Miss Phyllis Marie Caldwell Is Bride of Charles Whitman

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Caldwell of Clyde, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Phyllis Marie Caldwell, to Charles Davis Whitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Whitman of Waynesville.
The wedding took place at the First Presbyterian church on Saturday, May 21, at four o'clock in the afternoon, with the pastor, the Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson officiating at the double ring ceremony. Only members of the two families and a few close friends were present.
The altar of the church was decorated with ferns interspersed with floor baskets of white gladioli and lighted cathedral candles.
A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Bette Hannah, organist, and Miss Mozelle Limer, soloist. Prior to the ceremony Miss Hannah played, "To A Wild Rose," by MacDowell, "Always," by Berlin, "I Love Thee," by Grieg, "Traumeri," by Schumann and "I Love You Truly," by Bond. Miss Limer sang, "O Promise Me," and "Because." The traditional wedding marches were used and Miss Hannah played "Clair de Lune," while the vows were spoken.
The bride and bridegroom entered the church together and there were no attendants. The bride wore a white suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of white orchids.
Johnny and Jimmy Whitman, brothers of the bridegroom served as ushers.
Immediately after the ceremony at the church the couple left for a wedding trip in the Eastern part of the state. They are now residing on Richland Street in Waynesville.
Mrs. Whitman is a graduate of the Clyde high school and received nurse's training at the Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville. At present she is on the nursing staff of the Haywood County Hospital.
Mr. Whitman is a graduate of Coll Springs high school in Forest City. He served for four years with the Navy in the Pacific theatre and is currently associated with his father at Whitman's Bakery.
