

Electric Co op Annual Meeting Set For Aug. 27

Members of the Haywood Electric Membership Corporation will hold their annual meeting August 27 at the Waynesville Armory, for the 10th annual meeting.

The session will open at 10 a. m. The directors of the corporation discussed plans for the annual meeting at their monthly meeting recently and selected a committee to nominate the organization's 11 directors for the new year.

Named to the committee were Luther Stephens, Chairman; F. A. Justice, Clyde route 1; O. F. Bunnelle, Canton route 3; A. C. Patterson, Franklin route 2; A. M. Paxton, Boston; Perry Yarbrough, Candler route 1; Carl Edwards, Canton route 2; Ralph Nichols, Canton route 1; F. C. Davis, Waynesville route 2; Jamie Smith, Clyde route 1; and C. E. Brown, Jr., of Clyde.

The current members of the board of directors are Chairman Carter O'hour, Secretary Treasurer, R. H. Copelan, Bob B. Medford, A. W. Evanson, W. P. Harris, Walker Brown, H. W. Davis and Blaine Nicholson.

The nominating committee will meet July 23rd to nominate directors for the presentation at the annual meeting.

The Corporation serves 3,435 families in five counties, and beginning next month plan to enlarge lines in Rabun County, Georgia, serving 100 families.

R. C. Sheffield is general manager of the corporation which has headquarters here.

Gay Nineties Revue To Be Repeated Monday

By JEAN HAMIL, Mountaineer Correspondent
"A Gay Nineties Revue" will be presented by the Merry-makers at the Saunook School on Monday night, July 25, at 8 o'clock.

This is a repeat performance and the fourth appearance of the Merry-makers. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to come out to see the costumes of the 1890's. Fashions for around the clock with bustles and long-sleeved bathing suits will be shown.

Also featured will be the Barber-shop Quartet.

Refreshments, including homemade ice cream, will be sold during the evening.

The Merry-makers are members of a recently organized club directed by Mrs. Clifton Shook.

About 74 per cent of the people in the United States now are 65 years old or older.

Dr. Daniel Gives Organ Recital At Junaluska

Marked by excellence of musicianship and program selection, the Saturday night musical given by Cyrus Daniel of Nashville, Tenn., assisted by two members of his choir, delighted a large auditorium audience from the Assembly grounds and nearby places.

The featured Hammond organ recital by Dr. Daniel was interspersed by vocal numbers given by Miss Katherine Fryer, soprano, of Nashville, and Frank Love, baritone of Atlanta. Ga. Mr. Love sang "Trade Winds" by Koel, and Miss Fryer's solo was "The Time for Singing Songs Has Come." Their duo number was Mozart's "La Ci Daren."

Dr. Daniel's numbers included the Bach "Tocatta and Fugue in D Minor," Mendelssohn's "Nocturne," from "Mid-summer Night's Dream," and Corelli's five-part "Suite in F." Especially popular with the audience was a group of characterization pieces, "Cuckoo," by Lemare; "Mist," by Doty; "By the Brook," by Boisdeffre; and "Drifting Clouds," by Timmings.

Grey Watkins Has Birthday Party Today

Grey Watkins entertained a group of friends at a party at her home in Grinnall Park this afternoon in celebration of her ninth birthday. She was assisted by her mother, Mr. Dan Watkins.

Various games were featured and refreshments were served. The guest list included Joan Prevost, Pan Parkman, Mary Jane Queen, Nancy Prevost, Patience Ray, Norma Stackpole, Susan Woodward, Marty and Charlotte Watkins, Dicky Stackpole, Douglas Woodward, Skipper Sloan, and Sonny Prevost.

Mrs. Charles T. Hillman of Willimansett, Mass., will arrive tomorrow for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards, Jr., at Lake Junaluska.

Radio Contestants

Bette Hannah, J. D. Hyatt Are Contest Winners

Miss Bette Hannah, pianist, was named winner of the final talent contest, sponsored by the Ruth Craig Beauty Shop over Radio Station WHCC. She has been awarded the top prize of $25.00.

J. D. Hyatt, vocalist, who won second honors in the contest, was awarded a prize of $10.00.

These two winners were selected from a group of five contestants who appeared on a program last week.

The entire program, which has run for twenty-five weeks, has featured around one hundred and twenty five talented young people in the community with Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan as mistress of ceremonies. Winners have been selected on each weekly program to compete in elimination events held at the end of each five-week period. The final contestants were winners in these elimination programs. Weekly winners have received prizes of $2.50 and those who went to the final concert received an additional $5.00.

Miss Hannah, who is an accomplished musician, serves as organist at the First Presbyterian Church. She is a member of the senior class at St. John's School and is an outstanding student. Last year she was tapped for membership in the Quill and Scroll Club, International high school journalistic fraternity, and next year will serve as editor-in-chief of the school paper, Mountain Echoes. She is the daughter of Mrs. Carrie Hannah and the late William T. Hannah.

Mr. Hyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hyatt, is also a musician of note. He studied voice at Julia School of Music and is now a student at the New York College of Music. He has appeared on a number of local radio programs.

M. H. Bowles and Richard Barber, Jr., attended the district Rotary meeting in Blue Ridge the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Long are attending the Horse Show in Hendersonville today.

Special Events Are Scheduled At Camp Junaluska

Spirits have not been dampened at Camp Junaluska for girls this week as plans go forward for the annual special events on the camp program. These include the activities centering around the Camp Queen, ceremonies of the camp tribes, and even a Christmas celebration.

Miss Bruce Yokely of Mount Airy has been chosen as this year's queen and, with members of her court, will be honored at a buffet supper in the camp dining room tonight. The Coronation Ball, always a colorful affair, will be held Saturday night.

Sharing honors with Miss Yokely will be her maid of honor, Miss Judy Clark of West Palm Beach, and her maids, Miss Bette Thompson of St. Petersburg; Miss Nancy Gray of Orlando; Miss Sally Benson of New Smyrna Beach; Miss Harriet Ramsey of Tampa; Miss Anne Trotter of Columbia, S. C.; and Miss Susan Walker of Wilmington.

Miss Tiff Webb of Tampa will serve as junior princess and her maid of honor will be Miss Lee Starry of Tallahassee. Junior maids are Miss Ann Tilley and Miss Ramelle Ellis of Orlando and Miss Ginger Kelley and Miss Julia Gray Warwick of West Palm Beach.

The queen will be crowned at the ball since the annual pageant and coronation, scheduled for this week out-of-doors, was postponed. Miss Marjorie Yokely, a member of the camp staff and former dieneen, will place the crown on her sister's head. Also taking part will be the queen's twin sister, Miss

Dewey Greets Lions

On Tuesday night an honor council and impressive fire lighting ceremony was held with the four tribes of the camp participating. Conducting the program were the tribe leaders and their assistants as follows: Miss Sally Benson of New Smyrna Beach, leader of the Cherokee tribe, and her assistant, Miss Bette Thompson of St. Petersburg; Miss Nancy Gray of Orlando, leader of the Nacoochee tribe, and her assistant, Miss Joan Crumley of St. Augustine; Miss Jane Snipes of Knoxville, Senochee tribe leader, with assistant, Miss Louly Fowler of Carrollton, Ga.; and Miss Susan Walker of Wilmington, leader of the Tuscola tribe, with her assistant, Miss Sandra Clarke of West Palm Beach.

Another event anticipated by the girls is the celebration of the Camp Christmas, which will take place Sunday and Monday. A special Christmas vesper service will be held Sunday afternoon and the Story of Christmas will be presented in music and Scripture. At this time an offering will be taken for the camp's charitable projects.

After taps Sunday night the counselors will go through the camp singing Christmas carols. On Monday a traditional Christmas dinner will be served and the campers will exchange gifts placed upon a Christmas tree.

Camp Junaluska, which was the first summer camp for girls in the South, has been in operation for 37 years. It is directed by Miss Ethel McCoy with her sister, Mrs. Thomas McKee as associate director, and Miss Palmira Carbajal as assistant director. This summer Miss McCoy in conducting

Gov. Dewey Welcomes Lions

GOVERNOR Thomas E. Dewey welcomes the 35,000 members of the Lions International and their families to New York City for their 32nd annual convention. During his address, Gov. Dewey urged that western Europe be welded into an economic unit like the U. S. and that Marshall Plan funds be spent towards that end. (International)
