

Jane Edwards Of John C. Klopp

wedding gift to her mother, a necklace of filigree gold and diamonds.

Mrs. Charles W. Edwards, Jr., was matron of honor and wore a dress of lavender marquisette trimmed with tulle skirt and a wide, straight fold standing high around the shoulder and coming together in a large bow at the front. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of yellow rose buds, iris, carnations and gypsophila and wore a coronet of tiny yellow flowers and imported maline.

Mrs. Dan K. Edwards and Miss Alice Collins of Durham were bridesmaids and wore identical gowns, also of lavender marquisette with ruffled drop shoulders, tulle skirts and taffeta sashes. Their fan-shaped bouquets were made of pink and yellow sweet peas, roses and gardenias, with lavender maline, and their coronets were made of small flowers in corresponding colors.

Little Miss LeRoy Edwards, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a dress similar in design to those of the other attendants. She dropped rose petals from a basket in the path of the bride. Dan Edwards, Jr., wore a white suit and carried the ring in a lily.

Robert Castle, of Champaign, Ill., cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and serving as ushers were Richard Castle, also of Champaign, Willard Moody of Lake Junaluska and Charles W. Edwards, Jr. of Lake Junaluska and Dan K. Edwards of Durham, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Edwards, mother of the bride wore an afternoon dress of grey silk crepe and lace with lavender tints. Her pink hat was trimmed with grey flowers and orchid veiling. Mrs. Klopp, mother of the bridegroom, wore an afternoon dress of navy blue crepe with grey and pink accessories. Their flowers were orchids and pink gardenias.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception at the Queen Farm on the Dellwood Road. The bridal motif was observed and the bride's table
