Green Valley Church To Hold Bible School

A five-day vacation Bible school opened today at the new Green Valley Baptist Church on Height Creek.

Blanche Jarvis, the principal, announced last week that classes would be held from 9 a. m. to noon every day, with a picnic to feature the program every Friday.

The night of Sunday, June 12 will be graduation night for the students in the new church building.

In addition to the principal, other members of the faculty are Mrs. Norman Grant, assistant principal, and Mrs. Connie Muse, secretary and treasurer.

Members of the staffs of the various departments are: Beginner - Mrs. Tom Freeman, superintendent; Primary - Mrs. Ralph Queen, superintendent; Junior - Mrs. Herbert Hunter, superintendent; Intermediate - Mrs. Devey Ross, superintendent.

Miss Lorena Troutman and Mrs. Millard Plennors are among the women of the community who have volunteered to serve as assistants to the superintendents.

Children of other communities outside of the Height Creek section, are invited to attend.

Peak movement of North Carolina's 1949 cabbage crop was reached during the second week of May.
