Tweed Coat

By VERA WINSTON

GOOD FOR TRAVEL wear, and for general wear later on, is this attractive and useful coat of imported Irish tweed in stripes of brown and tan with touches of gray which is a good color com-bination. The sleeves and shoulder yoke are cut in one. A tuck in the easy sleeve is used in lieu of cuffs and breaks the line. The slit pockets are cleverly worked with the stripes in front. There is one inverted box pleat in back.
