

TO CHURCH SOMEWHERE EVERY SUNDAY

Jesus Declares His Authority

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Mark 11:1-11, 15-18; Luke 19:29-48

After Jesus had ridden triumphantly into Jerusalem to the shouts of "Hosanna," He went direct to the temple where He looked around; then He went to Bethany with the twelve.

Next morning Jesus again went to the temple in Jerusalem and when He found money changers therein, He cast them out, saying that they were making the house of God into a den of thieves.

The scribes and Pharisees, seeing Jesus cast the money changers out of the temple and preaching to the people, sought how they might destroy Him, for the people marveled at His doctrine.

When Jesus came near Jerusalem He wept over it. He taught daily in the temple, but the authorities sought to destroy Him. MEMORY VERSE—Mark 11:9.

The Golden Text

Christ's entry into Jerusalem.

"Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."—Mark 11:9.

Methodists Will Meet In Clyde On Saturday

Approximately 150 Methodist ministers and laymen from 33 churches in the Waynesville Methodist District will meet at Clyde Methodist Church at 9:30 a. m. Saturday for an all day business session.

The district conference is the church's annual mid-year check-up to review work of the current conference year and to plan for the remaining months. Discussions will center around local budgets, benevolences, world service, and others. Four delegates in addition to the pastor are expected to represent each church in the district.

Dr. C. N. Clark, district superintendent, will preside over the conference. Rev. W. T. Medlin, Jr., pastor of the Clyde Church, will be in charge of welcoming the visiting groups.

Lunch will be served in the school cafeteria by the church women.

Allens Creek Church Building New Additions

The Allens Creek Baptist Church is getting 22 new Sunday School rooms and a modern heating plant.

The Rev. Thomas Erwin, pastor of the church, said yesterday the construction work is proceeding "splendidly" with half the masonry completed on the project.

The new plant, he said, would be used to heat both the new building and the present auditorium.

New Buildings Planned By Canton Methodists

A campaign has been launched to build a new parsonage and a new educational department for the First Methodist Church of Canton.

This was announced today by the Rev. L. E. Mabry, the pastor.

"If all goes well," he said, "actual work will be started during the summer."

Plans call for financing the project with sufficient funds to complete it in a year's time.

"The campaign was formally launched on Easter Sunday," Mr. Mabry announced, "and it is the hope of the church that the two buildings can be erected in time for dedication next Easter."

In one week's time, he added, cash donations and pledges total $4,500 already.

The buildings will be of modern brick construction, conforming with the architectural design of the church.

Serving on the finance committee in connection with the project are Robert Rowe, Edward Pless, Guy Hughes, Woody Robertson, W. L. Goolsby, Carroll Warren, Tetho Mills, Mrs. Halmund Cook, and A. W. Donaldson.

C. E. Malnoux is serving as treasurer, and W. T. Hawkins as chairman of the official board.

Ministerial Association To Meet Monday

The Haywood County Ministerial Association will hold its luncheon meeting, Monday, May 2, 12:30 p. m., at the Long's Chapel Methodist Church.

The Rev. R. L. Young, pastor of the Waynesville First Methodist Church, is the president of the association, and Mrs. C. O. Newell is secretary.

Lake Junaluska Baptist Church

The Rev. O. J. Beck, Pastor Sunday School, 10 a. m., with D. R. Riley, superintendent.

Preaching services the first Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock and the third Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Sunday, 7:30 p. m., Baptist Training Union.

Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., Mid-week prayer services.

Cooking tests show carrots, parried or unpared, have the same nutritive value.

Sunday Schools Growing In Hazelwood Churches

The first month of Hazelwood's Church Loyalty Campaign brought a sharp rise in Sunday School attendance at the four churches, the Rev. M. L. Lewis, pastor of the Baptist Church, reported yesterday.

During April, an average 483 persons attended Sunday School at the Church of God, and the Hazelwood Baptist, Methodist, and Presbyterian Churches—83 more than had attended during the previous month.

Meanwhile, the four churches are continuing to work toward their goal of an attendance of 600 for June.

This month, 200 persons attended the Baptist Church Sunday School, 115 went to the Church of God, 81 to the Methodist Church, and 87 to the Presbyterian Church.

The pastor reported that Sunday School attendance at the Baptist Church gained 17 per cent this month over March's average of 178.

Though this was just short of the goal of 20 per cent gain that the church had set, it did represent an increase of 31 persons at Sunday School.

The Baptist Church will set a goal for May at church services

Hazelwood Baptist Church

The Rev. M. L. Lewis, Pastor Sunday School, 9:15 a. m. Frank Underwood, general superintendent.

11 o'clock, Morning Worship. Sermon by the pastor on the topic, "Fruitful Christians."

7 p. m., Training Union, Jarvis Brock, director; 8 o'clock, Evening worship, sermon by the pastor.

New Chapel Marks Peak In Spiritual Life Of Hyder Mountain People

By MRS. MILLARD FERGUSON

Mountaineer Correspondent

The first services at the new stone and brick Fincher's Methodist Chapel marked the opening of a new chapter in the spiritual development of the people of Hyder Mountain.

Friends from outside the community and former residents joined members of the congregation to come to the modern church overlooking the quiet hills from the gap.

Many of the people who heard Dr. C. N. Clark, Waynesville district superintendent, preach the sermon were direct descendants of those who had worshipped in the little log church that was the first Fincher's Chapel 100 years ago.

They solemnly watched the laying of the cornerstone, and listened quietly to Dr. Clark's sermon.

They heard Mrs. William B. McCreary, the oldest living member of the church, and Mrs. Bessie Rhinehart Robinson, and Mr. Rhinehart, who lived in the community 30 years ago, recall scenes from the past. Mrs. Robinson was one of those who had worked most actively to make the new Chapel possible.

When the services ended and the people started slowly homeward, one woman looked back at the little church on the summit, and murmured:

"It's like a monument."

Mt. Zion Church Buys New Bus To Aid Churchgoers

If you see a slick, new bus running over the roads around Allens Creek these Sundays, it's probably bringing people to the Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

The Rev. Thomas Erwin, pastor, said yesterday the church bought the new bus for $1,800 to help the people in the rural areas get to church services.

Honor Roll For April Announced By Canton Church

The Rev. Asmond Maxwell, pastor of the Morning Star Methodist Church of Canton, today announced his school honor roll for this month.

The honor students are as follows, with their classes and teachers:

Beginners Class, Mrs. Arthur Cody, teacher—Mrs. Cody, Susan Maxwell.

Primary Class, Mrs. Willie Holtzclaw, teacher—Mrs. Holtzclaw, Shirley Ashe, Wanda Phillips, Anna Jean Sharp, Denny Cole, Mark Wilson.

Junior Class, Mrs. Jack Smathers, teacher—Mrs. Smathers, Judy Smathers, Sam Smathers, Nancy Morgan, Juanita Messer, Patricia McDowell, Dale Childers, Joe Bob McDowell, Patsy Childers, Jeanette.

Young People's Class, Mrs. Hasque Worley, teacher—Gertrude Hall, June Miller, Mae Dean Pope, Billy Joe Rhodamer, O. L. Smathers, Jr.

Men's Bible Class, Arthur Cody, teacher—Raymond Miller, Charles A. Rhodamer, Luther Smathers.

Canton District Convention Of Church Of God To Open Tomorrow

Eight hundred persons are expected to attend the two-day Canton District Convention of the Church of God, opening tomorrow afternoon at the Canton church.

The Rev. W. C. Lee, pastor of the host Church of God and district overseer, said yesterday that representatives from the district churches of Luther, Clyde, Sylva, Cherokee, Whittier, Canton and Hazelwood were expected.

The Rev. E. W. Williams of Charlotte, State overseer, will be the featured speaker at the convention. He is scheduled to preach the sermon at the Saturday night services, which will begin at 7:30

Also expected is the Rev. E. C. Thomas, also of Charlotte, who is the State youth director.

Officials of the seven churches in the district will deliver their reports after the Saturday afternoon service, which will start at three o'clock.

The schedule for the convention also shows services at 7:30, Friday.

Other pastors in the district are the Rev. Leonard Prosser, Sylva; the Rev. Hugh J. Cox, Hazelwood; the Rev. L. D. King, Luther; the Rev. J. H. McKinney, Hazelwood; the Rev. Homer Pope, Whittier; and the Rev. R. C. Thompson, Cherokee.

500 Persons See Church Of God Baptismal Services

Thirty-two persons were brought into the Church of God last Sunday by baptism in Canton district services in Waynesville.

Approximately 500 others gathered on the banks of Richland Creek in Waynesville to see the Rev. W. C. Lee, district overseer and pastor of the Canton church, baptize the new members by total immersion.

The worshippers came with their pastors from the seven pastorates of the Church of God in Canton.

Hazelwood, Sylva, Cherokee, Whittier, Luther and Clyde.

The Rev. Hugh J. Cox, pastor of the Hazelwood church, assisted with the baptism, while the Rev. Leonard Prosser, the Sylva pastor, brought the message.

The congregation at Water Street stood silently in the wind and heard the minister read the third chapter of Matthew, and deliver his sermon from the text of Matthew 28:19.

Many People Attending Revival Here

Revival services at the First Baptist church of Waynesville continue tonight, with Dr. Sankey Lee Blanton scheduled to deliver his sermon on "Friends of Jesus."

The series of meetings, which opened Sunday, have been drawing increasingly large numbers of worshippers.

Tomorrow night, Dr. Blanton, who is dean of the School of Religion at Wake Forest College, will base his message on the subject: "Judas."

On Saturday night, he will preach on the theme, "The Essential Christ."

Dr. Blanton's sermon at Sunday morning services will be on the subject, "How Life Should be Lived," while at the closing services Sunday night, he will preach on "Rewards and Punishment."

Band Organized For Services At Church Of God In Hazelwood

A band of five musicians was organized this week to play at services at the Church of God in Hazelwood.

Edward McMahan directs the band and also plays bass fiddle for the selections. Other members are Miss Margie Skidmore, accordionist, Buford Birchfield, who plays the guitar; Miss Lois Allred, pianist; and Miss Levayda Riggins, who plays the clarinet.

Hundreds Expected For Baptist Regional Meeting

Hundreds of Haywood county Baptists are expected to attend the two-day 1949 Regional Convention starting May 6 at the West Asheville Baptist church.

In addition to those from the Haywood Association, the meeting will attract members and officials from Buncombe, Yancey, Carolina, French Broad, Mitchell, Newfound and Transylvania Associations.

Among the features of the session will be the regional tournament for winners of the events in associational competition held previously in junior memory work, intermediate sword drill, speaking, and adult Scripture reading.

STANDS ON OWN MERITS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—One of Mrs. Richard M. Schuon's hens has a lot to cackle about. She laid an egg that stands on end.

Maggie PTA To Meet Monday

Members of the Maggie Parent-Teachers Association will hear a discussion by a District Health Office representative when they meet at the Maggie School at 7:30 p. m. Monday.

During the meeting, they will hear a report by their committee on activities for getting a new school building and will elect new officers.

The committee, headed by Clifton Whitehead, is expected to appear before the County Board of Education earlier that day. Mrs. Lee Evans, P-TA president, said.

Lenoir county farmers plan to increase their acreage of sweet potatoes this year.

PHONES 82 AND 63

HAYWOOD BUILDERS SUPPLY COMPANY

WAYNESVILLE, N. C.

March 28, 1949

Customers and Friends of Haywood County

Gentlemen:

Many price changes are taking place. It shall ever be our policy to pass along to you any savings that we can get through careful buying.

Check with us to obtain the advantage of lowest current prices. In certain instances, we have been able to get some exceptionally good bargains. For instance, we have a shipment of doors that represent unusual values. These are splendidly built with solid stiles and surprisingly cheap, as follows:

2'8" x 6'8" _____	at $8.80	2'0" x 6'8" _____	at $8.50
2'6" x 6'8" _____	at 8.60	1'6" x 6'8" Closet _____	at 8.00

A few front doors at $12.50.

We have been getting a number of other items that are still in short supply, including 5 V Crimp galvanized roofing, galvanized pipe, kiln dried Fir, Ponderosa, Sugar and Southern Yellow Pine.

Springtime is here and it's time to paint. We have in stock all the popular colors. When you see an outstandingly good paint job, chances are ten to one it's "Gliddens". For greater and smoother coverage and for lasting wear, we recommend "Gliddens Climatic" Dixie Made for Dixie Trade.

Let us help you solve your building problems. Here you will often find "there is a material difference."

Sincerely,

HAYWOOD BUILDERS SUPPLY COMPANY

"WHEN YOU THINK OF BUILDING...THINK OF HAYWOOD BUILDERS SUPPLY COMPANY"