organization," was given by Miss Mary Margaret Smith, county home demonstration agent.

Leader reports were given as follows: foods, Mrs. Jim Platt; gardens, Mrs. James Grant; poultry, Mrs. Jack Campbell; home beautification, Mrs. Fred Henry; food preservation, Mrs. Hobart White; clothing and crafts, Mrs. Herbert Platt; and health, Mrs. Dave Platt.

Mrs. C. L. White and Mrs. Hobart White reported on two books: "When We Are Green We Grow," by McKimmon and "Maine Charn String," by Graham.

During the social hour a salad course was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Spies of Oak Ridge, Tenn., have recently moved to Waynesville to make their home. They are residing on Short Street.

DAR Chapter To Celebrate 50th Anniversary

The fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be celebrated at a luncheon meeting of the chapter to be held at The Towne House on Thursday Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, general chairman, for the event, will preside.

The first great popularity of Robert Hood was in the ballads of the 15th and 16th centuries.

SANTA ARRIVES AHEAD OF DEATH

DOCTORS SAY SHE HAS but a few weeks to live, but three-year-old Elizabeth Ann Strehl, of St. Louis, doesn't know this. For Elizabeth, it's Yuletide and, for the moment, there is a Santa Claus, a Christmas tree and presents. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Strehl, shown with the little cancer victim, moved up the Christmas eve celebration a bit to make sure she would have a last party. (International Soundphoto)
