She has been a 4-H member for the past nine years, completing about 50 projects in canning, clothing, foods, room improvement, gardening, poultry, baby beef, sheep and labor service.

In her spare time she has built a fence around the home, put in flowers and shrubbery, and helped her father build a fish pond.

Constant Care For Winter Hair Glamor

By BETTY CLARKE, AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor. Wintertime colds and other ailments which lower resistance generally, take their toll of hair and skin. This is the time of the year when hair resembles matting need for up-to-the-minute styling. It is quite an effort to get that nice silky smoothness so easily achieved during other seasons.

The only solution seems to be regular beauty parlor visits, frequent scalp and oil treatments. During the cold damp winter months it is a bit of a risk to shampoo hair at home unless you have adequate drying facilities. Physicians say that many sore throats and colds are due to washing the hair at home and not thoroughly drying it.

If you find it necessary to clean your hair between beauty shop visits, use one of the dry shampoos or a liquid hair cleanser or witch hazel. It is a bit tedious to cleanse your hair this way but if it keeps you from getting a sore throat, it should be worth it. The dry shampoos can be used with a fluffy mit, the others are applied with cotton and rubbed from the scalp down to the ends of the hair.

One thing you can do all winter to promote hair gloss is to brush your locks vigorously and often. Use a good hair brush and remember to clean it frequently.

Has Plenty Of Luck, All Plenty Bad

CHICAGO (UP)— If you don't believe in bad luck, ask the man who has it, Douglas C. Yale.

Using fingernail clippers to pick a lock box in a post office, Yale dropped the clippers. The noise attracted a guard and led to his arrest. The box number was 1313.

In 1939, Yale offered a business man's card to police who arrested him for attempted auto theft. The man named on the card was the desk sergeant's brother-in-law.

Once he had picked a lock box in a post office successfully, when a letter dropped to the floor. It was addressed to the man who stopped to pick it up for him.

Industrial Plants Are Now Eligible For Safety Award

Industrial plants which made conspicuous advances in on-the-job safety during 1948 are eligible for the certificate of safety achievement which is presented annually to qualifying establishments by the North Carolina Department of Labor.

Announcement of the opening of applications for the safety award covering last year was made here today by George W. King, safety inspector representing the labor department in the Waynesville district.

"The Department of Labor is now receiving safety award applications from a number of industrial concerns on the basis of their plant safety records for 1948," King said. "Plant officials who believe their establishment has qualified for the award may obtain the necessary application blanks from the district office at Asheville."

Mr. King explained that industrial plants may qualify for the safety award in any one of three ways: (1) By having had a perfect record of no lost-time accidents during 1948; (2) by having reduced their accident frequency rates 40 per cent or more below their rates for the previous year; and (3) by having maintained during 1948 an accident rate at least 75 per cent below the State average for their industry.
