Hot Weather Ensemble

Suit dress of rayon.

By VERA WINSTON

ONE OF THE sartorial booms this summer is the suit dress made of rayon that is practically wrinkle-proof and that manages to stay crisp looking throughout a hot, busy day. This one is in pin-checked dark gray, a pattern that closely resembles its fine worsted original. It has a convertible collar, three-button closing, and flapped patch pockets. The skirt is straight. The outfit can be worn with or without a blouse.

Miss Betty Ann Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howell, left this morning for Gadsden, Ala., where she will visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dawkins.

Davis-Dean Wedding Held In Franklin

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dean of Franklin have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Maxine Dean, to Glenn Harding Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Davis of Waynesville, in a wedding ceremony solemnized Saturday afternoon in the Franklin Methodist Church.

The Rev. Charles F. Parker, pastor of the church and pastor of the bride, was the officiating minister, using the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with ferns interspersed with tall baskets of white gladioli.

Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, organist, presented a program of wedding music, and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The ushers were Paul Lee Plemmons and Clayton Ramsey, both of Franklin.

The couple entered the church together. The bride was attired in a white street-length dress fashioned in princess style with sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. She wore a white picture hat and long white gloves. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls and her shoulder corsage was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Dean, mother of the bride, wore a black lace and crepe costume, with black accessories. Her flowers were white rosebuds.

Mrs. Davis, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black crepe dress and black accessories. Her corsage was also white rosebuds.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of the Franklin High School and attended Brevard College, Brevard. She is also a graduate of Blanton's Business College, Asheville, and is now employed by the Southern Paper Products Company, Asheville.

Mr. Davis is a graduate of the Crabtree-Iron Duff High School, and during World War II he spent 18 months in the Marine Corps, much of this time in China. He is now attending Blanton's Business College, Asheville.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Davis left on a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Asheville.

Honored

Mrs. E. N. Howell of Swannanoa was named chairman of high school service of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers at its annual convention in St. Louis. This places Mrs. Howell on the board of managers of the National Congress. She and Russell M. Grumman of Chapel Hill, president of the North Carolina PTA Congress, are the only North Carolinians on the National Board. Both have visited here many times.

THE KID ST

Two old favorites are back you'll love them. Brilliantly colored sweet startlingly beautiful and delicious Old-fashioned paper lanterns in green and white. In from Japan; a lovely outdoor summer parties. People used to have them on their lawns and drives with them, using dozens and hundreds; but one used with delightful effect. Many other novelties for young and old.
