Miss Tatham Is Bride Of T. D. Howell

Miss Eloise Maxine Tatham, daughter of Mrs. Leolah Tatham of Canton, was married Sunday to Thad Denton Howell. The ceremony took place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gaffney in Canton. The Rev. W. T. Medlin officiated.

The vows were spoken before an arrangement of white gladiolus ferns and candles, and a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Dorothy June Gidney and Mrs. Carroll Cordell.

The bride wore a street-length, two-piece suit of ice blue crepe with white accessories and carried a bouquet of painted daisies and baby's breath. She wore a garland of daisies fastened in the back with ice blue tulle. Her only ornament was an heirloom pin of diamonds and blue sapphires belonging to her grandmother and worn by all the brides in the family for three generations.

Mrs. Richard Troy Gaddy, niece of the bride, wore yellow pique and a garland of shasta daisies. She was the bride's only attendant. Max Tatham, brother of the bride, was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gaffney. The bridal table was covered with a handmade crocheted table cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom was flanked by a cascade of garden flowers. After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Atlantic City.

Mrs. Howell is a graduate of Georgia Baptist Hospital in Atlanta and holds a position with the Champion Paper and Fibre Company as plant nurse. Mr. Howell is

Mr. And Mrs. Ivey Are Honored At Lake Junaluska

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ivey of Charlotte who make their summer home at Lake Junaluska, were honored Wednesday afternoon at a large Max and Mable party given by the Junaluska Women's Club and the Cottage Owners Association. The affair which was held at the Terrace Hotel, was designed to pay special honor to the important place the Ivey family holds in the affection of the summer colony. Mr. Ivey's interest in the progress of this church center is manifested in many ways. His famous gardens are show places, always open to the public, he supervises and maintains a well equipped, modern playground for the children who come to the Lake, and he and his family are foremost in the social and religious life of this church center.

Hundreds of persons called during the tea hours from 3:30 to 5 o'clock.

For the occasion, the wide verandas, sun parlor and reception rooms of the recently redecorated Terrace Hotel were decorated with summer flowers. Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table. Receiving with the guests of honor were Dr. F. S. Love, Superintendent of the Assembly, and Mrs. Love; Joseph Chamberlain, manager of the Terrace Hotel and Mrs. Chamberlain; Mrs. R. M. Hawkins, president of the Woman's Club and Dr. Hawkins; Dr. J. O. Smith, president of the Cottage Owners Association, and Mrs. Smith; Mrs. W. E. Carter, treasurer, Woman's Club, and Mr. Carter; O. P. Loyal, vice-president, Cottage Owners Association, and Mrs. Loyal; Mrs. Leland Moore, vice-president, Woman's Club; and Mrs. I. W. Walker, secretary, Cottage Owners Association.

Members of the Terrace staff receiving at the door were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McCraw, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Riedel, Mrs. Evelyn Halsler, and Miss Mae Ramsey.

Serving the guests were: Mrs. Ben Tarbutton, Miss Florence Alvey, Misses Marie and Bruce McDonald, Mrs. Lucy Simson, Miss Jane Loyal, Mrs. William J. Strohecker, Miss Mary Holler, Mrs. William David, and young girls who are guests at the Terrace.

Navy Man and Family Visiting Relatives

Navy Ship Serviceman Arthur R. Coward and his wife, who were raised in Waynesville, and their three daughters are visiting the seaman's father, Fred E. Coward, at his home on Hill Street.

For the World War II veteran, this is the first visit to his home town in two years.

He and his wife, the former Bonnie Rhinehart, were students at Waynesville Township High School.

Mr. Coward plans to stay here on his leave from his Norfolk, Va., station, until July 14.

During his six years' Navy service, the veteran was on war duty in both the Atlantic and South Pacific aboard a destroyer.

He and his wife have been living in Norfolk for the last three years where he serves aboard the U. S. S. Amphion, a repair ship.

Mrs. James Michaels, of Durham, is here for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell.

Miss Peggy Dee Medford Weds Richard Paul Erwin

Miss Peggy Dee Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray Medford of Crabtree, and Richard Paul Erwin, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas E. Erwin of Bethel were married at the Rock Spring Baptist Church in Crabtree last Friday afternoon.

The Rev. Mr. Erwin, father of the bridegroom, and the Rev. Ray Chambers, pastor of the church, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

A background of ferns and evergreens was used to decorate the church, with candelabra and tall vases of white flowers placed among the greenery.

Miss Grace Erwin, organist, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Edgar Burnette, vocalist, gave a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Burnette sang "Because," "Always," and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Erwin played the traditional marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white marquisette fashioned with a round ruffled bertha of chantilly lace, etched in seed pearls. A deep insertion of rows of the same lace ruffles fell in a cascade from the tight fitted bodice to the bottom of the skirt, which extended in a full train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a coronet of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white roses, centered with gardenias, and showered with lilies of the valley and white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Ward Hawkins, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of Nile green taffeta, and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers in pastel shades tied with ribbon matching her gown.

Miss Emily McCracken, Miss Thomasene Noland, Miss Nina Medford and Miss Barbara Best, all cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of orchid taffeta, fashioned along lines similar to the gown of the matron of honor, with wreaths of matching flowers in their hair. They carried arm bouquets of mixed pastel flowers tied with harmonizing ribbons. Little Marie Davis, cousin of the bride, of Crabtree, was the flower girl. She wore a miniature model of the gowns of the other attendants in a light green shade of taffeta.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Harmon Erwin. Serving as ushers were Troy Erwin, also a brother, Max Thompson, Wallace Crawford, and Lawrence Medford.

Mrs. Medford, mother of the bride, wore a navy dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Erwin, mother of the bridegroom, wore an afternoon dress of grey butcher linen with harmonizing accessories and a corsage of purple orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony at the church the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at their home. Assisting were Mrs. Weaver McCracken, Mrs. Carl Medford, Mrs. Wiley Crawford, Mrs. Fred Medford, Mrs. Ned Tucker, Miss Audrey Sandford, Miss Lillian Knox Medford, Miss

Mrs. Chamblee Is Hostess For Francis Cove Club

Mrs. C. H. Chamblee was hostess for the July meeting of the Francis Cove Home Demonstration Club which was held Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Margaret McElroy, vice-president, presided.

The program included a demonstration by Miss Mary of "More Livable Homes," and a report by Mrs. Henry Francis, craft leader. Plans were made for a craft workshop for the members at which time metal and copper crafts will be taught.

Arrangements were also made for the club to attend the Southern Highlanders Handicraft Fair at Gatlinburg on Saturday, July 30, to study various handicrafts.

The members decided to hold their annual club picnic on Thursday night, July 21, at the home of Mrs. M. G. Head.

Following adjournment the hostess served an ice cream course.

Judge and Mrs. Frank Smathers of Miami, Fla., expect to arrive about the fifteenth of this month to spend several weeks at their summer home here.

Novella Woods, Miss Hilda Best, and Miss Linda Lee McCracken, following the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip to an unannounced destination.

For traveling the bride wore a pink gabardine suit with white accessories and a corsage detached from her wedding bouquet.

Sacred Concert Opens Music Week At Lake

An excellent program, splendidly performed, marked the opening event of Music Week and delighted a large Junaluska Assembly audience Tuesday night.

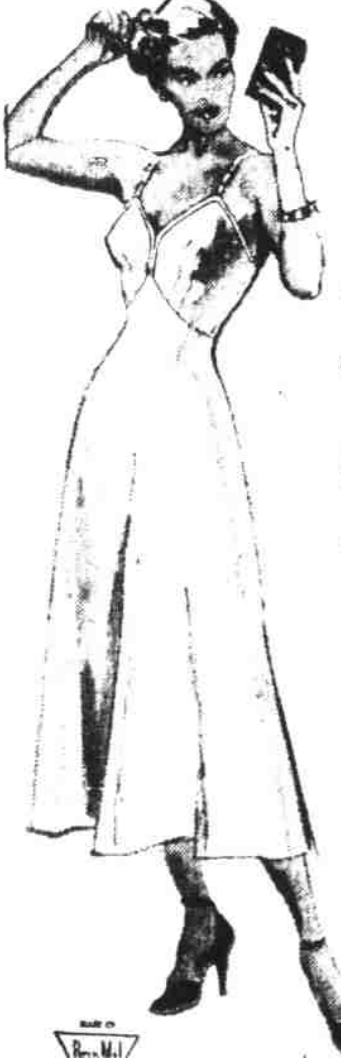

Presented under the auspices of the Institute of Church Music, in session at the Lake under the leadership of Dean Clarence Dickinson, of Union Theological Seminary, the concert was the first sacred concert by the Lake Junaluska Ensemble under the direction of Cyrus Daniel of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn. In addition to Dr. Daniel, organist and director, the ensemble was composed of Katherine Fryor and Anne Atkinson, sopranos, Nashville; Sonia Young and Dorothy Hailey, altos, Nashville; Albert McClanahan and Erdman Palmore, tenors, Springfield, Tenn., and Durham; Frank Love and James Gamble, baritones, Atlanta, Ga., and Dothan, Ala.

Program highlights included an organ solo, MacDowell's "A. D. MDCXX," by Dr. Daniel; soprano solo, "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains," Miss Fryor; "A Voice in the Wilderness," Mr. Love; "Seek Ye the Lord," Junaluska Ensemble; Malotte's "The Lord Is My Shepherd," by Miss Young and the soprano and tenor duet, Stainer's "Love Divine," sung by Miss Atkinson and Mr. McClanahan.

Auditorium programs to be presented during the remainder of the week by the Institute of Church Music choirs include: Thursday evening, Anthem Service, based on music of the great religious movements, Friday evening, July 8, Oratorio Service, featuring two sacred cantatas, "Seven Last Words," by DuBois, and "Rejoice, Beloved Christians," by Bostehude. A Hymn Festival Sunday evening will conclude the series.
