WCTC Nine Faces Tough 21 Game Card

Tangle With Maryville April 2 In Opening Tilt

The Western Carolina baseball squad opened their 1949 practice sessions yesterday as the full squad turned out for opening practice Although the pitchers have been working out under Coach Lawson Brown for a week, the rest of the squad did not hit the field until vesterday

Brown, who pitched for the Catlast year, and turned in a 14-8 record with Marion in the Western North Carolina Class D league last year, has been named bareball coach for this year by Head Coach Tom Young

Brown has plenty of material on hand to work with as cleven pitchers and three catchers turned out last week to get the jump on the others.

Coach Brown is expected to round the team into shape rapidly for the tough 21-game schedule that faces the Cats this searon,

Two Waynesville performers are expected to make a bid for berthon the team L. C. Crocker a letterman pitcher from last season is expected to land a starting berth Stanley Henry, who has resumed his studies at the school, will be one of the top infield candidateout. Henry has performed one year with the Cats and also with Hazelwood, of the Western North Carolina Industrial League, is one of the smoothest keystone performers in this section, and should prove capable addition to Coach Brown's team.

The 21 game schedule as released by Coach Brown is as follow-April 2 Maryville, Tenn, there April 12-Marion, there.
