"Finally, I offered $19,000 in eash and ball players. They still said no, so I gave up.

On the way back to the hotel, was afaraid that Burnett would think I had lost my mind, offering that much money for a guy who was going to play in Class AA ball. I figured he'd fire me.

'Instead of that, he rode along for a while without saying a word. And finally he told me: 'Trouble with you, Bobby, is that you worked too long for those Browns. You're too conservative
