Tea Is Given
In Honor Of
Mrs. M. W. Reed

Mrs. Minthorne W. Reed, whose marriage to Colonel Reed took place in Atlanta on June 24, was honored at a tea given by her sister-in-law, Mrs. James W. Reed, Jr., on Friday afternoon at her home on Woodley Heights.

Mixed arrangements of summer flowers were used in decorating the living rooms and white flowers were used in the dining room.

Receiving with the hostess were the honor guest and Mrs. James W. Reed, Sr.

During the first hour Mrs. Hilliard Atkins greeted the guests and Mrs. Howard Hyatt received at the entrance to the dining room. Mrs. Felix Stovall and Mrs. Jack Messer presided at the tea table which was covered with a damask cloth and centered with an arrangement of white gladioli, asters, and sweet peas, flanked by white candles in silver holders.

During the second hour Mrs. Whitener Prevost was in the entrance hall. Mrs. Harold Massie directed the guests to the dining room, and Mrs. W. F. Swift and Mrs. W. A. Hyatt presided at the tea table.

Assisting in serving during the afternoon were Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Jr., Mrs. David Hyatt, Mrs. Tom Lee, Mrs. Boyd Owen, Mrs. Carleton Weatherby, Mrs. Robert Breese, Mrs. William Medford, Mrs. Paul Davis, Miss Sally Stovall, and Miss Jackie Sue Messer.

Around seventy-five guests called during the hours from three to five o'clock.

Iron Duff Home
Club Meets With
Mrs. T. C. Davis

The Iron Duff Home Demonstration Club held its July meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. C. Davis, with Mrs. F. E. Chambers, vice-president, in charge.

During the business session the group planned to hold the annual club picnic at the home of Mrs. Hardy Caldwell on Friday, August 12. The members voted to work as a club for a perfect attendance certificate at Achievement Day and requested a workshop on Lamp Conversion at a date to be announced later.

Miss Mary Cornwell, new home agent, was introduced and presented a demonstration on More Livable Homes.

Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rotha and daughter, Gretchen, of Charlotte, arrived Saturday for a visit to Mr. Rotha's mother and sister, Mrs. Harry Rotha and Miss Tillie Rotha. Mr. Rotha returned to Charlotte on Monday, leaving his family to spend two weeks.

Miss Whitted
Is Married To
Pfc. Hendrix

Miss Betty Sue Whitted, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Whitted of Canton, became the bride of Pfc. Ernest Eugene Hendrix, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hendrix of Candler, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Rockwood Methodist Church, with the Rev. George B. Culbreth officiating.

The church was decorated with greenery, tall baskets of mixed summer flowers, and candelabra holding white cathedral tapers.

Mrs. Charles Brackett, pianist, and Hilliard Morgan, vocalist, both of Asheville, presented the wedding music.

The bride wore a white suit with navy and white accessories and carried a white prayer book topped with a purple orchid and tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Rachel Lewis of Canton, maid of honor, wore a white suit and carried a bouquet of pink gladioli tied with white satin streamers.

The bridesmaids were Misses Kathleen and Gearleen Roberson of Candler, twin cousins of the bride. They also wore white suits and carried bouquets of pink gladioli tied with white satin streamers.

Linda Whitted, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white taffeta and dropped petals from a white basket.

Pfc. Jack Waters served as best man, Earl Hannah, as groomsmen, and ushers were Arnold Robinson and William Lowe.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with an informal outdoor reception.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at Pope Field, where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Air Force.
