

TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Give Thanks to God

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buscher

Scripture—Psalms 92: 104; 136:1-9, 25, 26.

Give thanks unto the Lord, for He hath made me glad.

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him. For He knoweth our frame. He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass, for the word passeth over it and it is gone, but the mercy of the Lord endureth forever.

O give thanks unto the Lord; to Him that made the moon and stars to shine by night. His mercy endureth forever.

MEMORY VERSE—Psalm 92:1

Long's Chapel To Hold Church Camp Starting Monday

The youngsters of the Long's Chapel Methodist Church school will start five days of camping, fishing, and outdoor life next Monday.

The Rev. Paul H. Duckwall, the pastor, said the day camp, being held in cooperation with the Methodist general board of education, will be for children who were in the fourth, fifth, or sixth grades of public school during the last year.

At 9:15 A. M. each morning through Friday, the children will meet at Long's Chapel and go to the camp site at Holston Village.

There will be singing, stories, worship, games, handicraft, and other activities.

The campers will go back to the church at 3 P. M. every day to return to their homes.

The pastor said each child is asked to bring his lunch every day and an old blanket for "lay time" on the ground.

Registration will be completed Sunday morning in the junior department of the Sunday School with Mrs. C. G. Medford superintendent of the Sunday School children's division in charge.

Scene Of Sunday's Singing Convention

This is the Salvation Army Citadel at Maple Springs, on the Max Patch road, where the annual singing convention will be held Sunday. Large crowds are expected to attend. Details of the convention will be found on page one.

All-Day Service Set For Peachtree Church

The annual all-day service and dinner of the Peachtree Church will be held Sunday.

Singers and the public generally are invited to attend.

The service at the church, which is on the Black Camp Gap road, will start at 10 a. m., with dinner on the grounds scheduled for noon, the Rev. C. B. Brown, the pastor, said in his announcement today.

Instead of medals for bravery, soldiers of Annon, Indo-China, in 1640 received orders on the royal treasury for as much meat and other foods as they and their families could eat during the soldier's lifetime.

Sylva Pastor To Hold Radio Devotions

Rev. W. H. Wakefield, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Sylva, will be the speaker for morning devotions next week Monday through Saturday at 9:30 over station WHCC. The speaker for the following week will be Rev. J. Doyle Miller, pastor of the Dutch Cove Baptist Church.

The Sunday morning worship service will be broadcast from the First Methodist Church of Waynesville at 11 o'clock. Bishop H. A. Hoaz will be the guest preacher. The pastor, Rev. R. L. Young, invites those who cannot be present to hear Bishop Hoaz by radio.

Sermon Series To Continue Sunday Night

"Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother" will be the title in the series of sermons on the Ten Commandments at the First Baptist Church, Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

The first four commandments declare our duty to God, while the last six declare our duty to man in the first group, religiously, morally looking Godward, while the latter is morally looking manward. The fifth commandment, the link between the two groups of divine decrees, for it looks Godward and manward. For this reason it has been called the centerpiece of God's law. This is the first commandment with a promise. Both parents and children are cordially invited to hear this sermon.

Work Continues On Site For New Clyde Parsonage

Workmen were busy this week demolishing the old Clyde Methodist Church to make way for a new parsonage, which will be situated on the site of the old church.

The church members moved into their new building in early March.

The parsonage will be a brick, veneered, six-room house with full basement.

J. C. Haynes, Frank Chambers, and Edward Green, compose the Building Committee.

Rev. W. T. Medford, Jr., is pastor of the Church.

It is expected that the parsonage will be ready for occupancy by November 1.
