Other organizations within the township may become members of the association upon approval by two-thirds vote of the commission and upon ratifying the constitution.

mission it is pointed out in the constitution, will be to determine the type of recreation to be sponsored.

A survey made in the Clyde high school showed a greater demand by students for tennis courts than for any single recreational facility.

Bruce Brown, one of the leaders in the organizational movement, has indicated that construction of courts will be among the first projects undertaken.

Mr. Brown is a member of Clyde V. F. W. post, which has pledged its membership to do the manual labor required for various projects.

The State's share of the proposed parkway appropriation would provide for completion of the following highway projects:

Sections between Mt. Mitchell and Oteen, and between Soco Gap and Black Camp Gap, which will be an entrance into the Park, and the Pisgah Forest section between Wagon Road Gap and Beech Gap.

Other action taken by the commission included approval of the proposal to hang in the Park Service Building at Gatlinburg, Tenn., a portrait of Dr. Chase P. Ambler, recognizing his early efforts in behalf of the park, and the marking of a portion of the old Cataloochee Trail within the park to designate its use by Bishop Asbury around 1800.

The National Park Service was represented by Sam P. Weems of Roanoke, Va., superintendent of the Blue Ridge Parkway, and the State Highway and Public Works Commission by R. Getty Browning Sr., locating engineer.

All members of the commission attended the meeting. In addition to Chairman Ray, they are Kelly Bennett of Bryson City, vice chairman; Percy B. Ferebee of Andrews, Francis J. Heazel of Asheville, Raymond U. Sutton of Sylva, W. R. Winkler of Boone, E. C. Guy of Newland and William Medford of Waynesville, attorney.

Free Names Workers In Canton Area

Mr. Freel said that workers for all sections in the Canton area were ready to start work Tuesday morning. The campaign has been mapped so as to cover every phase of activity in the entire area, he said. Among those who have accepted appointment to make solicitations include: Harry Cabe, Frank W. Winkle, J. L. Newman, Roy Patton, Miss Nora Swafford, Tom Morgan, Bill Stone, Hugh Nichols, Boone Medford, Underwood Smithers, Bill Cooper, Lon Goodson, J. C. Roberts, and Charles Worley.

Under his leadership, the county agent's office has grown in the scope of work undertaken, and he now has three assistants. Mr. Corpening carries through on all his undertakings, and is a successful organizer in putting on any type program, and of any size. He shuns public praise, and literally raised all manner of "sand" when he was asked for a new photograph. In fact he just refused, and it was only by persuasion, and getting him to a studio now showing results. Besides the several township tours, he organized and staged an annual Hog Rifle Shooting Match at Cataloochee Ranch last summer. The pictures appearing in the national sportsman's magazine were made by John Hemmer, photographer for the State Advertising and News Service, which is headed by Bill Sharpe.

Mr. Corpening, a native of Henderson county, was born on a farm. He graduated from State College on June 10, 1936, and five days later was at work as assistant county agent of Haywood. W. D. Smith was county agent at the time. After working under Mr. Smith, and later under Mr. Smithwick, who was named county agent, then Jack Lynn, Mr. Corpening became county agent, a position he has held continuously except for what time he was in service. He went to the army in February, 1942, and returned on January 1, 1946, after having acquired the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

Huskins Burley Commission Bill Is Out

The House agricultural committee voted 54-98 to kill the Huskins bill which would set warehouse commission on burley at 2 1/2 per cent instead of 4. An amendment to make the commission 3 per cent also was voted down.

Rep. Grover C. Davis was among those supporting the measure for the lower commission rates. The coyote is one of the two American species of wolf.

Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, chairman of patriot education for the D. A. R. chapter, presided during the program and awards were made by Mrs. J. W. Killian, regent.

Noble Garrett, winner of the first contest, held in 1908, made a brief talk and the invocation was given by M. H. Bowles, superintendent of schools.

Special musical numbers were presented by the high school male quartet composed of Fred Calhoun, Donald Matney, Earl Hoglan and Jack Kelly.

Judges for the event were Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan, J. L. Elwood and H. D. Lutz.

The declamation contest has been an outstanding event in the school's program since it was inaugurated and many boys have competed for the awards. A list of previous winners in order follows: Noble Garrett, George Ward, Raymond Allen, Buell Hyatt, Robert Wyche, James Palmer, William Palmer, Roy Francis, Wayne Grahl, Bryon Walpole, Julius Welch, Lawrence Davis, state, is based on the "index of ability to pay" which rates Haywood at 827, just slightly under one per cent for the 100 counties in the state. The plan would reduce the teaching load to an average of 30, and the salary range is of $2,200 to $3,100 for the holders of standard "A" certificates. "A lot of interest is being shown in the education bill," Mr. Messer said, "and I am fairly optimistic over its passage, after talking to many of the members of the General Assembly in Raleigh this week."
