Home Clubs To Have Federation Day In Franklin

The second district of the State Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs will observe Federation Day on Tuesday, May 24, with an all-day meeting to be held at the Methodist church in Franklin.

The principal address will be given by Miss Iris Davenport, woman's editor of the Southern Agriculturist. Other special guests will include Mrs. George Apperson of Mocksville, president of the State Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs.

Mrs. Henry Francis, district chairman of home demonstration clubs, will preside.

The program will include county reports on home demonstration and 4-H clubs. Mrs. Otis Cole, Haywood County Council Secretary, will report for the Haywood home clubs and Miss Nancy Poston, member of the Bethel 4-H Club, will make the report for the Haywood 4-H clubs. Miss Poston will also serve as a page for the meeting.

Committee reports will be given during the business session. Mrs. Paul Hyatt will serve on the resolutions committee. Mrs. W. C. Moody will serve on the courtesy committee, and Mrs. Pat Cole will be on the registration committee.

The meeting will open at 10:00 a. m. and will adjourn around 3 p. m. Lunch will be available at the church.

Wheat Straw Newsprint Given Tryout In Kansas

TOPEKA, Kan. (UP)—Kansas "the wheat state," may soon become known for its contributions to newsprint manufacture, if experiments now being made succeed. Wheat straw, a wasted product of Kansas farms, was found through tests to be a satisfactory material for newsprint and higher grades of paper.

In an experiment, the Chicago Tribune published a midwest edition on paper made from wheat straw, oats and other farm products.

The verdict was that the wheat straw paper was equal to newsprint made from the tree pulp.
