

DUTRA RECEPTION IN NEW YORK

STANDING IN THE first car of the official motoreade, President Eurico Gaspar Dutra (arrow) of Brazil acknowledges the cheers of the crowds lining lower Broadway during his New York reception. He was later greeted at City Hall by Mayor William O'Dwyer. (International)

B. And P. W. Club Holds Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Waynesville Business and Professional Women's Club was held Tuesday evening, May 31, at Waynesville with Mrs. M. G. Stamey, president, presiding.

The following officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. Ethel Richeson in an impressive ceremony: President, Mrs. M. G. Stamey; Vice President, Mrs. J. R. McCracken; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Stahl; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mary Medford; Treasurer, Mrs. Bill Dover.

Mrs. Arthur Paul Evans, a new member of the club, was introduced and all new members present were presented Year Books by Mrs. Stamey who discussed the Club Emblem and its meaning.

The State Convention of Business and Professional Women's Clubs to be held in Moorehead City in June was discussed and delegates to the convention elected.

Mrs. Elaine Hudson, a member of the Club in St. Petersburg, Fla., was a guest at the meeting. The Club voted to continue the Baby Sitting project during the month of June and all proceeds from this project will go to promote worthy civic activities.

Annual reports were given by the President and Committee Chairmen.

Reading Clubs Are Noted In Library Bulletin

Special recognition has been given Miss Margaret Johnston, Haywood County Librarian, for the Vacation Reading Clubs, sponsored by the library for young readers in the community.

The Wilson Library Bulletin, national library publication, carries in its "vacation reading" number for May an account of the Travel Reading Club, conducted by the library last summer, with a half-page illustration.

This is a distinct honor since the Bulletin publishes only accounts of vacation plans of unusual interest. Adding to the honor is the fact that this is the third consecutive year the Bulletin has carried stories of the reading clubs.

As a result of this publicity Miss Johnston has received inquiries from many libraries in North Carolina and other states.

Lois H. Mooney Is Wed To Davis T. Rogers

Mrs. Lois Haynes Mooney, daughter of Mrs. Hascue Haynes and the late Mr. Haynes of Clyde, was wed to Davis T. Rogers of Detroit, Michigan in a ceremony Sunday afternoon at Clayton, Georgia.

The bride was attired in a gabardine suit of pastel blue and her accessories were black. Accompanying the couple were Miss Martha Jean Jenkins and Paul Rogers, brother of the bridegroom, both of Clyde.

The bride, a graduate of Mars Hill College, is assistant cashier at the Haywood County Bank in Canton. Mr. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rogers of Clyde, is employed in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Philman arrived this week from Emporia, Kansas where the former is a student at Emporia College, to visit Mrs. Philman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grahl. They were accompanied by Carol Grahl, who is also a student at Emporia College.

Clifford-Latham Wedding Is Held In Wadesboro

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Betty Farr Latham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Roy Latham of Wadesboro, to L. Frank Fenton Clifford, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fenton Clifford of College Park, N. Y. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock last Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church at Wadesboro with the Rev. T. Sloan Guy officiating.

Mrs. Charles M. Burns, organist, and Miss Elizabeth Lockhart, soloist, of Wadesboro and New York, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory colored lace and tulle with a fitted bodice of lace and a bouffant skirt of tulle. Her chapel length veil was attached to a seed pearl coronet, and her bouquet was of white gardenias and orchids.

Mrs. William Palmer Oliver, Jr. of Washington, D. C. was matron of honor and Miss Annabel Allen of Wadesboro was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Bull of Rutherford, N. J., Miss Anne Landauer of Frederick, Md., Miss Lorraine Kersey of Morristown, N. J., Miss Jane Treadwell of Norfolk, Va., Miss Marjorie Andrews of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Joe Liles, Jr., of Wadesboro.

Little Miss Sarah Jan League, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. League of Waynesville and Jennie Lee Cashion of Wadesboro were flower girls.

The bridegroom had as his best man L. Robert Boland of Montclair, N. J., and ushers were Charles J. Henderson of Charlotte, Dr. Mae Wilkins, cousin of the bride of Greenville, S. C., David Blalock, Pickett Stanback, and Joe Liles, Jr., all of Wadesboro, and Judge James F. Latham, brother of the bride, of Wurzberg, Germany.

The bride, who spent most of her childhood in Waynesville when her parents resided here, is a graduate of Hood College, Frederick, Md., and for the last two years has been employed by American Airlines in Washington. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Naval Academy at Annapolis and is in the submarine service, based at New London, Conn.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Anson Country Club.

Miss Jean Hyatt Receives Diploma At Peace College

Miss Jean Hyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Hyatt of the Eagles Nest Road, was awarded a diploma at graduation exercises at Peace Junior College in Raleigh Monday night.

Miss Hyatt and her mother, who attended the exercises, returned home on Tuesday.

After spending a month with her parents, Miss Hyatt will return to Peace to begin work as secretary to Dr. William C. Pressley, president of the college.

During her student days, Miss Hyatt served as vice president of Sigma Phi Kappa, campus honor society, and was active in the College Glee Club.

Mrs. L. H. Bramlett, Mrs. Roy C. Reese, and Miss Margaret Kathryn Reese left Wednesday for Detroit, Michigan where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. George Allen.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Rainwater will arrive Tuesday for a week's visit with the Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Medlin, Jr. at the Methodist parsonage in Clyde. The Rev. Mr. Rainwater is director of Religious Activities at Duke University in Durham.
