Girl Scout Council Plans Summer Camp

The Hazelwood-Waynesville Girl Scout Council met Thursday night at The Hut to discuss plans for a Girl Scout camp to be held in August. Mrs. Howard Hyatt, new president of the organization, presided.

Through the courtesy of the Champion Fibre Company of Canton, Camp Hope on Pigeon will be available to the girls for a week at a minimum cost. Dr. Mary Michal, superintendent of the District Health Department will give each girl a physical examination, free of charge, before the camp opens.

Troop leaders were asked to contact the members of their troops to determine the number of girls who would be able to attend the camp and Mrs. Gordon Schenck and Mrs. Rankin Ferguson were appointed to serve on the Camp Committee.

Mrs. Bill Prevost and Mrs. William Ray were appointed on the finance committee.

Volunteers are needed to assist with the camp program and to serve as counselors. Anyone who can serve is asked to contact Mrs. Hyatt.

Piano Students To Be Presented In Recital

Miss Evelyn C. Reed will present a group of piano pupils in a recital in the Sunday School room of the First Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, June 7, at 8 p.m.

Presbyterian Pastor And Wife Honored At Party

The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Thrower and their son, Bobby Thrower, were honored Saturday evening at a reception given by the Women of the Hazelwood Presbyterian Church in the Fellowship Hall at the church. The occasion marked the Rev. Mr. Thrower's first year as pastor of the church.

Arrangements of mixed spring flowers were used in decoration of the rooms where the guests assembled.

Receiving in the hall at the entrance to the church were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Summerraw, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Winchester, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Davis. Mrs. Ernest Green, president of the Women of the Church, and Mr. Green greeted the callers in the reception hall and introduced them to the honor guests.

Others receiving were the deacons of the church and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Summerraw, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Summerraw, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worthington.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a silver bowl of snapdragon, flanked by lighted tapers in silver holders. Mrs. L. N. Davis presided at the tea service and Mrs. Seymour Clark poured coffee. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Joseph Kahr, Miss Martha Ann Sumpter, Miss Norma Jean Winchester, Miss Gwendolyn Wyatt, and Miss Edith and Edna Summerraw.

Around one hundred members and friends of the church attended the affair.

Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Medford and daughter, Miss Bebe Medford, are leaving Thursday for Cameron, S. C., to attend the wedding of Dr. Phil Medford and Miss Mildred Houck on Saturday.

Library Notes

County Librarian MARGARET JOHNSTON

You would have been proud of the publicity from our library used in two counties. Recruiting for Librarianship and "Publicity in North Carolina Libraries," at the State Library Meeting held recently in Durham.

All types of publicity were submitted by librarians and some selected for use. From the five sent they selected for use as follows:

- 1. Cherokee Indian Reading Club
- 2. Travel Reading Club
- 3. Symphony exhibit
- 4. Hospital service
- 5. Pages from our scrapbook.

Booklist - Waynesville families are reading:

Book week lists:
 Special feature article written by Mrs. Erika Way Gwyn.

In addition our two Scrapbooks on Publicity were used. If you have never seen these two books, you should take time to look them over. We are very proud of them and grateful for the wonderful help of the Waynesville Mountaineer in our efforts to tell you people about our Library Activities.

Several times at the meeting I was asked "How do you do it all," I had to respond "I don't, for I have a good staff and some wonderful volunteers."

We don't know what we would do without Mr. Ben Collett, who helps out each Wednesday afternoon in our Hospital visits and Mrs. Martha Stringfield and Rita Grant, who types once a week. Do you know anyone with an hour or so to spare?

Mrs. Jack Moser left Sunday for Atlanta to spend a few days with her daughter, Mr. Jackie Sue Moser, who is a student at Agnes Scott College. She will return with her daughter on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ella Hilliard of Raleigh is the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. H. Keller.
