Israel Confesses Sins

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Psalms 32; 51; 86:5; 130:1-5.

When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long. For day and night Thy hand was heavy upon me.

I acknowledged my sin unto Thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid: I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord, and Thou forgavest.

Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation. Then will I teach transgressors Thy ways, and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

For Thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive, and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon Thee. MEMORY VERSE—Psalm 86:5.

Israel Confesses Sins in Psalms

DAVID BEGS FORGIVENESS FOR TRANSGRESSIONS

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL. IN THESE DAYS of post-war restlessness and crime, when every newspaper tells of theft, assault and murder, it is difficult to remember that the world is still in God's hands. Those who are committing these sins are still God's children, and they may seek forgiveness and yet be saved and become useful citizens. King David, you remember, sinned grievously. He did not kill with his own hands, but he caused the husband of Bathsheba to be slain and so was guilty of murder. David repented his sin and begged for forgiveness in a Psalm we have for part of our lesson today. Bathsheba was the beautiful woman to whom David, the king, lost his heart. To obtain her for his wife he had her husband placed by his commander in the forefront of the battle, so that he would be killed. David then wed Bathsheba, and she became the mother of Solomon. We all have sinned, we all must seek forgiveness from God and our fellow-men. David was forgiven. We, too, will be if we sincerely repent and turn from our sins. Psalm 32 is the second of the so-called Penitential Psalms. In it David speaks of the blessedness of forgiveness after the darkness of the hours in which he kept silent and brooded over his wickedness. "Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long. For day and night Thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah. "I acknowledged my sin unto Thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and Thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah." Even very little children are unhappy when they know they have done wrong. Schoolchildren know too well the feelings of my transgressions; and my sin is ever before me. "Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me and I shall be whiter than snow. "Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice. "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. "O Lord, open Thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth Thy praise. "For Thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon Thee. "Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice; let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications. "If Thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with Thee, that Thou mayest be feared. "I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in His word do I hope."

MEMORY VERSE "For Thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive."—Psalm 86:5.
