Back To Horseback, Sheriff Decrees

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col. (UPI)—There's such a thing as too much modernity in law enforcement work, contends Norman W. Short, El Paso County's new sheriff.

Short, a horse fancier and veteran of six years of county peace officer work, says he will resurrect a horse-mounted patrol so his officers, now equipped with the latest in frequency-modulated patrol car radios, can leave the highways and take to the rugged, brush-covered Pike's Peak area after lawbreakers if need be.

High School Students Take Part In Three Radio Events

The members of the Tally-Ho Club along with other high school students have taken part in three radio programs this week of public interest.

Donald Matney and Miss Anna Jackson, faculty advisor, have begun a Saturday afternoon radio program over Station WHCC at eleven o'clock.

News and Views of the Teen Age.

Donald Matney gives news of Teen Ageds all over North Carolina. Miss Jackson interviews a teen aged of the week, Miss Mary Ann Massie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massie, was interviewed this week.

On Tuesday morning of this week a special broadcast was presented from the high school stage. Five club members discussed the subject, "How Can The Student Body Improve Our School?" Those taking part were Jimmy McJunkin, Grace Benton, Joan Ratcliff, Joyce Carter, Ann Bischoff, and Malcolm Williamson with Donald Matney as moderator. Charles Isley and members of the high school band provided the musical background.

The general opinion of the group was that the school should have an active Student Council; the students should cooperate more with each other and with the teachers; the student body should be more considerate of the rights of others and of school property; and everyone should become more safety-conscious because of the crowded conditions.

This broadcast was a special broadcast of the usual program, Voices of Tomorrow, held each Wednesday night at eight o'clock over Station WHCC.

The regular broadcast of the Voices of Tomorrow on Wednesday night was given to a discussion of the best movie of the year, Duane Oliver, Mary Jane Rogers, and Bruce Lantz joined the above group on this discussion.

Among the movies discussed were: Gentlemen's Agreement, Tap

Roots, Sorry Wrong Number, The Yearling, Good Sam, The State of the Union, and Johnny Belinda. They also tried their hand at predicting the Academy Award winners. Almost unanimously they predicted that Jane Wyman will win an Oscar for her splendid performance as the deaf and dumb girl in the movie, Johnny Belinda.

NO WHISKY FOR LONDON
LONDON (UPI)—Because of export quotas, whisky was unobtainable in London this Christmas. Londoners had to content themselves with gin, rum and wines. A bottle of port that sold for $1 before the war was $4 this Christmas.
