MRS. CORA CLEVINGER

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Florence Clevinger, 59, of Canton, Route 1, who died Friday at the home, were held in Canton Baptist Church yesterday. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Cemetery Work To Be Discussed At Dellwood Meet

By Mrs. CREW NEEDY, Mountaineer Correspondent

Dellwood residents will hold a Community Development Program meeting at 5 p.m. at the cemetery Thursday to plan for further beautification work.

After the meeting, they will hold a picnic supper.

The job of improving the cemetery started some time ago. A road has been built around it, and the land has been levelled in some places.

In the event of rain, the meeting will be held in the Dellwood Baptist Church.

J. A. Singleton, the community chairman.

MORE ABOUT Festival

will be among those competing in the contests.

Bus Fletcher and his Bent Creek Ranch square dance team will be defending their title in the finals on Saturday night. Besides the championship, the winner also will get a loving cup.

They face tough opposition from Sam Queen and his Soco Gap team, the Stone Mountain dancers, the Pigeon Valley team, and the dancer from the American Legion post of Sylva, the Farmers Ball, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Hamilton Mountain, the Connamara Farm team, the Jump-off Rock, Conness-lee Falls, Recreation dance, Smoky Mountain, and the Tuckaseige team.

The directors also have enlisted some of America's most famous names in ballad singing and string music.

Among the star performers will be Smiling Red Raper, the singing school teacher, accompanied by Joe Prebley and his Carolina Mountain Boys.

On the program with him will be George Pagram, the Randleman artist who won the Carolina Folk Festival at the University of North Carolina; the Blalock sisters, James Haynie, Wiley Morris, Joe Preasley, the veteran fiddler; V. R. Sturgill, Taft Crawford, Cecil Riddle, Rusty Waldroup, and Johnny Rhymer, among others.

Judging the square dance and string band contests will be J. J. Bailey of Asheville, a chief of railroad detectives; Roger Ferguson, Maggie School principal; and Canton Postmaster Wade Hill.

Some of the top entrants who will be competing for the string band honors are the Haywood Ramblers, Carpenter Family, Soco Gap band, Uncle Walter Davis and his Mt. Mitchell Ramblers, the Blue Ridge Partners, Gus Johnson's band, the Carolina Mountain Boys, and Farmers' Ball band, and the Vernon Rogers band.

The beauty contest for the crown of 1949 Festival Queen will be another bright feature of the Saturday night program. Reigning over the contest will be last year's queen, Mary Osborne.

So far, 15 of Haywood's loveliest girls have become candidates for the honor.

Margaret Robinson, Judy Patton, Martha Raye Smathers, Patsy Sue Hemphill, Dorothy Norris, Mary Ann Dudley, Barbara McKinney, Frances Howell, Nancy Medford, Ruby Smathers, Judy Davis, Betty Pardue, Betty Poe, Selda Mae Rhinehart, and Anita Brooks.

The job of naming the queen will be the responsibility of Mrs. Ruth Franklin, Mrs. Lucy Collier and Allen E. Brown, district VAW commander, all of Hendersonville. The girl named for the honor by these judges will be awarded a 17-jewel wrist watch. The runner-up will receive a set of ear rings and a necklace, and the other contestants will each be given a locket.

Besides the watch, the Festival queen also will be given a fitting suit by Winner's Caution store.

The Festival will close Monday afternoon with a singing concert, scheduled to start at two o'clock.

UNIVERSAL 2-SPEED WASHER

TWO SPEEDS FOR EVERY WASHING NEED

FEATURES

- ★ Exclusive SPEEDSELECTOR
- ★ The tall, upright handle on the control panel is the new, exclusive UNIVERSAL Speedselector. Turn it to the left for LOW-SPEED gentle washing action. Turn Speedselector to the right, for quick HIGH-SPEED washing according to the pieces you want to wash.
- ★ UNIVERSAL-LOVELL New Super-Safe WRINGER
- ★ In addition to "Release Bar" protection at the feeding zone, this new Super-Safe Wringer has the patented "Control-O-Roll" feature. A light pull or tug on the clothes stops all wringer action. Complete safety without stopping to think!
- ★ NO WRINGER LATCH! THIS WRINGER LOCKS AUTOMATICALLY IN FIVE POSITIONS.
- ★ TIME-A-MATIC TIMER
- ★ No more overwashing or tedious watching! This electrically operated TIME-A-MATIC Timer is on the control panel just below the SPEEDSELECTOR. It is moisture-proof and shock-proof. Simply turn the handle past "5" and then set for any time from one to fifteen minutes. It will shut current off automatically when time is up.
- ★ SAFE-T-SWITCH
- ★ This Switch is placed directly below the TIME-A-MATIC TIMER on the control panel. In case of overload or stalled wringer, SAFE-T-SWITCH shuts off the motor instantly - protecting both machine and operator. It also guards against the nuisance of blown house fuses. To continue washer operation simply reset "SAFE-T-SWITCH."
