Auxiliary Of Grace Church Has Meeting

The general meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Grace Episcopal Church was held in the Parish House Tuesday night.

After a brief business session the rector, the Rev. Edwin H. Gould, talked in an interesting way on the National Council of the Church.

An outstanding feature of the meeting was a musical program presented by Miss Betty Franklin, pianist, and Mrs. A. C. Jones, soloist.

An informal tea followed the program with the following members of the Margaret Marshall Chapter serving punch and cookies: Mrs. Dain Cross, Mrs. Leu Hill, Mrs. David Felmet, and Miss Mary Ray.

A number of out-of-town guests were present.

Saffords Honored With Fines Creek Surprise Picnic

By MRS. FURMAN NOLAND, Mountaineer Correspondent

The members of the Fines Creek Home Demonstration Club, teachers, and close friends gave Prof. and Mrs. Fred L. Safford a surprise picnic last Saturday on the lawn of their home.

Mrs. F. Rogers, the club president, presided at the event which featured talks by C. B. McCree, head of the Haywood County Farm Bureau, and Frank Kirkpatrick.

Prof. and Mrs. Safford were presented with a beautiful gift by the people who had come to honor them.

The picnic was in the nature of a farewell party for the educator and his wife, who are moving to another section of the county after having made their home in Fines Creek community for the last 19 years.

Professor Safford resigned as principal of the Fines Creek School when the spring term ended, and later accepted an appointment as principal at Crabtree-tron Duff School.

Professor and Mrs. Safford are going to be missed very much.

Dance To Be Held Saturday At Piedmont

The second in a series of summer dances sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi society will be held at the Piedmont Hotel Saturday night.

The dance will start at 9 p. m. and will continue until 1 a. m. with music by Eva Boatwright and her orchestra.

Advance tickets at $1.00 each are on sale at the Firestone Store, the Ladye Fayre Beauty Shop, the Waynesville Florist, Charlie's Place and Bryson and Miller Motor Sales. Tickets at the door will be $1.25.

Proceeds from the event will go to the many charities of the sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hume of Chicago, Illinois arrived Sunday for a visit to the latter's mother, Mrs. Sam Jones. They went to Charlotte yesterday to visit Mr. Hume's parents and will return to Waynesville on Sunday.

Early Fall Suggestions Autumn Toggery

The trim cut-lapel coat is very new and just right for fall wear. The smart bag is a perfect accessory.

This cape-suit is exactly right for those first crisp days.

Varied Program Arranged For Saunook Field Day

By JEAN HALL, Mountaineer Correspondent

Events for both field and table athletes will be among the features of the Saunook community Field Day which will start at 1 p. m. Saturday at Robert Welch's farm near the church.

Contestants will compete for honors in pie, watermelon, banana and cracker eating, and in the more strenuous athletics including relay races, broad and high jumps, 50-yard dash, a softball game between a boys' team and a girls' team, ball throwing, and egg, potato, and sack races.

Besides these, the well-balanced four-hour program of entertainment and recreation includes singing and variety performances.

Community Chairman Dick Barber extends invitations to everyone to attend this Community Development event.

Miss Frazier Is Married To Fred Calhoun, Jr.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary Louise Frazier, daughter of William R. Frazier and the late Mrs. Frazier, to Fred B. Calhoun, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Calhoun.

The ceremony took place in Clayton, Ga., last Monday evening.

The bride was graduated this spring from the Waynesville High School and was an outstanding student in the Home Economics Department.

Mr. Calhoun also graduated from the Waynesville High School this spring. He was prominent in the musical program of the school, having been a member of the mixed chorus, the male quartet, and the band. Last year he was awarded the Lion's Club medal as the outstanding music student among the boys in the high school.
