ior Of One Of Haywood's New Dairies

A" dairy has just been completed by Robert Underwood, in East Waynesville. 40 feet is constructed of concrete blocks, and a concrete floor, with a wood roofing. The building has three departments, a milk room, milking room with A new paint. Pli-namel which is made especially for interior of dairy barns, rior painting. Two color scheme of painting was used, white and turf-green, Bill actor building the barn, (Photograph by Ingram's Studios,

soring Appointments Made By Canton City Officials

Canton Lions To Give Minstrel At Clyde On Friday

The Canton Lions Club will stage a minstrel show in the Clyde Friday night, it was announced Plott yesterday by members of the recently organized Clyde Lions.

club perform in its own town not long ago promise a hilariously entertaining evening.  🛶 "Beauties" from the Clyde group bevy of "belles" picked from the visiting club members. One-half of the proceeds will go through the organizational stages, Stephens, electrical inspectors. it was pointed out.

Clyde Lions wil be held in the Canton town officials who served by appointment under Mayer J. Paul Murray's administration have new leases on their offices,

In the new city administration's first official meeting last Monday night, Mayor Floyd Woody and hiboard of addermen appointed all town officials to new terms. Attending the inaugural session were Aldermen Albert B. Robin-School Auditorium at 8 o'clock son, Albert J. Reno, and Sebe The appointments included those of Town Solicitor T. A. Clark as Persons who saw the Canton town attorney the holds the post of solicitor by election; W. L. Snyder, tax collector, deputy city clerk, police court clerk, and treasurer for town employees' vil lcompete for honors with a withholding taxes; Chief of Police J. N. Stroup, Fire Chief C. L. Westmoreland; A. B. Uzzell, street and water superintendent: Town Accountant Robert L. Williams. to the Clyde Lions who are mak- Town Treasurer and Clark E. M. ing an effort to finance their club Geier; and Bill Bryson and W. J.

Two new members were named Regular dinner meeting of the to the Board of Regular dinner meeting of the Smiley Carver and W. W. Mitchell. sinted to the board were Dr. school cafeteria at 7 p.m. Thurs- V. H. Duckett, chairman; Marvin Smathers, and D. T. Whitted.

Future Home Makers To Hold Rally At Clyde

Haywood County girls will star n a fashion show Saturday, mod-NO DOWN cling clothes they designed and with his big bass fiddle; Dixie Partners Quartet; also a barrel of fun with Humphammer,

There will be a special show for broadcast over radio station WHCC COMPANY from 9 to 9:30.

This is a high type string band This group recently won first prize 28 Broadway and a Gold Cup in the Western The Film A is an accommon Stuand a Gold Cup in the Western which was held in Textile Hall, Greenville, when 74 bands competed in this event.

TING

Be Sure Your IILK BARN KEN HOUSES

BUILDINGS ARE BUILT OF OUR QUALITY BLOCK

hat has used our BLOCK . . . and you y a Western Carolina product.

zes Of Concrete Pipe *

ctor or material dealer or call us collect.

DIAL 3-8321

ete Products Co. EVILLE, N. C.

made themselves.

The sho wwill feature the spring rally of the Haywood County Future Home Makers of America. Prizes donated by Clyde and Canton firms, will be awarded to the winner, and to the girls who place second and third. Approximately 200 persons are expected to be at the Clyde High School auditorium when the rally opens at 9:30 a.m.

The FHMA is an organization of dents

The county's eight chapters will be represented at the session, which will continue through 12:30

Each chapter will conduct some phase of the program, with Geraldine Fish of Clyde County president, presiding, Mrs. Edith White of Clyde, sponsor of the Clyde Chapter, will be in charge of the

Among the leatured speakers be Jack Messer, County Schools Superintendent, and A. J. Hutchins, superintendent of Canton city

Clyde High School Principal Stanley Livingston will welcome the visitors

Miss Fish will report on the plans for next year, and Betty Farmer of Waynesville will discuss the business that was conducted at the State FHMA rally in Raleigh.

In charge of the musical part of the program will be the Canton group, while the Crabtree incmbers will register the delegates.

The responsibility for the program as a whole will be taken by the Clyde chapter, while the Fines Creek members will conduct the group singing.

The Bethel members will hold the devotions.

A total of 188,780 fans watched the 24 games played by the Notre Dame basketball team last season. a new school record.

Mrs. McCreary Tells How Chapel Grew From Log Church In Hyder Mt.

By MRS. MILLARD FERGUSON

Mountaineer Correspondent

When Mrs. William F. McCreary spoke about the growth of the reigious life in the Hyder Mountain community, she spoke with authority when the new, modern Fincher's Methodist Chapel opened formally on Sunday, April 24.

For Aunt Callie as she is known affectionately, has lived all her 88 years among the people of Hyder Mountain, and is the oldest living member of the church.

As she looked at the clean, new pews of the bright, roomy chapel. she remembered other Sundays in the community's first church.

When she was a little girl, Mrs. McCreary recalled, she'd come to the little log chapel and sit on one of the hewn log benches whose peg the Rev. John Kerr started the Boone, who now lives in Waynes-

The church stood at the intersection of Big Branch Creek and Hyder Mountain Road near the W. C. Kirkpatrick home, and it had room for 50 people

Joe Rhinehart and his family were regarded as the Christian leaders of the community then. Today, three generations later, their influence is still felt in the life of the community through the work and the service of their direct descendants, Mrs. Bessie Rhinehart Robinson and her family.

As the community grew, so did the church.

the county creeted a jurger church roof.

services. Mr. Kerr's work can best open five place that stood in the service, she continued. be told by his daughter, Mrs. J. K. middle of the floor, and the smoke

Aunt Callie

In 1875, Mrs. McCreary related, went out through a hole in the where the Hult home now stands. On week days, the children went from the days of Mr. Kerr. Like the first one, it had an to school there, and the rest of the legs rested on the earth floor until earthen floor. When the weather time people of all denominations Mrs. Newell and her husband, who was cold, a fire was built in the could use it for the worship Is also a Methodist minister, lab-chapel, since most of the people in the community were Methodists. The Rev. J. R. Long became the first pastor of the new church, and For Second Week a young Civil War veteran named William Ferguson was the first Of May Court Mr. Ferguson left some time later to study medicine at Vanderbilt University He was 88 years years of service as a doctor in civil term:

which was used for all purposes. than Creek; Paul Sanford, Crab-

Chapel, named for the Rev. Willie Dennis Crawford, Iron Duff; Jake worked to make it possible.

ground bear his name. The Rev. Mrs. C. O. Newell Is Mauney, Fines Creek.

Aunt Callie can tell you how rence Underwood, as above, But it was primarily a Methodist produce this newest monument to religious life.

Jurors Listed

The following jury list has been drawn for the second week of the old when he died in 1934 after 52 Haywood Superior Court's May

West Asheville-the longest time | Marvin Green, Fines Creek; any practitioner had served there. Arthur White, Ivy Hill; Lawrence The log building gave way in Underwood and D. P. Pressley, 1904 to a new frame structure Waynesville; H. O. Burgess, Jona-This was the first Fincher's tree; Homer V. Cagle, Beaverdam; Fincher, its first pastor who had Sutton, Clyde; Joe A, Chambers, Iron Duff; Tom Queen, Waynes The new stone and brick chapel ville; Clarence Hill, Clyde; W. S built recently on a bill overlook- Ferguson, Ivy Hill; Mabel Glance, ing Hyder Mountain's fertile farms Beaverdam; Tom Burnette, East and the majestic hills in the back- Fork; R. C. Ledbetter, Cecil; Glenn Noland Fines Creek; and Joe the pastor now, continuing the A previous report listed the long service whose beginnings name of Lawrence Leatherwood on Mrs. McCreary recalls so vividly this jury list. This was incorrect. The name should have been Lawored, like their predecessors, to the development of the people's Haywood Builders Supply Co.

for this

Modern

DAIRY BARN

"When You Think of Building - Think of Haywood Builders Supply Co."

Haywood Builders Supply Co.

Phone 82

At The Depot