Strawberry Festival

STRAWBERRY SALAD . . . A luscious treat

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If it's women you're entertaining while strawberries are in season they'll enjoy that luscious fruit in a salad. If there are going to be men around you might combine the berries with rice to make a favorite pudding. Here are the recipes for both dishes:

STRAWBERRY SALAD

Ingredients: 2/3 cup mayonnaise, 1/2 cup cream (whipped), 1/4 teaspoon mint extract, 1 tablespoon pineapple juice, 1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar, 1 quart strawberries, 3 or 4 bananas, juice of 1/2 lemon, 1 can pineapple chunks, chicory.

Method: Fold mayonnaise into whipped cream along with mint extract, pineapple juice and sugar; chill. Meanwhile wash and hull strawberries. Peel and cut bananas into finger lengths and dip in lemon juice. Drain pineapple. Line bowl with chicory, pile strawberries in center, arrange banana fingers on one side and pineapple cubes on the other. Heap mayonnaise mixture on strawberries or pass in separate bowl. 6 servings.

STRAWBERRY MERINGUE RICE PUDDING

Ingredients: 1/4 cup uncooked rice, 2 cups milk, 2 eggs, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 cup sliced strawberries, 6 whole strawberries.

Method: Add rice to milk in upper part of a 1 1/2 quart double boiler and cook over hot water until rice is soft, or about 50 minutes. Separate eggs; beat egg yolks until very thick and light colored. Gradually beat in one-quarter cup sugar and the salt. Add egg yolk mixture slowly to rice and stir constantly. Continue cooking for about 2 minutes. Mix three-quarters cup sugar and water in saucepan; cook until mixture spins a thread, about 228° F. on a candy thermometer. Add syrup slowly to stiffly beaten egg whites. Continue beating meringue until mixture is thick. Beat in lemon juice. Reserve about a third of the meringue for topping. Add rest of meringue and sliced strawberries to custard cups. Top each pudding with a spoonful of the meringue and a fresh strawberry. Chill until ready to serve. 6 servings.

Hiroshima Minister To Speak 300 Attending Student Regional Conference

Getting under way Sunday a south-wide Student Regional Conference opened at the Lake Junaluska Assembly for a week's session.

More than 300 student leaders from southern college campuses in nine states are registered, including persons responsible for student program planning and professional religious workers.

Both church-related and tax-supported and private institutions of learning are represented in the attendance.

The Rev. Dr. Harvey C. Brown of Nashville, head of student work in the General Board of Education of The Methodist Church, is director. Assisting Dr. Brown as faculty members are Dr. George F. Thomas of Princeton University, N. J.; Dr. Mack Stokes, Emory University, Georgia; Bishop Paul H. Kern of Nashville, Tenn.; the Rev. Kyoshi Tanimoto, Hiroshima, Japan; and David B. Sageser, dean.

The importance of youth, in religious work will be the forefront, June 12-18, when this church center will be the site for a Youth Caravan Training School.

The school will be held at Shackleford Hall and approximately 100 young people will receive intensive training before going out in teams to work with local pastors and young people in promoting Christian life and work.

The Rev. Hoover Rupert will be in charge of the Caravan Training School, which is one of a Methodist-wide system to be held in the several jurisdictions of the denomination.

Newly elected officers of the Haywood County Methodist Youth Fellowship assumed their new duties at a youth rally here Sunday night.

Retiring President William Manious introduced the new officers as follows: president, James Galoway, Waynesville; vice-president, Geraldine Fish, Clyde; secretary, Joan Reno, Canton; treasurer, Wayne Howell, Waynesville.

Chairmen of Commissions are: worship and evangelism, Mary Cris Gates, Canton; world friendship, Peggy Nolan, Crabtree; community service, John Terrell, Lake Junaluska; recreation, Kathleen Cook, Waynesville, and Rosanna Duckett, Canton; pianist, Dorothy Gidney, Canton; adult counselor, Mrs. Elizabeth Styles, Canton.

The Rev. Wade Weldon of Henderson, Ky., and the Rev. Dr. E. H. Blackard of Gastonia, N. C., will be Sunday preachers in the auditorium on Sunday, June 12, speaking at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., respectively.

Dr. Blackard will also be heard Monday evening, June 13.
