Capital Letters

 Bill Holoman, Employment Security Commission attorney, are being considered to succeed Kimzey.
 NOTES — Fate Humphrey, Broughton secretary, is remaining as secretary to Sen. Frank Graham. Baptists from all over the State are in Oklahoma City this week for the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention. Dr. Louie D. Newton of Atlanta, former head of the Southern Baptists and famed Russian traveler, is being pushed by a few leading Baptist pastors for the presidency of Wake Forest College. John Armstrong, Utilities Commission man who opposed Thad Eure, is set to go. So is Harry Sample, Probation Commission head. Good Democrat LeRoy Martin enhanced his popularity considerably the other day when he threatened to whip Democratic Chairman Capus Wayne.

Boy Scout

 The 22 members of the boy's troop served as honorary pallbearers and members of Waynesville Troop 2 were pallbearers. Burial was in Green Hill Cemetery.
 The funeral arrangements were made by Garrett's Funeral Home. Surviving are Dean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wilson, Waynesville, route 1; five brothers, Jewell, Reno, Gene, Arthur and Charles; three sisters, Miss Dell Wilson, Grace Wilson and Mrs. Bethel Godfrey, all of Waynesville, route 1; and his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilson of High Point.

Rambling 'Round

 The most beautiful mixture of colors is the brilliant scarlet of sunset blending into the soft purple of the night.
 He went into the post office late in the evening, evidently in a big hurry. Hastily inserting his key in the box lock, he resented heatedly the fact that the box did not open readily. After a minute or two in twisting and turning the key, he shamefacedly withdrew it and inserted into the key hole of the box next to his. It opened immediately.

Pfc. Parton

 Pfc. Parton was inducted at Camp Croft on September 10, 1942, and received training at Camp Walters, Texas, Camp San Luis, California, Camp Rucker, Alabama, and Camp Butler and Camp Forest, Tennessee. Before entering the service he was employed by the Sunday School Board at the Methodist Assembly at Lake Junaluska.
 Surviving in addition to the father are one brother, Glenn Parton, Jr., of Lake Junaluska, and four sisters, Mrs. William Conley of Sand Hill, and Mrs. Hiram Wyatt, Mrs. Willie Lanning, and Mrs. D. A. Whitner, all of Lake Junaluska. Crawford Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Big Four Try Again

ACHESON of the U.S.A.

BEVIN of Great Britain.

SCHUMAN of France.

VISHINSKY of Russia.

Bible School

 Walter Francis and Mrs. Bob Caldwell, primary leaders; Mrs. Hugh Francis, Mrs. Lee Gaddy, and Mrs. Fred Sandford, beginner leaders; Miss Betty Jean Norris, general secretary; and Miss Mozelle Limer and Miss Ina Lee Messer, pianists.

Memorial

 Waynesville, will lead the prayer, followed by the assembly call by the bugler.
 The closing prayer will be delivered by the Rev. M. R. Williamson, pastor of the Waynesville Presbyterian church.
 Waynesville National Guardsmen will fire a volley over the plot, and the ceremonies will end on the notes of "Taps" played by the bugler.
