

Miss Edwards Announces Plans For Her Wedding

Miss Mary Jane Edwards, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Charles W. Edwards, and bride-elect of John Charles Klupp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Klupp, has announced plans for her wedding.

The ceremony will take place on Saturday in Long's Chapel Methodist Church with the Rev. Paul Duckwall, pastor, pronouncing the vows.

Musical numbers will be presented by Miss Peggy McCracken, organist, and the following members of the church choir: Mr. and Mrs. Craig Reeves, Mrs. Gagnell Abel, Charles G. Klupp, Carey McCracken, Miss Elizabeth Glusker, Hester Terrell, Mrs. Kenneth Turner, and Lowry Ferguson.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father and will have for her matron of honor her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles W. Edwards. Her bridesmaids will be Mrs. Edna K. Edwards and Miss Alice Collins, both of Durham.

Little Miss Lettuy Edwards of Durham, niece of the bride, will be flower girl and Dan Edwards, Jr., nephew of the bride, will be ring bearer.

Mr. Klupp will have as his best man his cousin, Robert Castle of Champaign, Illinois, and groomsmen will be Richard Castle of Champaign, Dan K. Edwards of Durham and Charles W. Edwards, Jr., of Lake Junaluska, brothers of the bride and Willard Moody.

Friends of the couple are cordially invited to attend the wedding which will be at four o'clock in the afternoon. Following the wedding a reception will be given by the parents of the bride at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Queen on the Dellwood Road. Guests will include out-of-town guests and their friends.

A number of social events are being planned in honor of the bride this week. Wednesday evening the Welfare Department of which Miss Edwards is a member, will honor her with a Coca-Cola party at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Lowe.

Thursday evening Mrs. F. S. Love and Mrs. Dolan Harris, the latter of Durham, will entertain the bridal party and out-of-town guests at the home of Mrs. Love. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Klupp, parents of the bridegroom-elect, will be hosts of a rehearsal supper at their home on Lake Junaluska, and Saturday morning the parents of the bride-elect, will entertain at a wedding breakfast at the Towne House.

Crabtree-Iron Duff Seniors Feted By Junior Class At Banquet

Prairie chicken and rich strike topped the menu Tuesday night when the juniors of Crabtree-Iron Duff High School brought the graduating seniors back to the days of the Forty-Niner and the Golden West.

A campfire burned in the center of the cafeteria at the banquet and the western prairies and the mountains formed the background for the speakers with names like Our Gal Sal, Crazy Kelly, and Corn Hollow Charlie.

Hosts and guests were serious only while the Rev. C. O. Newell was giving the invocation.

After that, the banquet, sponsored by Mrs. O. L. Yates, started off with Cactus Water, otherwise known as tomato juice.

Then came the Prairie Chicken (chicken pie), Gold Dug on the Seccas (mashed potatoes with paprika), prairie berries (peas), corn pone and gold leaf bread and butter, sage brush and cactus (stuffed salad), rich strike (ice cream and cake) and spring water (coffee).

The programs, decorated with covered wagons, said the first speaker was Corn Hollow Charlie "Giddy-up," Junior President Bob Leming.

did the talking under this name. Digger Dan spoke through Senior President J. M. Crawford, Red Hannah (Mrs. Ethel Roberts, faculty spokesman), talked on the subject, "Live by the Golden Rule." Other speakers were Principal Lloyd Bryson as Live Wire Harry Hugg Best, junior spokesman, as Our Gal Sal; the Rev. Mrs. Newell as Sweet Betsy; Phyllis James, senior spokesman, as Crazy Molly; and Mrs. P. M. Chase, music instructor, as Slim Ike.
