

TO CHURCH SUNDAY

First Methodist Church

WAYNESVILLE
 Rev. Russell L. Young, Pastor
 Sunday School, 10 a.m. Francis Massie, general superintendent J. H. Howell, teacher of the Men's Bible Class, invites all men to a class of fellowship and inspiration.
 The class meets in the main auditorium of the church.

Morning Worship, 11 o'clock following special music by the Senior Choir, the pastor will speak on the theme, "Seeking the Best." Public invited.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet in the Youth Chapel at 6:45 in the evening. Young people invited.

Evening services at Lake Junauska, 8 o'clock. The speaker will be our former Bishop Clare Purcell. You will want to hear him.

Regular monthly meeting of the Board of Stewards will be held in the Dining Hall of the church at 7:30 Monday evening. It is most important that all members be present.

Choir rehearsals: Youth and Senior Choirs, 6:30 and 8 o'clock, Wednesday evening; Children, 10 a. m. Saturday.

Recreation for young people, 7 to 9:30 each Wednesday evening.
 All young people invited.

We have been most fortunate in securing Dr. Pierce Harris, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Atlanta, and his Director of Music, Mr. Armstrong, for a series of revival messages, both morning and evening, beginning Monday evening, August 15th, and running through the 19th. We solicit the prayers and cooperation of all who are interested in making Waynesville a better place in which to live and grow a family.

Bible School To Be Held at Riverside

A Bible School will be held at the Riverside School for the children of the community, starting at 9 a. m. Monday.

The school will continue through next week, with the Rev. C. O.
 Newell, pastor of the Crabtree Methodist Charge, serving as principal.

MONEY WINDFALL SHORT-LIVED

AUBURN, Wash. (UP)—During a windstorm, paper money began blowing down Main Street. A scramble for the money began.
 City Treasurer M. E. Brewer had rounded a corner with $921 in bills under his arm when a gust of wind blew it away. He said he got every cent back.

Rockwood Church

Pastor To Hold Radio Series

Rev. George Curren, pastor of the Rockwood Methodist church, will conduct morning devotionals over station WHCC Monday through Saturday at 9:30 o'clock.

The following week, Aug. 8-13, Rev. W. H. Wakefield, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sevier, will be the speaker.

Sunday morning service will be broadcast from the First Baptist church at 11 o'clock.

Special music by the choir will be under the direction of Charles Fiey with Joe Morrow at the organ.

Rev. L. G. Elliott will deliver the sermon. He subject will be "Opening Prison Doors."

Those who cannot attend church are invited to listen.

Through the cooperation of WHCC the Haywood County Ministerial Association brings these daily periods of worship to the members of Haywood and Jackson counties.

Children To Plead For Orphanage

The seven James children of Dellwood students at Children's Home in Winston-Salem, will carry a message in behalf of the Methodist school Sunday to the four churches of the Dellwood Methodist Circuit.

They will bring these pleas in the form of songs.

The Rev. J. E. B. Houser, pastor of the circuit, said today in his announcement that this will be part of the observance of Children's Home Sunday.

The children arrive Saturday to spend their vacations with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff James of Dellwood.

At 10 A. M., they will appear at Elizabeth Chapel; at 10:30 o'clock at Maple Grove Church; 11 o'clock at Dellwood Church; and 2 P. M. at Maggie Church.

The children entered Children's Home shortly before their father, Louie James, died in 1947.

The pastor urged that liberal offerings for the Home be given at the Sunday School classes.

There are more than 400 children in the school who are dependent on the Methodists of the Western North Carolina Conference for their support and education, he declared.

Man Who Draws 'Right Around Home'

Back in 1937, Dudley Fisher took a rest from his work, and started dreaming about what Christmas would be like on his grandmother's farm. He had a grandmother and she had a farm. That's the way "Right Around Home," the popular syndicated cartoon, was born.
 Here's the author of the popular strip in action. He also draws the daily comic strip "Myrtle" and writes that his 17-year-old daughter "no doubt" had a lot to do with the beginning of that strip. The Sunday comic page, "Right Around Home," is distributed by King Features.

Seminary President Urges Sunday School Attendance By Family

SLOW BUT SURE
 TULLAHOMA, Tenn. (UP)—Rev.
 Taylor, local druggist, received a check for $40 but no letter accompanied it. Taylor studied his old account's and found the number of the check had run up a $25 account as a 16-year-old boy in 1925 and had left town without paying it.

Sunday School is not merely for the children. It is for everyone.
 (Singing attendance by the entire family, E. D. Head, president of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, made this observation recently.)
 "Take your family to Sunday School" because the family is the pivotal unit in society. As goes the family, so goes all else—the school, the church, the state. When you take your family to Sunday School, you take them to the Bible to the church, to fellowship with consecrated Christian teachers; to a predominantly healthful spiritual atmosphere; to Christ, the Saviour of the soul and the Lord of life; in fact, you make available for them that which is indispensable to the stability of the family, the serenity of the home, the hope of the world.

Salvation Army Singing Session Set For Aug. 7th

Plans are being completed for the 15th annual convention of the Salvation Army, held in Winston-Salem, N. C., on Sunday, Aug. 7th. The convention recently held at the Hotel Cecil in that city, was the largest of the kind ever held in the South.

Col. G. A. Campbell, chief commander of the Salvation Army, and stationed in Charlotte, will be the speaker for the occasion.

Ministers, students, general conventions, and several thousand are expected to be in the city.

Bug Expert Tells How To Chase Chiggers

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP)—Chig-gers are likely to be as common as about as common as invited on the scene, even though something has been done.

Prof. O. S. Bare, University of Nebraska entomologist, offers three ways of ridding the party of the pest.

The old-fashioned remedy of dusting with sulphur at the rate of one pound per three square rods is one of the best, he said.

For those who feel there is little to choose from between the odor of sulphur and chiggers, Bare suggests a five per cent chlordane dust, one pound to four square rods. A 10 per cent toxaphene dust also is good, he said, half a pound to four square rods.

All treatments usually are effective for two or three weeks, he said.

VANISHING INDIAN

NORTH RAYMOND, Me. (UP)— "Me Indian," says Isaac Bubir. And he's been saying it for almost 100 years, because that's how old he is.
 With nearly a century of Indian woodcraft lore behind him, Isaac took a short walk home through a swamp from a friend's house.

A search party with bloodhounds found the vanishing Indian three days later, lost in the swamp.
 "How did I get in here?" he asked.

THE PLAYERS WITHOUT A SCORECARD!

The cry goes out to millions in the nation's grandstands. Actually it is echoing a simple but fundamental principle of modern advertising.

Advertising is the scorecard for intelligent shoppers. It does more than identify a product, however. It tells where this product is available, and at what price. About thousands of products, thousands of necessities and conveniences, it gives accurate information INSTANTLY - information that one individual could not secure, even after the most painstaking and wearying search.

You can't tell the values without reading the advertisements in this newspaper!
