Specialist Speaking At Beef Cattle Sessions

Paul Swaffer, N. C. State College extension beef cattle specialist, will address a series of meetings this week in Haywood county, in connection with the Community Development Program.
On Monday night, he appeared at a meeting at the Fines Creek school, and the following night at the Haywood County Courthouse in Waynesville.
Mr. Swaffer, who is regarded as one of the nation's outstanding authorities on beef cattle, will discuss the outlook for beef cattle, including steers, grade cow herds, and purebred herds.
In addition to these meetings, there will be others in several communities on grading, judging, feeding and proper management, as follows:
Tuesday, 10 a. m.—Frank Medford's barn, Crabtree; 2 p. m.—Roy S. Haynes' barn, Clyde Township.
Wednesday, 9:30 a. m.—George E. Stamey's barn, Pigeon.

Beautification Of Home To Be Discussed Here

John Harris, Landscape Specialist of the N. C. State College Extension Service, will address a home beautification meeting at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Haywood County Courthouse in Waynesville.
The audience at the meeting, scheduled in connection with the county community development program, will hear Mr. Harris discuss proper home beautification and landscaping of farm homes. He will illustrate his lecture with the showing of slides.
Mr. Harris writes a column entitled "The Tar Heel Gardener," which appears in newspapers throughout the state.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The get of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.
When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.
Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisons—body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

DEATHS

JOHN W. CLONTZ
Funeral services for John W. Clontz, 72, were held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in Morning Star Methodist church with the Rev. Asmond Maxwell officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.
Pallbearers were Larry Rhodamer, Finley Cook, Albert Wilson, Albert Sharpe, John M. Smathers and John Rhodamer.
Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Arnie Moore Clontz; four daughters, Mrs. John Jenkins, Mrs. Johnnie Williams and Mrs. Floyd Holcombe of Canton and Mrs. Nelson Coleman of Asheville; three sons, Norman and Wiley of Hendersonville and Luther of Enka; four brothers, Harrison of Canton, Charlie and Allen of Morristown, Tenn., and P. L. of Chattanooga, Tenn.; 26 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Canton In Good Financial Shape

Canton's tax valuations at the end of 1948 stood at $6,300,000. This means that the town's annual tax receipts would total $108,241 annually.
The figures are in an auditor's report read last week at a meeting of the Canton Civitan Club.
Generally, the report indicated Canton wound up the old year in good financial shape, though the work of collecting garbage cost more than the service brought in.
The 210 parking meters set up on the town's sidewalks last year cost $13,650—and brought in $12,316.81 during their first year.
In reference to garbage collections, the report showed that labor costs ran to $9,800, while receipts from this service totalled only $5,381.
The report also showed that you can walk on 16 and four-tenths miles of paved streets in the town—seven and two tenths mile paved with concrete, the rest black-topped, with more street improvements continuing.
On the recreation side, the swimming pool and bath house now under construction are expected to be ready by this summer.

Donkey Ball Game Will Be Played Friday

A Donkey Ball Game will be held Friday night, April 1, at 7:00 o'clock in the gymnasium of the Crabtree-Iron Duff High School.
The game is being sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association of the school. A team composed of parents will play a team composed of faculty members.

Rotarians Hear Talk On Content Of Fertilizers

Howard Clapp told Rotarians about the content of fertilizer, in an illustrated talk before the club on Friday.
He explained the analysis of fertilizers, pointing out that 6-8-6 type means 6 per cent nitrogen, 8 per cent phosphate, and 6 per cent potash. The manufacturer must now put on each bag "Guaranteed Analysis," he said. The Department of agriculture has checkers out making an analysis on all types of fertilizers for the protection of buyers, he said.
"It is important to know the needs of the soil, in order to use the proper fertilizers," he emphasized. "Find out what a certain crop takes or adds to the soil, and then use a fertilizer that fits into that picture," he urged.
"Constant study of the soil is a necessity. Beware of using lime until you are sure your soil needs lime," he pointed out.

State VFW Heads Are Coming To Canton Saturday

Officers of the Canton Veterans of Foreign Wars post and its women's auxiliary will be invited formally Saturday night in ceremonies at the Canton Armory.
The joint installation will be conducted by State Representative Harry Vanderlinden of Hickory, State VFW commander; and Mrs. Alberta Varner, state auxiliary president from Greensboro.
Glenn Robinson of Champion's Inspection Department, is the incoming Post commander, while Mrs. Louise Leatherwood of Champion's Medical Staff is the new Post Auxiliary president.
Mr. Robinson succeeds Bruce Leatherwood, and Mrs. Leatherwood was named to succeed Mrs. Evelyn Robinson.
Members of the post and the auxiliary will attend a dinner, scheduled to start at 6:30 p. m.
A dance that will follow the dinner will be open to the public.

Lions Hear High School Musicians

Members of the Waynesville Lions Club heard some of Waynesville High School's finest musical talent at their regular Thursday night meeting at the Towne House.
There were songs by Donald Matney, baritone, and Tenor Fred Calhoun, and the Boys' and Mixed

Library Notes

ODDS AND ENDS
The Caldecott Award has just been presented to Berta and Elmer Hader for their book, "The Big Snow". The Newberry Award went to Marguerite Henry for her "King of the Wind". Both of these selections are very popular in our library and we heartily approve the choice of the committee.

On Saturday, March 12th, 210 books were taken from the Library Headquarters and the week before was higher with 305. Over 100 books and magazines go out every day!

Pocket Books can be used on our "Put and take Shelf". Why not bring yours down when you have finished with them?

Hours of the Library are 10-12 and 1-5 every day except Sunday and Wednesday afternoon. Funny how some people never read the information on the door.

A number of interesting pamphlets have been received. The story of North Carolina's first novel written by a resident North Carolinian with a North Carolina background was "Eonguski or the Cherokee Chief a Tale of Past Wars". Richard Walser tells about the story in "Senator Strange's Indian Novel". Incidentally one of our borrowers had read this pamphlet and visited the Pack Library in Asheville where a copy of the novel may be found in the Sondley Reference Library.

A biographical sketch of John Charles McNeill by Agatha Boyd Adams is certainly an addition for the lovers of McNeill's poetry. The Library would love to buy a copy of his "Lyrics from Cotton Land", which unfortunately is out of print.

More South Carolina Triplets

The statisticians say triplets occur only once in 7,100 births—but here's the second set born within two weeks in Lancaster county, South Carolina. Ellie James, Negro farmer, is stunned but happy as he gazes at his three offspring. Their mother died soon after they were born. Last week Mrs. James Donald Thomas, textile worker of Lancaster, gave birth to three daughters. (AP Photo).

National Housing Group Says Few States Have Own Rent Control Laws

CHICAGO (UPI)—Only a scattering of cities and states have their own rent laws which could be used to replace federal rent control.
The National Association of Housing Officials reports that only five states—Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland, New York and New Jersey—have rent laws which would become effective if federal regulations expire.
Only five cities—New York, Washington, Buffalo, Philadelphia and Flint, Mich.—are currently administering their own rent control ordinances.
Flint never has been under federal regulations, but has had local rent control since October, 1942. New York and Buffalo control rent on hotels, apartment hotels and lodging and rooming houses.
Philadelphia regulates evictions and has rent control provisions on a standby basis if federal controls expire. Washington's rent control law expires a month after the federal law unless it is extended by Congress.
The standby laws with the longest life expectancy are those of Illinois, New York and New Jersey. All three are effective until June 30, 1949.
Connecticut's rent control law will expire when the state legislature adjourns sine die. Under the law, the deadline for adjournment is June 3.
Maryland's rent control law is set to expire June 1.
Six states—Connecticut, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Oregon and Pennsylvania—are considering legislative proposals to set up state controls for another year or longer in the absence of federal regulations. Massachusetts is considering a bill to permit rent increases of not more than 20 per cent above rentals prevailing March 1, 1949.

Quartets.
Another feature of the program was the piano solo by Jimmy Galaway.
Fred Calhoun and the Boys' Quartet of which he is a member of the Mixed Quartet, gained ratings of excellent in the District Music Contest at Asheville last week-end.
Club President Joe Davis said motion pictures of last year's Lions International Convention in New York City will be shown at this week's meeting, Thursday night.

Capital Letters

He sent it to her, along with a bill for $100, explaining that this hostility was not permitted to pass out, for free, directions, etc., for the preparation of its dishes. The story has it that she paid the $100 and forthwith began sending the cake recipe to her friends. One of them landed with Kerr Scott.
Here it is—and if you make good with it you might send a piece of it to Governor Scott or to this column at 838 Insurance Building, Raleigh:
One-half cup butter; 2 cups sugar; 4 oz. (4 squares) chocolate; 2 eggs; 1 and one-half cups sweet milk; 2 cups flour; 2 tps. baking powder; 2 tps. vanilla; 1 cup nut meats, Cream butter and sugar.

Add melted chocolate and beaten eggs. Sift dry ingredients alternately with milk. Add vanilla and nuts and bake in loaf pan 350°, 45 minutes.
Icing (not cooked): one-half cup butter; 2 oz. chocolate; 1 egg; 1 and one-half cups powdered sugar; 1 pinch salt; 1 tps. vanilla; 1 tsp. lemon juice; 1 cup nuts.
Melt butter and chocolate together. Add beaten egg, sugar, salt, vanilla and lemon juice. Either mix in nuts or sprinkle on top. Good luck.
If you prefer you might make this a layer cake.

MAYOR TELLS THEM
FITCHBURG, Mass. (UPI)—When the city council opposed his plan to buy a new fire apparatus, Mayor George W. Stanton bought a full page advertisement in a local newspaper to get across his arguments.
