Three Haywood Girls Receive College Degrees

Three Haywood County girls received degrees at commencement exercises of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro on Monday.

Miss Betsy Siler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Siler received an A. B. degree in Sociology. Miss Siler, who graduated at St. Mary's Junior College before entering Woman's College, held a number of student offices during her junior and senior years. She was a Cornellian Society Marshall, a member of the business staff of "The Carolinian," the college paper, a member of the Sociology Club, the Recreation Association, and the Y.W.C.A. She was on the Dean's List both years and served as vice president of the Alpha Kappa Delta national honorary sociology fraternity, of which she is a member.

Miss Siler was also active in sports, having specialized in Life Saving and Golf, and served as an attendant to the May Queen at May Day exercises this year.

Miss Jane Wyche, daughter of Mrs. Troy Wyche, received an A. B. Degree in Primary Education and was also an outstanding student. She was on the college Honor Roll for three years and the Dean's list two years. She was a member of the Adelpian Society and the Betany Club.

In addition, Miss Wyche was a member of the Sigma Delta Pi, national honorary Spanish fraternity and held the office of treasurer in the organization during her junior year and secretary during her senior year.

Miss Gladys Brown of Clyde received a B. S. Degree in Home Economics. She attended Western Carolina Teachers College for two years before entering Woman's College.

Miss Brown was a member of the Dikean Society and the Home Economics Club and during her senior year served as proctor.

Versatile Costume

Checked cotton with linen jacket.

By VERA WINSTON

THE WELL-MANNERED sun dress of fine cotton, teamed up with a matching jacket, fully lined and well tailored, adds up to a versatile costume. It is a splendid choice for the week-end or for a more extended travel itinerary. This one is of navy and white checked cotton with a jacket of navy linen lined, collared and cuffed in the cotton check. The dress has shoulder straps above a camisole type bodice accented below the bust with a band of the fabric, using the check diagonally, as with the shoulder straps and belt.

Married Here Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Greenleaf were married Saturday evening in Boyd Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist Church of Waynesville. Mrs. Greenleaf is the former Miss Dorothy Evelyn Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Rogers of Clyde. RFD 1.

Miss Dorothy Rogers Is Bride Of William Greenleaf

Miss Dorothy Evelyn Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Rogers of Clyde, Route 1, and William Frank Greenleaf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Greenleaf of Saginaw, Michigan, were married Saturday, May 28, at eight o'clock in the evening in the Boyd Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist church here.

The Rev. Russell L. Young, pastor, pronounced the vows, using the double ring ceremony.

The altar of the chapel was decorated with floor baskets containing white gladioli, white delphinium, and ferns. Floor candelabra holding lighted tapers were also used.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Jackie Ammons of Mars Hill, pianist, and Fred Calhoun of Waynesville, vocalist. Miss Ammons played "Nocturne," by Chopin prior to the ceremony and "Ave Maria" while the vows were spoken. Mr. Calhoun sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk crepe street length dress with white accessories. She carried a white prayer book to which was attached an arrangement of gardenias and white roses showered with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Frank Martin of Franklin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore an aqua sheer dress with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

The bridegroom had as his best man Arthur Semmig of Washington, D. C., and ushers were James T. Magher of Charlotte and J. Frank Martin of Franklin.

Mrs. Rogers, mother of the bride, wore a navy sheer with navy and white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a pink gabardine suit with pink and brown accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony at the church a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown on Richland Street. The rooms were decorated throughout with pink and white flowers.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked by white tapers and greenery. Following the cutting of the cake by the bride, Mrs. Frank Fricks of Sylva served the cake.

Mrs. Brown received with the bridal party and Miss Betty Brown presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Miss Sarah Brown, Miss Jackie Ammons, Miss Peggy Noland, Miss Betty Noland and Mrs. Betty Seay.

Mrs. Frank Kirkpatrick was in charge of the bride's book and Mrs. John Carver received in the gift room.

After the reception the bridal couple left for a wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains National Park. For traveling the bride wore an aqua gabardine suit with white accessories and a corsage detached from her prayer book. Upon their return they will reside at 1716 Fl. Davis Street, S. E., Washington, D. C.

The bride is a graduate of the Fines Creek High School and attended Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee and the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. For the past two years she has held a position with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice, Washington, D. C.

The bridegroom attended Arthur Hill High School in Saginaw and upon graduation entered the U. S. Army. He served overseas until July, 1948. He holds a position with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice, Washington, D. C.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Greenleaf of Saginaw, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. James T. Magher and daughter of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fricks of Sylva, and Misses Martha Ellen and Elizabeth Lynch of Mooresville.

Bill Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davis, is at home from Clemson College.

Mrs. Orin Coin and small son, Robin, are visiting relatives in Tampa, Florida.

Twins Are Honored At Birthday Party
