PLUM COLORED taffeta adds up to a dance dress that is different. The strapless bodice is slit, the buttons on either side being strictly for decoration. The handkerchief tunic skirt billows gracefully over the matching pleated sheer underskirt and the dress, especially the skirt is reminiscent of the 1920's.

January Bride

MRS. WILLIAM N. STROUP, JR., above, is the former Miss Margaret Ellen Blankenship, daughter of Mrs. Z. D. Blankenship, of Waynesville. Her marriage took place on Thursday, January 27.

Wedding Of Miss Blankenship Is Announced

Mrs. Z. D. Blankenship has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Margaret Ellen Blankenship, to William N. Stroup, Jr., of Canton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Stroup, also of Canton.

The wedding took place on Thursday, January 27, at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Skutt in Rabun Gap, Ga., with the Rev. Mr. Skutt pronouncing the vows.

The bride was attired in a suit of brown, sabbardine with which she wore green accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Jack Paxton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a suit of navy blue wool with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Mr. Paxton attended the groom as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stroup left for a short wedding trip and are now residing on Maple Street in Waynesville.

The bride, a graduate of the Bryson City High School, is now employed at Smit's Drug Store.

The groom attended the Canton schools and served two years with the Seabees during World War II.
