

Pigeon Valley Civic Club Has 2 Features On Monthly Program

"Good Citizenship" was the theme of the regular monthly program of the Pigeon Valley Civic Club, which met Thursday night. The Bethel Home Demonstration club, and Rev. M. R. Williams of Waynesville, were featured on the program, which was attended by a large crowd.

Hugh K. Terrell, president, presided, and R. E. Sentelle, program chairman, was in charge of the program, first presenting Miss Mary Margaret Smith, home demonstration agent.

Miss Smith explained the work of Home Demonstration clubs, and the work the 16 Haywood clubs are doing. Following a question and answer period, the Bethel club, under the direction of Mrs. Welch Singleton, gave a short program. Stressing the theme, "Good Citizenship" the several members of the club discussed: "What constitutes

Directs Chorus

Earl F. Berg is director of the Davidson College Male Chorus which will appear in concert at the Waynesville High School auditorium on Monday, March 21, at 8 p. m.

Davidson Male Chorus To Give Concert Here

The Davidson College Male Chorus, composed of 50 voices and directed by Earl F. Berg, will present a concert in the High School Auditorium on Monday, March 21, at 8 p. m. The concert will be sponsored by the high school band and chorus.

The program of varied music will be in five parts, the first three of which will be devoted to sacred music and the last two to light numbers. The first group includes a stirring Advent anthem composed for male voices by the Danish composer, Dietrich Buxtehude, "Zion Hears The Watchman Singing," a chorale, "God's Loving Kindness," by Johann Sebastian Bach; and a spiritual motet, "Since Christ Our Lord Was Crucified," by Heinrich Schuetz.

Following an intermission the chorus will sing a group of folk songs and several temporary compositions set to texts from American poets.

Mr. Berg, director of the chorus, is one of the South's outstanding young choral conductors. He joined the faculty of Davidson College in 1941 and in addition to his duties there serves as director of music in the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte.

Members of the chorus will be entertained in the homes of members of the high school band and chorus during their stay here. A small admission will be charged for the concert to help defray expenses of the concert.

Talented Pianist In Concert Here On Friday Night

A large audience is expected to hear William Schatzkammer, a talented pianist, in a concert, for the second of a series as sponsored by the Community Concert. The concert will be given at the high school, Friday, March 18, at eight o'clock. The doors will open at 7:15, it was announced.

Tickets will be available at the door for out-of-town guests, when accompanied by holders of membership tickets, the Waynesville committee in charge of the concert announced.

Mr. Schatzkammer is making his first national concert tour. The handsome young New Yorker has been termed by music critics as "The most talented of the younger pianists."

Mrs. Culbreth To Address Women 17th

Mrs. George Culbreth, wife of the Rev. George Culbreth, pastor of the Rockwood Charge, will be the speaker at a meeting of Home Demonstration club women held at the Rockwood Methodist church Thursday afternoon, March 17, beginning at 1:30. "Know Your Government" will be the topic discussed. All women of the community are invited.

In 10 post-season bowl games Alabama football teams have averaged 21.3 points per contest.

NOAH NUMSKULL
-AND WHAT DO YOU STOOLE PIGEONS WANT?

DEAR NOAH- ARE SOME COCK-TAIL LOUNGES FOWL ROOSTS?
LEWIS CECIL MIDLOTHIAN-MD #

DEAR NOAH- WOULD AN ECCENTRIC PERSON BE SERVED BY A SILENT BUTLER AND A DUMB WAITER?
BOE FISCHER - MINN
SEND YOUR NOTIONS TO NOAH

Manufactured by the Phillips Products, Inc.

Speakers From 15 W.N.C. Counties Coming Thursday

The district Soil Conservation speaking contest will be held at the court house here on Thursday, March 17, at 2:00 p. m. Representatives from the following counties will compete: Buncombe, Haywood, Henderson, Madison, McDowell, Mitchell, Polk, Transylvania, Yancey, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Jackson, Macon, and Swain.

This contest is being sponsored by the North Carolina Bankers Association. A $50 savings bond will be awarded to the first place winner, and a $25 bond to the second place winner.

"It is hoped that many people will be able to come in and listen to these contestants give their speeches on Soil Conservation. The maximum length of the speech is twelve minutes," Wayne Corpening, county agent, said.

MORE ABOUT City Park

(Continued from Page 1)
dent, Harry "Blue" Robinson said. "The members are getting a lot of fun doing this work, in addition to putting the money of the organization into the project. We have the workers, we just need more money to buy equipment, and things like asphalt to do a complete job," he continued.

MORE ABOUT Speaking

(Continued from Page 1)
winners, and the county winner will represent Haywood County in the District Contest to be held at the court house in Waynesville on Thursday afternoon, March 17, at 2:00 o'clock.

LONG LIFE AND ACTIVE ONE

WAREHAM, Mass. (UPI)—Hardworking Mrs. Louise Stanwood Barrett, who found time to raise three daughters and put them through college after she became a successful real estate agent in 1890, says she has no intention of retiring even though she is 93 years old.

Mr. Berg, director of the chorus, is one of the South's outstanding young choral conductors. He joined the faculty of Davidson College in 1941 and in addition to his duties there serves as director of music in the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte.

Members of the chorus will be entertained in the homes of members of the high school band and chorus during their stay here. A small admission will be charged for the concert to help defray expenses of the concert.

Talented Pianist In Concert Here On Friday Night

A large audience is expected to hear William Schatzkammer, a talented pianist, in a concert, for the second of a series as sponsored by the Community Concert. The concert will be given at the high school, Friday, March 18, at eight o'clock. The doors will open at 7:15, it was announced.

Tickets will be available at the door for out-of-town guests, when accompanied by holders of membership tickets, the Waynesville committee in charge of the concert announced.

Mr. Schatzkammer is making his first national concert tour. The handsome young New Yorker has been termed by music critics as "The most talented of the younger pianists."

Mrs. Culbreth To Address Women 17th

Mrs. George Culbreth, wife of the Rev. George Culbreth, pastor of the Rockwood Charge, will be the speaker at a meeting of Home Demonstration club women held at the Rockwood Methodist church Thursday afternoon, March 17, beginning at 1:30. "Know Your Government" will be the topic discussed. All women of the community are invited.

In 10 post-season bowl games Alabama football teams have averaged 21.3 points per contest.

NOAH NUMSKULL
-AND WHAT DO YOU STOOLE PIGEONS WANT?

DEAR NOAH- ARE SOME COCK-TAIL LOUNGES FOWL ROOSTS?
LEWIS CECIL MIDLOTHIAN-MD #

DEAR NOAH- WOULD AN ECCENTRIC PERSON BE SERVED BY A SILENT BUTLER AND A DUMB WAITER?
BOE FISCHER - MINN
SEND YOUR NOTIONS TO NOAH

Manufactured by the Phillips Products, Inc.

Honorary Page

CHARLES HARRIS SENTELLE, of Bethel, has twice been named honorary page of the House of Representatives. Harris is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sentelle. The first time was in 1937, and then again a few days ago when Harris was in Raleigh with a group of Bethel students. He is a senior at Bethel, and was presented on the floor of the house by Thad. Eure, secretary of state. Certificates of both events have been given Harris.

County Medical Society Will Meet Wednesday

The Haywood County Medical Society will meet at the Nurses Home tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. R. Stuart Roberson will be in charge of the program.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cathey of Clyde announce the birth of a son at Nohurn Hospital in Asheville on Saturday, March 12.

MORE ABOUT Roy's Dog

(Continued from Page 1)

the streets, as she directed her owner through traffic, across streets, in and out of places of business. She had been constantly at Moseman's side every day since he got her back in 1937.

Sally was one of the first Seeing Eye Dogs to be brought into this section. She was 20-months old when Moseman went to Morristown, N. J., and got the black Labrador.

The above photograph shows Moseman about to step from the curb, but Sally had paused, and given the signal for a step-down. Until a few months ago, Mr. Moseman owned and operated a news and confection stand on Main Street.

MORE ABOUT City Limits

(Continued from Page 1)

der the bill, are the area out Dellwood Road to Mrs. Ben Sutton's home; part of Chestnut Park, the Atkins development on the Sulphur Springs road. The Country Club, Belle Meade, Farmer Development, and Country Club Drive.

Estimates are that the town will have a population of over 5,000. The 1940 census gave Waynesville a population of 2,960.

MORE ABOUT Allens Creek

(Continued from Page 1)

Mrs. Cordie Allen, Mrs. Grady Farmer, and Mrs. Lemuel Sheppard.

The ways and means committee: Grady Farmer, Mrs. R. O. Allen and Rev. Jarvis Underwood.

Program committee, Mrs. Fred Farmer, Lowe Allen, Mrs. Nathan Norman.

Members of the county agent's office attended the meeting, and outlined the purpose and plan of the community development program for the county.

NEW DEFENSE CHIEF CHECKS

HAPPY ABOUT HIS NEW JOB, Secretary of National Defense Johnson is shown in the Pentagon Building, Washington, D. C. called to pay his respects to retiring Defense Secretary James H. Doolittle. Johnson was given an office next to Forrester and officially takes over the position, about April 1.

Three Large Audiences Hear Mars Hill Singers

Three large and appreciative audiences in addition to the hundreds listening in on the radio, heard the Mars Hill Glee club in three programs in Haywood Sunday.

An audience that filled the First Baptist church at Canton, heard the 42-members, give a beautiful program Sunday morning. An audience that almost filled the Clyde Baptist church heard them in the afternoon, and then at day night the same program given here, at the First church and broadcast on the radio.

C. Of C. Directors Have Full Program

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will have a full program of matters for their attention when they meet Tuesday night at 7:30 at the new office in the city hall building.

James Kilpatrick, president, said that among the matters to be disposed of would include naming a successor for Stanley Henry, secretary, who has resigned. The annual program is also slated for discussion, and decision on a major project for the year.

There are 24 members of the board of directors.

MORE ABOUT Car Wreck

(Continued from Page 1)

rail, felt the car must have traveled on. Little did they think any vehicle except one with wings, could have sailed over the ravine into the Matney yard.

Cogdill was arrested and charged with driving intoxicated and lodged in jail. He is under $300 bond.

Chief Orville Noland, in questioning Policeman Evans, who investigated, asked: "How could the car get across Shelton Branch the way that one did?"

Evans smiled, as he answered "Chief, he just rode thin air—but he had a mighty good running start to make the jump."

Officers marvel at the fact that Cogdill was not hurt.

Estimates were that the car suffered $200 to $300 damages. None were placed on the property damaged.

MORE ABOUT Memorial Plot

(Continued from Page 1)

the marker. The marker is nine feet square at the base, and is nine feet high, with an inscription on both the front and back sides. The Gold Star parent reported they have $700 on the marker which cost $2,200. They are accepting contributions, but are not making any drive for funds.

Clayton C. Walker, represented the American Legion, and G. C. Ferguson, the Town, in working out details and awarding the contract to Mr. Norris.

Maggie Talent Show Set For Friday Night

Much interest is being shown in the talent show which will be held at the Magna school on Friday night, March 18th. The event will be sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association, of which Mrs. Lee Evans is president.

On Friday, March 15 is the last day for persons wishing to participate to enter the show. Entries can be made with Mrs. Evans or any member of the school faculty.

A food sale will also be held at the show.

Mrs. Hammett Re-elected Officer In State WMU

Mrs. H. G. Hammett, formerly of Waynesville and now of Durham, was re-elected assistant recording secretary of the State Woman's Missionary Society of the State Baptist Association. The convention was held last week in Elizabeth City. Rev. Mr. Hammett was pastor of The First Baptist church here.

Kelvinator's
Amazing new
"Automatic Cook"
Electric Range

... COOKS WHOLE MEALS WHILE YOU'RE MILES AWAY!

DON'T MISS SEEING IT!

- Imagine! Now you can take the afternoon off... anytime... come home to a piping hot dinner. Yes. Just set the "Automatic Cook" control... the range does the rest!
- Amazing new convenience. New "Up-Down" Unit gives you a 4th surface unit or a thrifty Scotch Kettle... at the flick of a wrist!
- Giant broiler-oven holds a 25-lb. turkey with ease. Warmer drawer, seven-heat surface units, and a dozen other wonderful features for extra value!
- Brilliant new Control Panel... top-o'-the-range. Now all controls are easier to reach... easier to read.

Kelvinator—of Course!

See This Beautiful Range and Other Kelvinator Appliances at the REA SHOW Friday and Saturday.

Massie Furniture Co.
PHONE 33 MAIN STREET

REAA

We Cordially Invite All Our Members And Friends To Attend

THE 3rd ANNUAL

Home Appliance Show

WAYNESVILLE ARMORY

FRIDAY MARCH 18 — SATURDAY MARCH 19

SEE OUR DISPLAY

SEE OUR DEMONSTRATION

HEAR OUR REPRESENTATIVES

NO ADMISSION CHARGES

Bring The Family

Remember The Amateur Program
Friday Night — 7:30

THIS MESSAGE BY

HAYWOOD ELECTRIC MEMBERSHIP CORP.

WAYNESVILLE

REAA