JUDGE SUSIE SHARP of Reidsville, is holding her first term of court in Rockingham. She refused to let photographers take her picture during court, or at any recess. The Associated Press photograph was made soon after being appointed judge by Governor Scott.

Many Attend Colorful Session At Beaverdam

BY EVA JANE WORLEY
Mountaineer Correspondent

A large group of Beaverdam residents attended the Community Development Program meeting held Monday night at the Beaverdam School—a meeting that proved to be one of the most interesting held since the Program was organized.

Music and song took the spotlight on the program, featuring James Worley's String Band, Hannah Reno with her banjo, the Surratt Family, and the Best Sisters—Marie, Bobbie, and Frances. Members of the band, in addition to Mr. Worley, are Roy Parham, Ned Smathers, and Fred Wright. Guest speaker of the evening was Tull Jamison.

Beaverdam is rich with talented young people, and if the older people encourage them and help them, this community will become one of the best in the county.

Everyone interested in a better community is urged to come to the meeting Tuesday night at the Beaverdam School and help the young folks to a better standard of living through this program.

Patrol Recovered 44 Cars In June

RALEIGH—The Theft Bureau of the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles assisted in the recovery of 44 stolen automobiles during June and launched investigations into the theft of 39 more, the Department announced this week.

In addition the bureau collected $51,635.93 in penalties and additional license fees for trucks caught overloaded. Of this amount $11,932.39 was taken in for additional license fees and $9,493 in penalties for privately-owned vehicles. Additional fees on commercial vehicles amounted to $18,225.91 and penalties were $11,979.63. Total penalties were $21,477.63.

Junaluska Queen To Be Chosen Next Monday

Of special interest among young people's groups at Lake Junaluska Assembly is the election of a Queen for the 1949 season. The election and coronation of a Queen of the Lake are annual red letter events here. Nominated for Queen this year are Miss Nancy Floyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Floyd of Lake Junaluska, and Miss Mary Holley, of Hartsville, South Carolina, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Carline Holley and grand-daughter of the Rev. A. E. Holley, noted South Carolina minister and wife.

The election will take place next Monday, August 1, by popular vote. Nominations were closed Monday. Coronation of the Queen-elect will be a colorful event of August 13th. Bill L. Lee, head of the Assembly recreation department will be in charge.

W. Pigeon To Hold Practice For Field Day Events

By MRS. CLYDE COLLINS
Mountaineer Correspondent

In preparation for the two Field Days coming this month the West Pigeon Community Development Club will practice soft ball and other games each Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 2:00 to 4:00. Clyde Collins, recreation chairman, will be in charge of softball. The other committees are invited to take charge of their activities at the same time.

We urge the people of the community to prepare themselves that we might win our field day program—Center Pigeon, Aug. 16; Cruise, Aug. 24.

The 45,000 square feet of fenestration wall surfacings in the network of subway concourses under Philadelphia's City Hall section is believed to constitute the largest fenestration installation in the world.

Amateurs Will Compete For Honors At Fines Creek Tomorrow

Arrangements were complete today for the Fines Creek Amateur Night Program that will be held tomorrow night at the Fines Creek School.

The lineup revealed by Mrs. Mark Ferguson, the program chairman, indicated that some of the county's finest fiddlers, singers, and bands will perform from the stage at the school house. Community Chairman Charles Duckett will preside.

Among the entries are the excellent Allen Creek Quartet, The Carpenter String Band from Canton that proved one of the major attractions at last week's Haywood County Folk Festival, Joe Kirkpatrick, one of the county's most talented fiddlers, the Bradshaw String Band, Charlene and Stuart Duckett as a duet, the Duckett Quartet, the Taylor Allen String Band, Charles Isley's Quartet, the Craft Crawford String Band, and O. R. Roberts, the singing state highway patrolman, who lends his rich bass every Sunday morning to the fine choir of the First Baptist Church of Waynesville.

There also will be Este Wampler's and Will Kirkpatrick's String Bands, and Rossin and Juanita Messer, singing a duet.

There had been hopes of having an added feature to tickle the appetites of the visitors. But this one had to be passed by, because the barbecue pit will not be ready in time for the program.

The Amateur Night event is one of a series which will be held throughout the county in connection with the Community Development recreation program.

Judges will pick the best talent in each community to represent that community in the county-wide Amateur Night will be held in Canton in connection with the Labor Day program.

Improvements Made On Business Property Here

Dr. John Smathers, Waynesville dentist, recently completed further improvements to his business property in town.

Workmen recently finished structuring the fronts and applying Bondex on four buildings on Church Street, making the structures similar in appearance to the front of the town hall.

Recent improvements also had been made on the doctor's Main Street property at and adjacent to Gunn's Corner. Smart, green glass paneling was installed on the face of the adjoining stores and buildings.

Dr. Smathers estimated Tuesday the total cost of these improvements was several thousand dollars.
