Upper Crabtree To Hold Chicken Supper Saturday

By HERSCHELL ROGERS
Mountaineer Correspondent
A chicken supper will be held at Crabtree-Iron Duff School at 7 p. m. Saturday for the benefit of the Upper Crabtree Community Development Program.
The proceeds will go into the community treasury to help finance the projects for improvement.
Current plans are to concentrate on the development of the community's recreational facilities. This work is being pushed by the recreation committee headed by Chairman Weldon Sutton.
One of the features of the well-balanced entertainment program that has been prepared for the supper will be the singing of Ray Parker and his quartet.
Community Chairman Jack Rogers will preside.

Miss Medford Is Feted At Party Wednesday

Miss Peggy Dee Medford, bride-elect of Richard Paul Erwin, was honored at a miscellaneous shower given Wednesday afternoon by her cousin, Mrs. Fred Medford of Clyde and her aunts, Mrs. Wiley Crawford of Enka and Mrs. Grace Gale of Crabtree. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Charlie Hill, grandmother of the bride-elect in Crabtree.
A color motif of pink and white was observed in the party appointments and the dining table, which was covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a bowl of pink roses.
Around thirty guests attended the party.
Miss Medford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray Medford of Crabtree. Mr. Erwin is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas E. Erwin of Bethel.

Checked Cotton Gown

Cool and pretty.

By VERA WINSTON

WITH US AGAIN is a night-gown that is so pretty it might double as an evening dress. This one has a pretty camisole top, so popular just now, and the halter straps form a halter neckline. The midriff is form-fitting. The skirt, using the yellow and white checked sheer cotton on the bias, is gathered at the waist, and a string belt marks the base of the snug midriff.

Joint Hosts Entertain At Bridge Dinners

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Whitener Prevost were joint hosts of two bridge dinners given on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost in Hazelwood.

On each occasion quantities of mixed summer flowers were used in decorating the rooms.

Tuesday evening the guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. DuBrewil, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Long, and Mrs. L. M. Richeson.

High score awards went to Mr. and Mrs. Long and bingo prizes were won by Mrs. DuBrewil and Ben Colkitt.

On Wednesday evening the guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Turner, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Grayden Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Woody, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ray, Mrs. Hilliard Atkins, and Miss Dorothy Richeson.

Prizes went to Mrs. L. K. Barber and Mr. Bowles, who held high scores, and Mrs. Richard Barber and Dr. Roberson, who won the bingo.

4-H Dress Review Will Be Held Saturday Morning

A Dress Review will be held by 4-H Club girls Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Little Court Room on the 3rd floor of the Court House.

The models will be divided into junior and senior groups and will show clothes which they have made in their 4-H work. The winner will be given an expense-paid trip to Raleigh to attend the 4-H Short Course, August 1 to 5.

Miss Elise DeLozier, assistant home agent, will be in charge of the Review and has asked that all contestants be at the court house by 10 a. m.

All 4-H members are requested to attend.

D.A.C. Chapter Has Meeting In Hendersonville

The newly organized chapter of the Daughters of American Colonists, Unaka Chapter, held a luncheon meeting Friday at Crystal Springs Lodge in Laurel Park, Hendersonville. The chapter regent, Mrs. R. N. Barber, Sr., of Waynesville, presided.

This is the second chapter to be organized within the state. The name Unaka is the Cherokee Indian word for "The Great Smoky Mountains."

The by-laws of the chapter were accepted and chairmen of various committees were named. The work of the group will follow along the same line as the National Society.

Visiting officials at the meeting included Mrs. Hadden of High Point, state regent, and Mrs. J. A. Elliott of Charlotte, past state regent.

In addition to Mrs. Barber, members from Waynesville who were present were Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sr., and Mrs. J. W. Killian, corresponding secretary.

Others attending were from Asheville, Weaverville, Charlotte, High Point, Brevard and Hendersonville.

The next meeting will be held in Asheville.

John Howell Is Honored On Father's Day

Mr. John Howell entertained with a Father's Day dinner in her home at Cove Creek Sunday, in honor of her husband.

The guests included the following members of the family: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chambers and children, Howell and Mary Anna Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wilson and children, Johnny and Sheila Wilson, of Waynesville, Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Morrow and Miss Phyllis Morrow of Cove Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Franklin, and Miss Clara Bowers.

Mr. Howell was presented a shower of gifts after dinner was served.

Other guests who called during the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Howell and daughters of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. Creed Welch and daughter of Clyde, Mrs. Frank Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jackson also of Clyde, Mrs. Robert Goffiner of Detroit, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Coleman and daughters of Brevard, Mrs. Hardy Nelson of Jonathan Creek, the Rev. Ben Fugate of Dellwood, and the Rev. Mr. Boten of Dellwood.

Five generations of the Howell family were represented at the event and posed for photographs. They included Kimsey Howell, 96, father of John Howell; William Howell, son of Kimsey Howell, and his daughter, Mrs. Creed Welch; Mrs. Welch's daughter, Mrs. Bowers Gaffigan, and Mrs. Gaffigan's seven-month-old son.

Story Hour To Be Held Friday

The regular weekly Story Hour for older members of the Vacation Reading Club sponsored by the Library will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Margaret Johnston, librarian, will tell the story of "Apples of Contentment," by Howard Pyle.

Crisp Cotton

Pink and black resort dress.

By VERA WINSTON

PINK AND BLACK checked sheer cotton is the timely choice for a nice day-into-evening dress and jacket for informal summer wear. The frock has a strapless top with crossed-over gathered all-line. The skirt is draped bust-line. The black velvet belt has a swashbuckle flared end. The tiny jacket is lined in black and has cap sleeves. It closes with three black buttons. This is a good little resort number too.

Garden Club Met Wednesday

The Richland Garden Club held its June meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bonner Ray with Mrs. M. G. Stamey and Miss Nancy Killian as associate hostesses.

Mrs. J. L. Elwood, presided during the business session which was held after luncheon.

The program was presented by H. H. Pressley, representative of the Coca-Cola Company, who showed slides with a recorded lecture on Flower Arrangements.

Flower arrangements were exhibited by members of the club and blue ribbons went to Mrs. J. M. Long, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, Mrs. James R. Boyd, Mrs. John Smathers, Jr., Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., and Miss Katharine Reed.

Group Leaves For Music Camp

Two-piece Costume

Blue blouse and rose skirt.

By VERA WINSTON

COTTON is used to dramatic advantage in this young and gay two-piece costume. Deep but bright navy blue is used for the blouse that has a melon neck and curved cuffs on the diminutive sleeves. The blouse buttons in back. The skirt is of rose colored cotton which makes a pretty color scheme. It has unpressed box pleats all around and the waistline is built up a bit, allowing a navy cord to slip through and tie in a neat bow in front.
